REN FINANCE B.V.
EUR 5,000,000,000
Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Under this EUR 5,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the "Programme"), REN – Redes Energéticas Nacionais, SGPS, S.A. ("REN") and REN Finance B.V. ("REN B.V." and together with REN, the "Issuers" and each an "Issuer") may from time to time issue notes (the "Notes") denominated in any currency agreed between the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below).

The Notes issued by REN B.V. will not be guaranteed by REN but REN B.V. has the benefit of the Keep Well Agreement executed by REN as more fully described herein under "Relationship of REN B.V. with REN".

The maximum aggregate nominal amount of all Notes from time to time outstanding under the Programme will not exceed EUR 5,000,000,000, subject to increase as described herein. The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under "Summary of the Programme" and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the relevant Issuer (each a "Dealer" and together the "Dealers"), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Base Prospectus to the "relevant Dealer" shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see "Risk Factors".

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the Central Bank of Ireland (the "Central Bank") as competent authority under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "EU Prospectus Regulation"). The Central Bank of Ireland has only approved this Base Prospectus as meeting the requirements of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the EU Prospectus Regulation. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuers that are the subject of this Base Prospectus nor as an endorsement of the quality of any Notes and relates only to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market for the purposes of the EU Prospectus Regulation and/or which are to be offered to the public in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the "EEA"). Application has been made to Euronext Dublin for Notes issued under the Programme during the period of twelve months from the date hereof to be admitted to the official list of Euronext Dublin (the "Official List") and to trading on the regulated market of the Irish Stock Exchange Plc, trading as Euronext Dublin ("Euronext Dublin"). Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in such Notes. This Base Prospectus is valid for a period of twelve months from the date of approval. The Programme provides that Notes may also be listed or admitted to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Lisbon ("Euronext Lisbon"). The Programme also permits Notes to be issued on the basis that they will not be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system or to be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by such other or further competent authorities, stock exchanges and/or quotation systems as may be agreed with the relevant Issuer. Euronext Dublin's regulated market and Euronext Lisbon's regulated market are each regulated markets ("Regulated Markets") for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II") on markets in financial instruments. The relevant Final Terms in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on Euronext Dublin or Euronext Lisbon.

This Base Prospectus is valid for 12 months from its date in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA and/or offered to the public in the EEA other than in circumstances where an exemption is available under Article 1(4) and/or 3(2) of the EU Prospectus Regulation. The obligation to supplement this Base Prospectus in the event of a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy does not apply when this Base Prospectus is no longer valid.

Notes issued under the Programme by REN will have a maturity of 398 days or more. Notes issued under the Programme by REN B.V. will have a maturity of one year or more.

Notes issued by REN will be issued in dematerialised book-entry form (forma escritural) ("Book-Entry Notes") and will be nominativas which means that Interbolsa – Sociedade Gestora de Sistemas de Liquidação e de Sistemas Centralizados de Valores Mobiliários, S.A. ("Interbolsa"), at the Issuer's (REN's) request, can ask the affiliate members of Interbolsa (the "Affiliate Members of Interbolsa") for information regarding the identity of the Noteholders and transmit such information to the Issuer. Book-Entry Notes will be registered by Interbolsa as management entity of the Portuguese Centralised System of Registration of Securities (Central de Valores Mobiliários) ("CVM").

Notes issued by REN B.V. will be issued in bearer form (which may initially be in the form of a temporary global note, exchangeable for a permanent global note, which is exchangeable for definitive bearer Notes or a registered Note in definitive form in certain limited circumstances) or registered form (which may initially be in the form of registered global note, exchangeable for registered Notes in definitive form in certain limited circumstances) ("Non-Book-Entry Notes"). The provisions governing the exchange of interests in Global Notes are described in "Form of the Notes, Clearing Systems, Exercise of Rights and Listing".

The Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be agreed between the relevant Issuer and the relevant Dealer save that the minimum denomination of each Note will be such amount as may be allowed or required from time to time by the relevant central bank (or equivalent body) or any laws or regulations applicable to the relevant Specified Currency, and save that the minimum denomination of each Note admitted to trading on a regulated market within the EEA or offered to the public either in a Member State of the EEA or in the United Kingdom in circumstances which require the publication of a prospectus under the EU Prospectus Regulation or Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the "UK Prospectus Regulation") will be EUR 1,000 (or, if the Notes are denominated in a currency other than euro, the equivalent amount in such currency).

This Base Prospectus constitutes a base prospectus for the purposes of article 8 of the EU Prospectus Regulation.

Each of Moody's France SAS ("Moody's"), S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited ("Standard & Poor's") and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited ("Fitch") has rated REN and the Programme (see page 12).

Each of Moody's, Standard & Poor's and Fitch is established in the EEA and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the "EU CRA Regulation"). As such, each of Moody's, Standard & Poor's and Fitch is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority on its website in accordance with such Regulation.

Tranches of Notes may be rated or unrated. If a Tranche of Notes is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the applicable Final Terms. Whether or not each credit rating applied for in relation to the relevant Tranche of Notes will be issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the "EU CRA Regulation" will be disclosed in the Final Terms.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Responsibility for this Base Prospectus

REN B.V. as Issuer and REN in its capacities as Issuer and as Keep Well Provider each accept responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and the Final Terms for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of REN and REN B.V. (the "Responsible Persons"), the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Final Terms/Drawdown Prospectus

Each Tranche (as defined herein) of Notes will be issued on the terms set out herein under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" (the "Conditions") as completed by a document specific to such Tranche called final terms (the "Final Terms").

Non-Exempt Public Offers of Notes in the European Economic Area

Certain Tranches of Notes with a denomination of less than EUR 100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency) may, subject as provided below, be offered in any Member State of the EEA in circumstances where there is no exemption from the obligation under the EU Prospectus Regulation to publish a prospectus. Any such offer is referred to in this Base Prospectus as a "Non-Exempt Public Offer".

This Base Prospectus has been prepared on a basis that it permits Non-Exempt Public Offers of Notes in Ireland. In addition, the Issuers have requested the Central Bank of Ireland to provide a certificate of approval in accordance with Article 25 of the EU Prospectus Regulation (a "passport") in relation to the passporting of the Base Prospectus to the competent authority of Portugal (the "Host Member State" and, together with Ireland, each a "Public Offer Jurisdiction"). Even though the Issuers have passported the Base Prospectus into the Host Member State, it does not mean that either Issuer will choose to make any Non-Exempt Public Offer in the Host Member State. Investors should refer to the Final Terms for any issue of Notes to see whether the relevant Issuer has elected to make a Non-Exempt Public Offer of Notes in the Public Offer Jurisdictions and the period during which it intends to make such a Non-Exempt Public Offer in the Public Offer Jurisdictions. Any person making or intending to make a Non-Exempt Public Offer of Notes in a Public Offer Jurisdiction on the basis of this Base Prospectus must do so only with the consent of the Responsible Persons – see "Consent given in accordance with Article 5(1) of the EU Prospectus Regulation (Retail Cascades)" below.

If after the date of this Base Prospectus the Issuers intend to add one or more Member States to the list of Non-Exempt Public Offer Jurisdictions for any purpose, they will prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus specifying such Member State(s) and any relevant additional information required by the EU Prospectus Regulation. Such supplement will also set out provisions relating to the consent of the Responsible Persons to the use of this Base Prospectus in connection with any Non-Exempt Public Offer in any such additional Public Offer Jurisdiction.

Consent given in accordance with Article 5(1) of the EU Prospectus Regulation (Retail Cascades)

In the context of any Non-Exempt Public Offer of Notes in a Public Offer Jurisdiction, the Responsible Persons accept responsibility in that Public Offer Jurisdiction, for the content of this Base Prospectus in relation to any person (an "Investor") who purchases any Notes in a Non-Exempt Public Offer made by a Dealer or an Authorised Offeror (as defined below), where that offer is made during the Offer Period (as defined below).

Except in the circumstances described below, the Responsible Persons have not authorised the making of any offer by any offeror or consented to the use of this Base Prospectus by any other person in connection with any offer of the Notes in any jurisdiction. Any offer made without the consent of the Responsible Persons is unauthorised and neither the Responsible Persons nor, for the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee or any of the Dealers accepts any responsibility or liability in relation to such offer or for the actions of the persons making any such unauthorised offer.

If, in the context of a Non-Exempt Public Offer, an Investor is offered Notes by a person which is not an Authorised Offeror, the Investor should check with such person whether anyone is responsible for this Base Prospectus for the purpose of the relevant Non-Exempt Public Offer and, if so, who that person is.

If an Investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on this Base Prospectus and/or who is responsible for its contents, the Investor should take legal advice.

Consent to the use of this Base Prospectus

Common conditions to Consent

The conditions to the consent of the Responsible Persons are (in addition to the conditions described in either sub-paragraph (a) (Specific Consent) or sub-paragraph (b) (General Consent) under "Consent" below) that such consent:

- i. is only valid in respect of the relevant Tranche of Notes;
- ii. is only valid during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- iii. only extends to the use of this Base Prospectus to make Non-Exempt Public Offers of the relevant Tranche of Notes in such of the Non-Exempt Public Offer Jurisdictions as are specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The consent referred to above relates to Non-Exempt Public Offers occurring within 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus.

Specific Consent and General Consent

Subject to the conditions set out above under "Common Conditions to Consent", each of the Responsible Persons consents to the use of this Base Prospectus in connection with a Non-Exempt Public Offer of Notes in any Public Offer Jurisdiction by:

(a) Specific Consent:

- (i) the Dealers specified in the relevant Final Terms;
- (ii) any financial intermediaries specified in the applicable Final Terms, and
- (iii) any financial intermediary appointed after the date of the applicable Final Terms and whose name is published on the website of the Keep Well Provider (www.ren.pt) and identified as an Authorised Offeror in respect of the relevant Non-Exempt Public Offer, and

(b) General Consent:

If General Consent is specified in the relevant Final Terms as applicable, any other financial intermediary which:

- (i) is authorised to make such offers under MiFID II; and
- (ii) accepts such offer by publishing on its website the following statement (with the information in square brackets duly completed with the relevant information) (the "Acceptance Statement"):

"We, [insert legal name of financial intermediary], refer to the offer of [insert title of relevant Notes] (the "Notes") described in the Final Terms dated [insert date] (the "Final Terms") published by [REN – Redes Energéticas Nacionais, SGPS, S.A./REN Finance B.V.] (the "Issuer").

In consideration of the Issuer offering to grant its consent to our use of the Base Prospectus (as defined in the Final Terms) in connection with the offer of the Notes in [insert name(s) of relevant Public Offer Jurisdiction(s)] during the Offer Period in accordance with the Authorised Offeror Terms (as specified in the Base Prospectus), we accept the offer by the Issuer. We confirm that we are authorised under MiFID II to make, and are using the Base Prospectus in connection with, the Non-Exempt Public Offer accordingly.

Terms used herein and otherwise not defined shall have the same meaning as given to such terms in the Base Prospectus."

Any financial intermediary falling within sub-paragraph (b) above who wishes to use this Base Prospectus in connection with a Non-Exempt Public Offer is required, for the duration of the relevant Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms, to publish a duly completed Acceptance Statement on its website.

Authorised Offerors

The financial intermediaries referred to in sub-paragraphs (a)(ii) and (a)(iii) and sub-paragraph (b) above are together referred to herein as the "Authorised Offerors".

Arrangements between an Investor and the Authorised Offeror who will distribute the Notes

Neither the Issuers nor, for the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee or any of the Dealers has any responsibility for any of the actions of any Authorised Offeror, including compliance by an Authorised Offeror with applicable conduct of business rules or other local regulatory requirements or other securities law requirements in relation to such offer.

AN INVESTOR INTENDING TO ACQUIRE OR ACQUIRING ANY NOTES IN A NON-EXEMPT PUBLIC OFFER FROM AN AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL DO SO, AND OFFERS AND SALES OF SUCH NOTES TO AN INVESTOR BY SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE MADE, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY TERMS AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS IN PLACE BETWEEN SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR AND SUCH INVESTOR INCLUDING AS TO PRICE, ALLOCATIONS, EXPENSES AND SETTLEMENT ARRANGEMENTS. NEITHER OF THE ISSUERS WILL BE A PARTY TO ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENTS WITH SUCH INVESTORS IN CONNECTION WITH THE NON-EXEMPT PUBLIC OFFER OR SALE OF THE NOTES CONCERNED AND, ACCORDINGLY, THIS BASE PROSPECTUS AND ANY FINAL TERMS WILL NOT CONTAIN SUCH INFORMATION. THE INVESTOR MUST LOOK TO THE RELEVANT AUTHORISED OFFEROR AT THE TIME OF SUCH OFFER FOR THE PROVISION OF SUCH INFORMATION AND THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCH INFORMATION. NONE OF THE ISSUERS, THE TRUSTEE OR THE DEALERS HAS ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY TO AN INVESTOR IN RESPECT OF SUCH INFORMATION.

IN THE EVENT OF AN OFFER BEING MADE BY A FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARY, SUCH FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARY WILL PROVIDE INFORMATION TO INVESTORS ON THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER AT THE TIME THE OFFER IS MADE.

Non-Exempt Public Offers: Issue Price and Offer Price

Notes to be offered pursuant to a Non-Exempt Public Offer will be issued by the relevant Issuer at the Issue Price specified in the applicable Final Terms. The Issue Price will be determined by such Issuer in consultation with the relevant Dealer(s) at the time of the relevant Non-Exempt Public Offer and will depend, amongst other things, on the interest rate applicable to the Notes and prevailing market conditions at that time. The offer price of such Notes will be the Issue Price or such other price as may be agreed between an Investor and the Authorised Offeror making the offer of the Notes to such Investor. Neither of the Issuers will be party to arrangements between an Investor and an Authorised Offeror, and the Investor will need to look to the relevant Authorised Offeror to confirm the price at which such Authorised Offeror is offering the Notes to such Investor.

Other relevant information

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with any supplements hereto and with all documents which are deemed to be incorporated herein by reference (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference") and, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, must be read and construed together with the relevant Final Terms. The language of the Base Prospectus is English. Certain legislative references and technical terms have been cited in their original language so that the correct technical meaning may be ascribed to them under applicable law.

Copies of Final Terms in relation to Non-Book-Entry Notes will be available from the registered office of REN B.V. and the specified office set out below of each of the Paying Agents (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent) and copies of Final Terms in relation to Book-Entry Notes will be available from the registered office of REN and the specified office set out below of the Portuguese Paying Agent.

None of the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Trustee nor any of their respective affiliates makes any representation as to the suitability of the Notes to fulfil environmental and sustainability criteria required by any prospective investors. Neither the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Trustee nor any of their respective affiliates have undertaken, nor are they responsible for, any assessment of the projects related to Eligible Green Assets (as defined below), any verification of whether the projects related to Eligible Green Assets meet any such eligibility criteria or the monitoring or allocation of the use of proceeds.

ISS ESG has issued an independent opinion, dated 2 February 2021, on REN's Green Finance Framework (the "Second Party Opinion"). The Second Party Opinion provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations and is not intended to address any credit, market, or other aspects of an investment in any Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security. The Second Party Opinion is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. No representation or assurance is given by any of the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Trustee, or any of their respective affiliates as to the suitability or reliability of the Second Party Opinion or any opinion or certification of any third party made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as Green Bonds. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the providers of such opinions and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion or certification is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by any of the Arrangers, the Dealers or the Trustee or any of their respective affiliates to buy, sell or hold any such Notes and is current only as of the date it was issued. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion or certification does not form part of, nor is incorporated by reference in, this Base Prospectus. The criteria and/or considerations that formed the basis of the Second Party Opinion or any such other opinion or certification may change at any time and the Second Party Opinion may be amended, updated, supplemented, replaced and/or withdrawn. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion or certification and/or the information contained therein. The Issuer's Green Finance Framework may also be subject to review and change and may be amended, updated, supplemented, replaced and/or withdrawn from time to time and any subsequent version(s) may differ from any description given in this Base Prospectus.

Investors should refer to the Green Finance Framework (as defined in the "Use of Proceeds"), any Second Party Opinion and any public reporting by or on behalf of the Issuers in respect of the application of proceeds (each of which will be available on the Group's website (www.ren.pt) and which for the avoidance of doubt, will not be incorporated by reference into this Base Prospectus) for information. Neither the Arranger, the Dealers, the Trustee nor any of their respective affiliates make any representation as to the suitability or content of such materials.

The Dealers and the Trustee expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuers during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in the Notes of any information coming to their attention.

Unauthorised information

No person is or has been authorised by the Issuers, the Trustee or any of the Dealers to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuers, any of the Dealers or the Trustee.

Neither the Dealers, the Trustee nor any of their respective affiliates have authorised the whole or any part of this Base Prospectus and none of them makes any representation or warranty or accepts any responsibility as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Base Prospectus or any responsibility for the acts or omissions of the Issuers or any other person in connection with the issue and offering of the Notes. Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained herein is correct at any time subsequent to the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that there has been no adverse change, or any event reasonably likely to involve any adverse change, in the prospects or financial or trading position of the Issuers since the date thereof or, if later, the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same.

Restrictions on distribution

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by the Issuers and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms and other offering material relating to the Notes, see "Subscription and Sale" and "Transfer Restrictions".

In particular, the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended) (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. The Notes may not be offered, sold or (in the case of Notes in bearer form) delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S) except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuers, the Dealers, the Trustee or any of them that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuers.

None of Issuers, the Dealers or the Trustee represents that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, unless specifically indicated to the contrary in the applicable Final Terms, no action has been taken by the Issuers, the Dealers or the Trustee which is intended to permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Notes may come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the European Economic Area (including the Netherlands, Belgium and Portugal), the United Kingdom, Switzerland, Singapore and Japan, see "Subscription and Sale".

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Some Notes are complex financial instruments. Sophisticated institutional investors generally do not purchase complex financial instruments as stand-alone investments. They purchase complex financial instruments as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Notes which are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

MIFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "MiFID Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise none of the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates is deemed to be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MIFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET - The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and the appropriate channels for distribution of the Notes. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the "UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise none of the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS - If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the "EU PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the EU PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT - UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom ("UK"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of UK law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA"); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as amended (the "FSMA") and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of UK law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of UK law by virtue of EUWA (the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

EU Benchmarks Regulation

Interest and/or other amounts payable under the Notes may be calculated by reference to certain reference rates. Any such reference rate may constitute a benchmark for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the "EU Benchmarks Regulation"). If any such reference rate does constitute such a benchmark, the Final Terms will indicate whether or not the benchmark is provided by an administrator included in the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by ESMA pursuant to Article 36 (Register of administrators and benchmarks) of the EU Benchmarks Regulation. The registration status of any administrator under the EU Benchmarks Regulation is a matter of public record and, save where required by applicable law, the Issuer does not intend to update the Final Terms to reflect any change in the registration status of the administrator.

Product classification pursuant to Section 309B of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore

The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification" which will state the product classification of the Notes pursuant to section 309B(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore, as modified or amended from time to time (the "SFA").

The relevant Issuer will make a determination and provide written notification to relevant persons (as defined in section 309A of the SFA) in relation to each issue under the Programme about the classification of the Notes being offered for purposes of section 309B(1)(a) and section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA.

Programme limit

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at any one time under the Programme will not exceed EUR 5,000,000,000 (and for this purpose, any Notes denominated in another currency shall be translated into euro at the date of the agreement to issue such Notes (calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Programme Agreement)). The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding at any one time under the Programme may be increased from time to time, subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Programme Agreement as defined under "Subscription and Sale".

Certain definitions

In this Base Prospectus, unless otherwise specified, all references to "U.S. dollars", "U.S.$" and "$" refer to United States dollars; all references to "Sterling" and "£" refer to pounds sterling; all references to "Japanese Yen" and "¥" refer to Japanese yen; all references to "Swiss francs" and "CHF" refer to Swiss francs; all references to "euro", "EUR" and "€" refer to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty establishing the European Community (as amended).

Ratings

Tranches of Notes issued under the Programme will be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating(s) described above or the rating(s) assigned to Notes already issued. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. Whether or not each credit rating applied for in relation to a relevant Tranche of Notes will be issued or endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation or by a credit rating agency which is certified under the EU CRA Regulation will be disclosed in the Final Terms. In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes unless (1) such rating is issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation or (2) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA but is endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation or (3) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA which is certified under the EU CRA Regulation.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes, EEA regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment. This may result in EEA regulated investors selling the Notes which may impact the value of the Notes and any secondary market.

Alternative Performance Measures

REN includes certain Alternative Performance Measures, which are not required by or presented in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards, as established by the European Union ("IFRS-EU"), in this Base Prospectus. It presents Alternative Performance Measures because it is believed that these metrics provide useful information for investors, securities analysts and other interested parties in order to better understand REN's business, financial position, profitability, results of operations, the quality of its loan portfolio, the amount of equity per share and their progression over time. Other companies in the industry may calculate similarly titled measures differently, such that disclosure of similarly titled measures by other companies may not be comparable with that of REN. Investors are advised to review these Alternative Performance Measures in conjunction with the Group's audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes which are incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus. Such measures should not be considered as a substitute to profit or loss attributable to REN or any other performance measures derived in accordance with IFRS-EU or as an alternative to cash flow from operating, investing and financing activities as a measure of REN's liquidity. For more information see "Alternative Performance Measures."

Stabilisation

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

RISK FACTORS

The Issuers believe that the following specific factors may have a material effect on each Issuer's business, financial condition and results of operations, affecting their ability to fulfil their respective obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

Prospective investors should note that the risks relating to the Issuers, the industries in which each of them operates and the Notes summarised in the section of this Base Prospectus headed "Summary" are the risks that the Issuers believe to be the most relevant to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Notes. However, as the risks which the Issuers face relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, prospective investors should consider not only the information on the key risks summarised in the section of this Base Prospectus headed "Summary" but also, among other things, the risks and uncertainties described below.

The Issuers believe that the factors described below represent a limited selection of specific risks which the Issuers consider to be of most relevance to investors when making a decision to invest in Notes issued under the Programme. However, the inability of the Issuers to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes may occur for other reasons which may not be considered significant risks by the Issuers based on information currently available to them or which they may not currently be able to anticipate. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Base Prospectus and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Introduction

The risk factors set out below are applicable to REN B.V. as Issuer and as a member of the Group, and to REN as Issuer, holding company of the Group, and (if relevant) the Keep Well Provider. The risk factors have been organised into the following categories:

- Risks related to the legal and regulatory framework of REN;
- Risks related to the financial activities of REN;
- Risks related to the business and industry of REN;
- Risks related to the operational activities of REN;
- Risks related to recent acquisitions and investments;
- Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes;
- Risks relating to certain terms of the Notes.

Within each category, the most material risks, in the assessment of the Issuers, are set out first. The Issuers have assessed the materiality of the risk factors by calculating the probability of their occurrence and the expected magnitude of their negative impact. The order of the categories does not imply that any category of risk is more material than any other category. Prospective investors should read the detailed information set out in this Base Prospectus (including the documents incorporated by reference herein), in conjunction with each of the risk factors described below, and reach their own views prior to making an investment decision.

Risks related to the legal and regulatory framework of REN

REN is highly regulated and its results of operations are affected by Portuguese and European laws and regulations

As public service providers, REN companies operate in a highly regulated environment. Laws, regulations and policies, as well as decisions of the European Union (the "EU"), the Portuguese government and the Portuguese administrative and regulatory authorities have a material effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations. REN cannot predict to what extent technical, administrative and regulatory changes will be made in the future or, if any such changes are made, the effects these changes would have on its business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, policies adopted and regulatory innovation implemented in other EU countries could also have an influence in the Portuguese framework applicable to REN.

Some REN companies are subject to public procurement rules when entering into supply, works and services agreements. Public procurement rules may be subject to administrative and regulatory changes (which may also result from the development of case law or newly approved EU law) and whilst these companies believe that they comply with such legislation, if any such changes are made, this may affect REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, REN's electricity and natural gas businesses' ten-year development plan and the five-year development plan of REN Portgás Distribuição, S.A. ("REN Portgás") (which operates under a forty-year concession the natural gas distribution network in the coastal region of Northern Portugal) are subject to Entidade Reguladora dos Serviços Energéticos ("ERSE") evaluation, the strategic environmental impact assessment, and the discussion in the Portuguese Parliament and final approval by the member of the Portuguese government responsible for the energy sector; the development plan of the electricity grid may also be subject to the opinion of the EU Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators; the licensing of REN's main network and infrastructure expansion projects is subject to environmental impact assessment by the Agência Portuguesa do Ambiente ("APA"); and proposed grid development projects to the electricity and natural gas infrastructure managed by REN are subject to final evaluation on an administrative and licensing perspective, by the Director General for Energy and Geology (Direcção Geral de Energia e Geologia) ("DGEG"). If REN is unable to obtain the required approvals, it may not be able to expand or maintain its transmission and distribution network, which impacts its regulated asset base ("RAB") and may affect the quality of its service.

As operators of the Portuguese National Mainland Electricity Transmission Network (the "RNT") and of the Portuguese national high pressure gas transportation network (the "RNTG") under the relevant Portuguese and European regulations, REN – Rede Eléctrica Nacional, S.A. ("REN Rede Eléctrica") and REN Gasodutos, S.A. ("REN Gasodutos") have undergone a process of certification by ERSE, with consultation by the European Commission, to be an "OU operator" (ownership unbundling operator). As OU operators, both REN Rede Eléctrica and REN Gasodutos must comply with separation rules and maintain legal and actual independence in conducting the business from generation and supplying electricity and natural gas activities. In this context, the relevant authorities may impose any conditions that they deem necessary to ensure the required separation and the legal and actual independence for certification.

On 9 September 2014, ERSE issued a decision regarding the certification of REN Rede Eléctrica and REN Gasodutos as electricity transmission and natural gas grid operators, respectively, under a full legal and ownership unbundling, subject to the satisfaction of a set of certification conditions aiming at granting the operators independence. Such conditions were deemed satisfied by ERSE on 31 July 2015, as disclosed to the market by REN on 4 August 2015.

Although REN Portgás, REN Atlântico, Terminal de GNL, S.A. ("REN Atlântico"), REN Armazenagem, S.A. ("REN Armazenagem") and REN Trading, S.A. ("REN Trading") are not subject to the certification and ownership unbundling, these companies are subject to the variable unbundling requirements under the terms of the applicable laws or regulations (including decision-making unbundling).

REN's current operation in the electricity and gas markets may be expanded by law or regulation, which will result in new functions to be performed by REN, in particular given REN's position as global system manager in the electricity market and global technical manager in the gas market (e.g., activities such as issuance of reserve or capacity access titles on the grid and contracting of network infrastructure reinforcements with promoters). This increase of functions may lead to new regulatory requirements having to be met by REN and, therefore, new regulatory risks. Nevertheless, there is a risk that these new functions may not result in an increase of the regulated remuneration, insofar as they do not lead to an adjustment of the regulatory parameters that govern REN's allowed revenues, such as the RAB, the rate of return or the allowed operational expenditure.

Failure by REN or its subsidiaries to comply with such conditions in the future may result in materially adverse regulatory action, including termination of the relevant concession and it could therefore have a material and adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN's future profitability may be adversely affected by recent and future changes in the tariff and remuneration regime established by ERSE and by any other relevant law or regulation

As required by EU law, namely Directive (EU) no. 2019/944, of 5 June 2019, and Directive (EU) 2009/73/EC, of 13 July 2009, on the internal rules for the electricity and natural gas markets, Portugal has established an independent regulator, the ERSE to regulate the electricity and natural gas industries in Portugal. ERSE defines the remuneration that REN may receive within the scope of its regulated activities in these two regulated sectors, in accordance with the principles set out in the applicable laws, notably Decree-Law no. 15/2022, of 14 January, and Decree-Law no. 62/2020, of 28 August. These principles include transparency in the design and setting of tariffs, non-existence of cross subsidisation of activities and clients (preventing the use of income generated from the exercise of a given activity or from given clients to subsidising other activities or clients), cost reflective grid access tariffs and tariff additivity (which means that separate tariffs shall be set for each regulated activity and the final grid access tariff paid by clients shall correspond to the sum of the tariffs of the regulated activities the client benefits from), provision of economic signals to ensure an efficient use of grid and infrastructure, protection of clients regarding the evolution of tariffs while ensuring the economic and financial balance of regulated activities in conditions of efficient management, incentivisation of the efficient performance of regulated activities and promotion of energy efficiency and environmental standards. ERSE also sets out the operating service levels that REN is obliged to deliver. In attempting to achieve an appropriate balance between the interests of electricity and natural gas consumers, as well as the interests of REN and those of other participants in the energy sector while generating an appropriate remuneration, ERSE may take action that has an adverse impact on REN's profitability. Portugal could also pass laws or take other actions that could have a material impact on REN's business and profitability.

The vast majority of revenues generated by REN relate to its electricity and natural gas activities, recovered by regulated tariffs. Tariffs are set annually by ERSE within the parameters of regulatory frameworks it establishes, which are revised every four years at the start of the regulatory period. The duration of regulatory periods may change by decision of ERSE. In addition, ERSE may also change tariffs or tariff parameters during the period of its effectiveness.

On December 2021, ERSE set the parameters for the 2022-2025 electricity regulatory period. ERSE established a start point remuneration rate for the electricity transmission assets of 4.40 per cent. indexed to the average daily ten-year Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield, corresponding to an average yield of 0.302 per cent. This rate is calculated on a definitive basis on 30 September of each year, when the actual amounts of the index are known.

Regarding natural gas, in May 2019, the parameters for the regulatory period between the years 2020 and 2023 were set and established a starting point for the rate of return for high pressure natural gas infrastructure assets of 5.0 per cent., also indexed to the daily average ten-year Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield, corresponding to an average yield of 1.50 per cent. This rate is calculated on a definitive basis on 31 December of each year, when the actual levels of the index are fully known. Nevertheless, REN cannot ensure that ERSE will not materially modify the regulatory framework or set tariffs in a manner that could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Moreover, the amendments to the applicable laws or regulations may increase the situations where grid investments shall be paid by the grid users (e.g., generators or consumers) and not by REN. Such circumstance may lead to a non-increasing of the RAB and, consequently, a non-increasing of the regulated profits and tariffs.

The tariffs REN receives for electricity transmission and for the natural gas regulated activities are based on a number of parameters, which may prove to be improperly defined

According to ERSE's regulation currently in force, the main remuneration drivers of REN's regulated activities are the return on the RAB and the recovery of operational costs. For electricity transmission activity, this translates in a yearly averaged TOTEX (Total Expenditure, i.e. Capital Expenditure plus Operational Expenditure) for the regulatory period subjected to a set of rules as described in this Base Prospectus. The return on RAB is based on a rate of return ("RoR") defined at the beginning of each four-year regulatory period and its yearly evolution is currently indexed to the ten-year Portuguese Republic bond yield.

For more information on the new model, see "REN's future profitability may be adversely affected by recent and future changes in the tariff and remuneration regime established by ERSE and by any other relevant law or regulation" above.

If the parameters that influence REN's remuneration are not defined properly (if, for instance, overly demanding efficiency targets are set), REN's business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, fluctuations in tariff deviations may adversely affect regulatory decisions and materially and adversely affect REN's credit metrics.

The allowed revenues from REN's regulated activities are set annually by ERSE, considering several assumptions regarding REN's various remuneration drivers. These allowed revenues are charged to the users of the infrastructure and grids through tariffs, which are established considering REN's estimated annual allowed revenues and expected energy consumption.

Since tariffs are calculated based on forecasts, deviations between the actual values and the values forecasted (e.g. costs and differences in demand) may occur. This gap between the amount actually received and the amount that should have been received (allowed revenues are recorded in the profit and loss statement regardless of the respective amount of cash received through invoicing) is called a "tariff deviation" and as a general rule is recovered or returned up to two years after it has occurred. The deviation is reflected in the financial statements of the year to which it refers as a receivable or a payable, as applicable. A tariff deviation stock increase means an increase in the amount that REN has pending to receive or to deliver to tariffs. This may lead to pressure on the regulator to defer revenue recovery in order to control tariff levels, in particular due to the imposition of a deferral of the amounts pending to be recovered by REN. If the tariff deviation stock increases due to insufficient cash collections, REN may be required to issue additional debt to cover its working capital needs, leading to increases in net debt and interest expense, which may negatively impact REN's credit ratings. If the tariff deviation stock decreases due to excess cash collection from the tariffs, REN's net debt may also decrease, which may positively impact credit ratings.

However, in this situation, REN has to recognise deferred taxes, which may negatively impact cash flow and therefore also credit ratings.

High tariff deviation fluctuations may lead to a significant deterioration of credit ratings, which in turn can materially adversely affect REN's credit rating and increase its borrowing costs. See "Risks related to the business and industry of REN – REN may be affected by downgrades in its credit rating".

Moreover, REN, in its capacity as manager of the gas and electricity systems, may be obliged to make payments to other stakeholders in the system. Repayment of such amounts will be typically reflected in the tariffs to be charged to the end-consumers. Enacting of such mechanisms and timings for the effective payment depends on a decision by ERSE or the Portuguese government.

Finally, a part of REN's remuneration may be recovered, as a government decision, from specific sources like governmental set funds and not recovered directly from tariffs, alleviating, the cost to consumers. REN has no control on whether these sources have sufficient funds to make the relevant payments as declared by the government. If not, an alternative payment mechanism would have to be implemented by ERSE or the government to reflect the recovery of this amount in the tariffs to be charged to end-consumers, which could reflect in a delay of recovering of funds by REN. Notwithstanding this, there is no assurance that such alternative mechanism would result in REN receiving the same revenue as compared to the situation where such alternative mechanisms did not exist.

REN could be materially adversely affected by a change in tax laws, rules and regulations and increased taxes or decreased tax benefits, in particular those resulting from Energy Sector Extraordinary Contribution (ESEC)

Changes to tax laws, rules and regulations by Portuguese tax authorities or other governmental bodies, including changes in the interpretation or implementation thereof, could have a material adverse effect on

REN's business, financial condition and results of operations. For example, legislation was enacted in 2013 requiring that energy operators in Portugal pay an ESEC.

The ESEC is levied on the net book value of REN's assets in the following categories:

- tangible fixed assets;
- intangible assets (with some exceptions); and
- financial assets assigned to concessions or licensed activities.

With regard to regulated activities, the ESEC is applied to net assets considering the higher value of the following: (i) relevant regulated assets (as recognised and used by ERSE for the purposes of determining the allowed revenues for the following year); or (ii) the net book value of such assets as of 1 January of the relevant economic year. The ESEC is levied at a rate of 0.85 per cent. The ESEC cannot be, directly or indirectly, passed-through to tariffs nor can it be considered for purposes of determining the respective capital cost of REN's regulated assets. In addition, the ESEC is not deductible for corporate tax purposes.

REN's subsidiaries REN Rede Eléctrica, REN Gasodutos, REN Armazenagem, and REN Portgás are affected by ESEC and together paid the ESEC for 2021 in the amount of EUR 27 million. Each of said subsidiaries is individually disputing the legality of the ESEC from its entry into force in 2014 and has commenced legal proceedings to contest such payments based on the unlawfulness of the contribution, requesting the refund of the payments already made. As at the date hereof, legal proceedings are still ongoing.

The maintenance or extension of the ESEC (or imposition of similar or higher taxes) could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations and could adversely affect its ability to pay dividends.

This risk is also present with respect to the regulated assets included in the gas distribution business of REN Portgás.

The non-renewal, the expiry, early termination or unilateral changes of REN's concessions, permits or licences may prevent REN from realising the full value of certain assets and cause REN to lose future profits without adequate compensation

REN conducts its electricity and natural gas businesses pursuant to concessions and licences granted by the Portuguese Republic. REN's concession to operate the RNT has a term of 50 years from 15 June 2007. REN's three high pressure natural gas concessions have each been granted for a term of 40 years from 26 September 2006. The natural gas distribution concession has a term of 40 years commencing on 1 January 2008. The concession of Enondas to explore the pilot area intended to produce tidal power has a term of 45 years from 20 November 2010. These concessions are however subject to early termination or unilateral changes by the Portuguese Republic, although with the obligation to restore financial balance of the concession or compensation for damages suffered, respectively (unless there is default of the concessionaire). These concessions include compensation systems intended to safeguard the recovery of REN's investments. The recovery of these investments is conditional upon the formulation and stability of the concession frameworks in the medium and long term, which is generally beyond REN's control.

In the context of those concessions, several assets of REN may be considered essential strategic assets for the purposes of Decree-Law no. 138/2014, of 15 September 2014, under which the execution of transactions over such assets and involving entities outside the EU or to the EEA may be limited or prevented by opposition from the Portuguese government. In addition, pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2019/452, of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 19 March 2019, EU Member States or the European Commission may issue their opinion in case of transactions over such strategic sectors.

Furthermore, the non-renewal, early termination or unilateral changes of the concessions, authorisations or licences, may affect, adversely and materially, the operational results of REN. In the case of non-renewal or termination of REN's concessions, for any reason, as foreseen in the applicable legal and contractual frameworks, the assets and means allocated to the concession would revert to the Portuguese Republic.

Additionally, failure to comply with the terms of a concession may result in the termination of that concession. If a concession is terminated by the Portuguese Republic on the grounds that REN has breached the terms of such concession, the concession assets would revert to the Portuguese Republic. In such case, the transmission to the grantor of the assets and means allocated to the concession will be made without charge and the Portuguese Republic may be entitled to indemnities against civil liability. The loss of any of REN's concession assets could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations. The risk is also present with respect to the regulated assets included in REN Portgás.

REN's operations are subject to extensive environmental regulation

REN is subject to extensive environmental regulation under EU directives and Portuguese law, which, among other things, raises the possibility of fines and civil litigation in the event of non-compliance. Such regulations and laws also require REN's network investment and development plans to undergo strategic environmental assessment and require REN to perform environmental impact assessments on future projects that fall within the applicable legal framework, to obtain administrative licences, environmental impact declarations, permits and other approvals and to comply with the requirements and conditions imposed by such licences, declarations, permits and regulations.

As such, REN is subject to the risks that:

- the environmental impact studies may not be approved by the environmental authorities or other governmental authorities;
- the environmental impact declarations may be unfavourable or partially unfavourable requiring projects to be modified and subject to new environmental assessments or, when favourable, may demand costly mitigation and/or compensatory measures;
- public opposition may result in delays or modifications to any proposed project; or
- laws or regulations may change or be interpreted in a manner that increases the costs of REN's activities or requires REN to significantly change its operations or its plans for the companies in which it has an investment.

In recent years, environmental requirements and regulations have become stricter in the EU and consequently in Portugal. Although REN has been making the necessary investments to comply with these requirements and is up to date regarding the national and EU framework evolution, the future evolution of environmental regulation may have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

If REN is unable to comply with existing environmental regulations or requirements or changes in such regulations or requirements or the interpretation or enforcement thereof, this could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN may be impacted by measures that may be imposed by authorities aiming to limit the increase in energy prices or pursue social goals

Measures may be approved and implemented by the Portuguese Republic for the energy industry aimed at ensuring the sustainability of the National Electric System ("SEN"). The Portuguese Republic has set out a strategy to reduce the tariff deficit.

As part of the evolution of its budget, the Portuguese Republic may implement measures to reduce energy sector costs. Although the scope and the specific terms and conditions of such measures and implementation are not known, and notwithstanding the reduced proportion of REN's tariffs in the final cost of the energy to the consumers, and if when implemented and depending on their terms, such measures may materially and adversely affect REN's business, results of operations and financial condition in a way which cannot be anticipated.

The Portuguese Republic may also approve or amend measures aiming to pursue social goals and the protection of vulnerable consumers of electricity or natural gas. For instance, as regards electricity and natural gas social tariffs, which consist in discounts in grid tariffs payable by especially vulnerable consumers, economic and social changes in times of crisis may increase the basis of application of the social tariff (which is influenced by natural gas prices) and/or increase the amount of population eligible for such tariff and create the risk of changes of law entailing to limit social impacts thereof. The social tariff is currently financed by generators in the electricity sector and suppliers, Distribution System Operators ("DSOs") and the transmission system operator ("TSO") in the natural gas sector. The increase of natural gas prices and/or extension or changes to these mechanics of social tariffs may imply an increase in the requirements imposed to REN companies.

Risks related to the financial activities of REN

REN's significant indebtedness could materially adversely affect its financial condition and ability to withstand adverse developments

REN has a significant amount of indebtedness and debt service obligations. As of 31 March 2022, REN had total outstanding net financial indebtedness of EUR 2,098.7 million. REN may be required to dedicate a substantial portion of cash flows from activities to make periodic principal and interest payments on its indebtedness, thereby limiting its ability to develop its business and plan for, or react to, changes in its business and industry. This could potentially increase REN's vulnerability to adverse economic and industry conditions. In addition, the terms of REN's indebtedness include standard provisions which may, in certain circumstances (such as a change of control, rating downgrades, revocation of licenses and concessions or a change in law having a material impact on REN's activity), trigger an early redemption of such indebtedness. In addition, REN's indebtedness contains restrictive covenants including financial leverage covenants that may restrict REN's flexibility and materially adversely impact its ability to implement its strategy.

REN may be materially adversely affected by interest rate fluctuations and by further downgrades in its credit rating

Interest rate fluctuations have an effect on both REN's revenue and financing costs. Firstly, ERSE establishes the RoR for REN's electricity and natural gas businesses on the basis of indexation to the average ten-year Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield, with base rates determined for each regulatory period. Accordingly, if bond yields decline, the RoRs on REN's electricity and natural gas businesses automatically decline in tandem.

Interest rates significantly affect REN's costs of borrowing. As of 31 March 2022, 28.4 per cent. of REN's indebtedness was subject to floating rate interest. If interest rates increase more than anticipated, REN's interest expense would increase and its business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially adversely affected. In addition, REN has not fully hedged its exposure to changes in interest rates, and as a result such changes could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Furthermore, REN's ability to obtain funding on favourable terms or at all depends on various factors including its financial position and credit ratings assigned by internationally recognised credit agencies. REN is currently rated Baa3 (positive outlook) by Moody's, BBB (stable outlook) by Standard & Poor's and BBB (stable outlook) by Fitch, however, changes to these ratings, namely as a result of changes or the downgrading of sovereign credit ratings, may affect both its ability to obtain funding and the terms of the funding.

In addition, changes to REN's credit rating may also trigger mandatory early redemption or acceleration clauses or other covenants in existing financing agreements including, for example, the provision or increase of collateral, any of which could materially adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN may incur future costs related to its retirement, survivor and medical assistance pension plan

REN contributes to retirement, early retirement and survivor pensions (the "Pension Plan") and offers to its retirees and pensioners a plan of medical care and other benefits on the same terms offered to its active employees (the "Health Care Plan"). As of 31 March 2022, REN's consolidated statement of financial position included amounts of EUR 49.8 million and EUR 44.5 million, respectively, in relation to its obligations under the Pension Plan and Health Care Plan. The liabilities and corresponding annual costs of the Pension Plan and the Health Care Plan are determined through annual actuarial calculations by independent actuaries.

The most critical risks related to accounting for pensions are often related to the return of the pension plan assets, to the discount rate used to evaluate the present value of future payments and to the mortality tables and other demographic assumptions. In addition, the value of the assets of REN's pension fund depends on the future evolution of capital markets. A downturn in the capital markets may render the value of the assets in the portfolio insufficient to cover the liabilities assumed by the fund.

REN's obligations in relation to the Pension Plan and the Health Care Plan may have a significant impact on its cash flows, which could materially adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks related to the energy prices volatility, inflation and potential shortage of commodities and materials

REN is subject to risks regarding the variation of energy prices, inflation and potential shortage of commodities and materials that are or may be triggered by events such as the COVID-19 pandemic or the current conflict between the Russian Federation and Ukraine.

Although the volatility of the energy prices does not have a direct impact in REN, as its revenues are regulatorily set and not dependent on energy prices, REN's activity may be indirectly impacted by such events. In any case, REN may be impacted as the increase in natural gas prices may lead to the increase of the basis of application of the social tariff, which is financed by the TSO, DSO and natural gas suppliers, or by the increase of prices of the materials and commodities purchased by REN, as result of the energy costs increase.

In addition, to the extent that these risks may lead to the default or insolvency of natural gas or electricity suppliers that pay tariffs, REN may also be indirectly impacted. Nevertheless, in the electricity sector, REN's tariffs are paid by the DSO, which may lead to a delay in the collection of amounts due to it (or, in scenarios of gross negligence from REN), risk of non-collection.

REN could also be impacted if this situation leads the Portuguese Republic or ERSE to delay approval of new investments due to the need to limit the increase of overall energy costs, or to approve exceptional measures aiming to limit it. In extreme cases, under Decree-Law no. 15/2022, the Portuguese government may declare the energy crisis and/or determine exceptional measures to promote reduction of demand, increasing of supply or any other deemed necessary. The same occurs in the gas sector, where according to Decree-Law n. 62/2020, in cases of sudden crisis in the energy market and threat to the physical security of people, equipment, facilities or the integrity of networks, the Portuguese Government may take temporary and transitory safeguard measures.

Risks related to the business and industry of REN

REN may not be able to successfully execute its business strategy, particularly if it experiences delays in the approval of its investment plans or its network construction projects

REN's ability to successfully execute its business strategy depends on a number of factors, including its ability to achieve its objectives of focusing on regulated electricity and gas activities in Portugal, improving operating performance and quality of service, creating an integrated energy infrastructure platform, and optimising its capital structure.

If REN fails to achieve these strategic objectives, its results of operations may decline adversely affecting its financial position. REN's ability to achieve these objectives is subject to a variety of risks, including the specific risks related to its current strategic plan, namely the risks regarding the delay in the approval of investment plans or any changes to such plans by the relevant regulatory entity or by any other competent entity or delays in the, when applicable, permits.

The risk of delays in the approval of REN's investment plans, or any amendments thereto by the relevant regulatory or other authorities could cause significant delays in approval of the projects, or delay or prevent their construction thereby being able to materially and adversely affect REN's business, financial condition and results of operations. There have been delays in complying with some of the deadlines established in relevant legislation. The currently approved transmission investment plans of REN, which were submitted in March 2017 (related to 2018-2027 period) were only approved at the end of 2018 and beginning of 2019. The updated transmission investment plans related to the 2020-2029 period which were submitted in March 2019 did not receive a final decision by the government member responsible for the energy sector, although some of the investments presented in those plans were approved on a case-by-case basis. More recently, the transmission investment plans related to the 2022-2031 period (submitted in March 2021) were in public consultation in May/June 2021, and their revision, after the issuance of opinions of the General Directorate for Energy and Geology ("DGEG") and ERSE, was sent by REN to DGEG in November 2021. Afterwards, the plans are to be made available to the National Parliament for consultation purposes, before a decision on approval by the government member responsible for the energy sector.

In turn, and regarding specifically replacement investments, REN is obliged by the concession agreements with the Portuguese Republic to act and take measures to ensure the security and quality of its service, to provide measures to meet energy policy goals and to maintain the transmission grid and its assets in adequate conditions of operation, both in terms of safety of people and assets and in terms of service quality and security of the supply. To meet these requirements, REN has been developing and refurbishing the transmission grid, according to the relevant parts in the Ten-Year Electricity Network Development and Investment Plan (Plano de Desenvolvimento e Investimento da Rede de Transporte de Eletricidade, "PDIRT") and the Indicative Ten-Year Natural Gas Transportation, Infrastructure and Storage Network Development and Investment Plan (Plano Decenal Indicativo de Desenvolvimento e Investimento da Rede Nacional de Transporte, Infraestruturas de Armazenamento de Gás e Terminais de GNL em Portugal Continental, "PDIRG") proposals, for which and when applicable, it has been requesting the corresponding administrative licences. A five-year development and investment plan for distribution, PDIRG, is proposed by each gas DSO every two years, REN Portugal PDIRG defines the investment with an approval cycle identical to the previous. Delays or failure to obtain such licences may affect REN's ability to maintain the transmission grid and other assets in appropriate conditions and materially and adversely affect REN's business, results of operations and financial condition.

Furthermore, network construction project delays, namely, among others, due to the COVID 19 pandemic situation or the incapacity of REN suppliers to provide the necessary goods, services and works for the execution of the corresponding Operations & Maintenance (O&M) and development activities, could materially and adversely affect REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The large-scale network construction projects that REN undertakes present certain risks, such as shortages or increased costs of materials and labour, increased costs of financing or inability to obtain financing, delays in obtaining administrative and regulatory approvals, including environmental permits, opposition to energy infrastructure development by political or other groups, licencing, expiration and/or renewal of existing rights in real property, malfeasance by REN's contractors and subcontractors, insolvency of REN's contractors, subcontractors or other third-party suppliers and disruptions, either resulting from adverse weather conditions or from unforeseen technical or environmental problems. Any of these factors may cause delays (or significant postponements) in the completion of REN's construction projects or commencement of operations and may increase the cost of contemplated projects, both aspects at increased risk due to COVID 19 and to the conflict that has recently emerged in Eastern Europe. The uncertainty with respect to future developments particularly with regard to the impact of the Russia – Ukraine conflict remains high due to high inflation caused by a sharp increase in the cost of energy and raw materials, as stated above in "Risk Factors – Risks related to the energy prices volatility, inflation and potential shortage of commodities and materials". An inability to complete network construction projects on a timely basis could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks relating to the operational activities of REN

Information technology ("IT") and Operational Technology ("OT") system failures could adversely affect REN's operations

REN's IT and OT systems are critically important in supporting all of its business activities. Failures in REN's IT or OT systems could result from technical malfunctions, human error, lack of system capacity, security breaches or software for which it has acquired operating licences and over which it has no control. The introduction of new technologies and the development of new uses, such as social networking, expose REN to new threats. In addition, the cyber-attacks and hacking attempts to which companies may fall victim are increasingly targeted and carried out by specialists. Any failure or malfunctioning of REN's IT or OT systems could result in REN's failure to fulfil its obligations as public concessionaire of the electric and natural gas systems and could, ultimately, affect the Portuguese Electricity and/or Gas Transmission System, as well as in breaches of confidentiality, delays or loss of data and have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition, results of operations and reputation.

Development of information technologies and their gradual applicability to REN's operation, such as the increase in automation and digitalisation, increases the likelihood of malicious IT attacks which may cause a material adverse impact on REN.

Technological changes and innovations in the energy sector may negatively impact REN

The technologies used in the energy sector change and will continue to change and evolve in the future. Techniques for generating, transmitting and distributing electricity, natural gas, renewable gases or low carbon gases, are constantly improving and becoming more complex. In order for REN to maintain its competitiveness and to expand its business, it must effectively adjust to changes in technology.

In addition, the expansion of the use of renewable energy sources, namely wind and solar, can create challenges for the TSO. As the availability of wind and sunlight is partially unpredictable, the integration of these sources into the electricity grid involves a more complex management of the whole system.

Additionally, further challenges may arise from increasingly decentralised production, as more and more industrial and residential consumers install their own generation infrastructure and have the opportunity to sell energy to the grid. Other future technological developments, such as the implementation of smart grids and/or energy storage, may also add complexity to the system, as well as produce changes in the industry's structure and fundamentals.

In addition, technological improvements that allow end-consumers to efficiently manage their energy consumptions or diversify their origin, such as individual and collective self-consumption and energy communities, may lead to energy savings or reduce the need from receiving electricity or gas from the network that would otherwise exist, contributing to a stabilisation of energy consumption, and, consequently, reducing the need for growth or changing the nature of the required investments in the power grids. Furthermore, increased use of technologies, like renewable generation and energy storage, have the potential to negatively impact the demand for gas and electricity, and thereby the need for and utilisation of gas and electricity infrastructure. REN's regulated profits and tariffs may also be affected by the development of privately owned direct lines or closed distribution grids, be it in the electricity or in the gas markets, to the extent these assets are not part of REN's concessions and reduce the need of new network investments. Nonetheless, DGEG authorisation to implement said grids depends on strict requirements thus mitigating this risk.

In the case of renewable gases and/or low carbon gases, in particular H₂ blends with natural gas as defined by the Decree-Law 62/2020, of 28 August, REN may need to ensure major developments to perform in order to timely manage the gas network it operates together with addressing new challenges regarding gas quality, infrastructure readiness for growing H₂ concentrations, and the uncertainty about the future developments of the gas industry. The gas sector is now undergoing major changes whose final outcome will depend on still emerging technologies. Although REN is following the best practices to incorporate these technological changes in line with its peers, uncertainty may lead to changes in the business and infrastructure and the technology or operation risk profile of REN's activities may change considering the new investments to accommodate injection of H₂, as well as other renewable or low carbon gas in the gas infrastructure, which may gradually change the characteristics of the mix of gas circulating and stored in gas networks and infrastructure. Consequently, if REN is not able to adapt its strategy and its operations to future technological changes and innovations, REN's grids may become more difficult to design, develop, operate and manage which may materially adversely affect the quality of REN's operations and REN's financial position.

REN's assets could be damaged by natural and human made disasters and REN and its representatives could face civil, criminal or administrative liability as a result thereof

REN's assets include cutting, sectioning, and transition stations, electrical substations, overhead and underground very high voltage electrical transmission lines, telecommunication security networks, including radio relay repeaters, natural gas calibration and measurement stations, natural gas transportation grids, natural gas pressure reduction stations, natural gas and LPG distribution urban grids, LPG storage facilities, natural gas compression and storage underground facilities, the LNG Terminal at Sines, national and regional dispatch and grid operation centres and related infrastructure, buildings, vehicles and other equipment.

These assets could be damaged by natural phenomena or catastrophes (e.g. floods, or strong winds), by malfunctions in maintenance and operation of the assets, acts of vandalism, theft or terrorism, pipeline ruptures, gas explosions or damages caused by ships in the transport of natural gas and other natural and/or man-made disasters (e.g. forest fires).

While REN seeks to take precautions against such disasters, maintain disaster recovery strategies and/or purchase levels of insurance coverage that it regards as commercially appropriate, should any damage occur and be substantial, REN could incur losses and damages not recoverable under insurance policies in force, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations. Any of the foregoing events could also affect REN's reputation and result in a lower level of confidence in REN's abilities, which could potentially affect REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN and its representatives may also face civil liabilities or fines in the ordinary course of its business as a result of damages to third parties caused by the natural and/or man-made disasters mentioned above and by malfunctions in maintenance and operation on the assets. These liabilities may require REN to make indemnification payments not covered by its insurance policies or that may exceed applicable insurance policy limits. Such payments could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN's activities may be impacted by climate change risks

The new Basis Law on the Climate (Law 98/2021 of 31 December) was published on 31 December 2021. This new Law repeals Law 93/2001 of 20 August and establishes the guiding principles of climate policy and governance. It also introduces targets and provides mechanisms to combat climate change, to decarbonise the economy and to achieve sustainable development. Particularly in the energy sector, the plan is to achieve decarbonisation of the electricity generation system. This is to be done by banning the use of coal to produce electricity from 2021, and of natural gas of fossil origin to produce electricity from 2040, provided the security of supply is guaranteed.

The banning of the use of natural gas to produce electricity as of 2040, if security of supply is guaranteed, together with an increase in the electrification of energy consumption and the potential increase in the costs of CO₂ for the pollutant industries may lead to gradual reductions of the consumption of natural gas.

Climate change may have a significant and wide-spread impact on REN's activities. In accordance with the framework set by the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures, a task force set up by the G20's Financial Stability Board to develop a voluntary framework for companies to discuss the financial impact of climate related risks and opportunities, REN's climate change related risks are two-fold. Firstly, REN faces transition risks related to the adoption of low-carbon strategies implemented to prevent and mitigate the effect of climate change, such as energy efficiency solutions and low carbon products/services. Secondly, REN faces physical risks related to the change of physical parameters, such as changes to average temperatures, average sea levels, the incidence of extreme climatic events, such as storms, floods, or temperature extremes that would result in a significant impact on REN's grids as well as on its assets' resilience. REN may not be able to predict, mitigate or adapt for the long-term physical changes associated with such climate change which may in turn have a material adverse impact on REN's assets, business financial condition, prospects and results of operations.

REN relies on expropriation and rights of way over land in building its networks and storage facilities

In order to build or extend its electricity and gas transmission networks in mainland Portugal, REN can request the expropriation for public purposes of, or the establishment of easements for REN's benefit on, the land on which the network is to be constructed. This includes land used for electrical substations, overhead and underground transmission lines and land used for gas pipelines, dispatching centres, operation and maintenance centres and network stations, as well as the necessary permits for the development of new salt cavity underground storage caverns. Objections by landowners and environmental and other groups may prevent REN from obtaining necessary expropriation or rights of way over the land, which may cause the process to be more expensive and may cause delays, any of which could materially adversely affect the expansion and upgrading of REN's electricity and gas transmission networks.

REN may face public opposition or lack of public support from communities established in the vicinities of existing and/or projected electricity and natural gas transmission networks

If the communities established in the vicinities of existing and/or projected electricity and natural gas transmission networks were to mobilise against existing transmission networks and/or against the construction of new transmission networks or mount legal challenges to the maintenance of existing transmission networks or the construction of new transmission networks, REN may find it to be more difficult, or even impossible, to maintain and/or obtain all necessary licences, permits and/or authorisations necessary to the maintenance and/or construction of such transmission networks, which could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN has been in the past, currently is, and might be in the future, subject to local communities' mobilisation against the construction of new transmission networks. Some of these mobilisations have evolved into legal proceedings that are still pending and that have stalled the construction of some of REN's projected transmission networks. As a general rule, the licences and permits granted to REN are enforceable only to the extent that they do not conflict with third parties' civil rights (such as the right to peaceful enjoyment of property or ownership rights). In case of dispute, a Portuguese court may decide that such civil rights prevail over the rights of REN under the relevant licences. These circumstances may have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Part of REN's real estate assets have not been registered in the land registry or with the tax authority

A portion of REN's real estate assets have not been registered in the land registry or with the tax authority. With regard to the land registry the ownership of real estate assets is subject to mandatory registration, failing which ownership of such assets may be challenged by third parties.

Furthermore, there is a legal presumption that the land registry is correct and no rights over real estate may be transferred by REN to third parties if they are not registered in REN's name.

Consequently, if the entities in whose name the real estate assets are currently registered in the land registry were to sell or encumber those properties to third parties acting in good faith and the latter registers them in the real estate register prior to REN doing so, they would become the lawful owners of such real estate or encumbrances, as applicable. These circumstances could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects.

The Natural Gas Consumption Management Agreement entered into by REN Trading and Galp Gás Natural, S.A. ("Galp Gás Natural") includes a provision which may be understood as a "most favoured nation clause" that might be open to challenge for being in breach of competition rules

REN Trading has entered into a Natural Gas Consumption Management Agreement with Galp Gás Natural concerning the supply of natural gas to the Tapada do Outeiro power station. In such agreement, Galp Gás Natural has undertaken not to sell natural gas to third parties at better conditions and prices than those established in the agreement. To the extent that this type of clause may have the effect of harmonisation of prices and other trading conditions, it might be open to challenge for being in breach of competition rules.

If this type of clause is found to be in breach of applicable competition law, it could be declared void and subject to fines, allowing Galp Gás Natural to utilise prices which could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

REN may be impacted by a request from energy producers to renegotiate the Energy Acquisition Agreements

Tejo Energia - Produção e Distribuição de Energia Eléctrica, SA ("Tejo Energia") has announced to REN - Rede Eléctrica Nacional, SA ("REN Eléctrica") and REN Trading its intention to renegotiate the Power Purchase Agreement ("PPA"), in order to reflect in the amounts payable to this producer the costs, which in its opinion would be due, incurred with (i) financing of the social tariff and (ii) with the tax on petroleum and energy products ("ISP") and with the carbon tax. Turbogás - Produtora Energética S.A. ("Turbogás") also stated its intention to renegotiate the PPA, in order to reflect in the amounts payable the costs incurred with the financing of the social tariff and with ISP.

According to the PPA, Tejo Energia and Turbogás act as producers and sellers and REN Trading as purchaser of the energy produced in power plants. REN Eléctrica is jointly and severally liable with REN Trading, regarding the execution of the PPA with Tejo Energia and Turbogás. According to the information received, the total costs claimed by these companies until 31 March 2022 amounts to, approximately, EUR 66 million.

REN Trading and REN Eléctrica consider that, under the existing legal framework, this possibility depends on the recognition that the associated charges can be considered as general costs of the national electricity system, the only way to guarantee the economic neutrality of REN Trading's contractual position as determined by the relevant Regulators.

All of these disputes have already been dealt with by the financial panels provided for in the PPAs, which rejected the requests made by the plaintiffs. The two disputes with Tejo Energia and one with Turbogás regarding the social tariff were subsequently the subject of arbitration requests submitted by Tejo Energia and Turbogás to the International Chamber of Commerce. The ICC ruled against Turbogás who is challenging the award in the Portuguese courts.

Recently, the ICC also ruled against Tejo Energia on its intention to renegotiate the PPA in order to reflect in the amounts payable to this producer the cost of the ISP.

REN may be impacted by an investigation of alleged corruption offences and unlawful enrichment during the liberalisation of the electricity market in Portugal

On 2 June 2017, the Portuguese police (National Anti-Corruption Unit) and the Public Prosecutor's Office conducted searches at REN's headquarters in the context of a criminal investigation into alleged corruption and unlawful enrichment during the privatisation of EDP – Energias de Portugal, S.A. ("EDP") and the liberalisation of the electricity market in Portugal. In particular, the Public Prosecutor alleges that certain current directors and officers of EDP, a REN director and former members of the Portuguese government may have been involved in a scheme to unlawfully benefit EDP, the former state-owned electricity monopoly, in connection with the early termination of certain power purchase agreements during the period 2004-2007.

REN is not a defendant ("arguido") in the proceedings and currently faces no charges. REN has offered full cooperation to the authorities and has made itself available to provide additional information.

REN cannot predict the outcome of this investigation or any related proceedings. Any negative development in such proceedings affecting REN's officials or past decisions regarding EDP could harm REN's reputation with the public and with relevant stakeholders, and could materially and adversely affect its business, results of operations and financial condition.

REN is exposed to concentration risk due to a limited number of distributors

REN's reliance on energy distribution and supply companies to collect tariffs from end-consumers of electricity and natural gas and deliver to it the amounts collected in respect of the remuneration of its activities exposes REN to credit risk, which may increase during periods of difficult macroeconomic conditions. If such energy distribution and supply companies fail to collect tariffs effectively and deliver to REN the amounts collected in a timely manner, or at all, or if they ceased to operate or became subject to insolvency proceedings, REN's earnings and cash flow could be significantly reduced, which could have a material adverse effect on REN's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Furthermore, REN's credit risk is concentrated in a small number of these regulated energy distribution and supply companies, and it may generally be required to continue to supply the services even if they failed to pay for energy services provided by REN.

Risks Related to Recent Acquisitions and Investments

Following the acquisition in 2017 of a 42.5 per cent. stake in Electrogas S.A. ("Electrogas") and more recently, in 2019, the acquisition of 100 per cent. of Empresa de Transmisión Eléctrica Transmel S.A. ("Transmel"), REN is exposed to the risks of operating in the Latin America region

On 7 February 2017, REN announced the acquisition of a 42.5 per cent. stake in Electrogas, a gas transportation company in Chile, for U.S.$ 180 million (equivalent to EUR 169.3 million on 7 February 2017). Colbun SA and Empresa Nacional del Petróleo (ENAP) (a company fully owned by the Chilean government) hold the remaining 42.5 per cent. and 15 per cent. of Electrogas, respectively.

On 1 October 2019, REN announced the acquisition of a 100 per cent. stake of Transmel, for U.S.$168,6 million (equivalent to EUR 155,5 million at 1 October 2019).

Before acquiring the aforementioned stakes in Electrogas, and Transmel, REN made several assumptions regarding future regulated or non-regulated revenues, with the assistance of specialised consultants, Take-or-Pay and other contracts origination/renewal/termination, operations costs, profitability, capex, asset quality, global, regional and domestic natural gas and electric transmission sectors evolution and other matters relating to Electrogas and Transmel, which may prove to be incorrect.

Electrogas' and Transemel's performance in future periods may differ materially from REN's expectations or the expectations of research analysts, which could result in a decline in the value of REN's investment in both companies.

In addition, REN is exposed to foreign exchange risk relating to the Chilean peso and the U.S. dollar. In particular, the depreciation or appreciation of the Chilean peso against the euro will result in changes in REN's reported earnings, assets and liabilities on a consolidated basis regardless of the performance of Electrogas and Transemel, which could in turn adversely affect REN's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. In operational terms, the foreign exposure to the Chilean Peso and U.S. dollar is mainly related to the indexation of Transemel's regulated revenues and Electrogas' take-or-pay contracts tariffs to Chilean and United States inflation.

Moreover, REN's stakes in Electrogas and Transemel expose REN to risks related to the economic, political and regulatory conditions in Chile in particular and in Latin America more broadly. Emerging markets like Latin America are generally subject to greater risks than more developed markets (for example, there is typically a greater risk of loss from unfavourable political and economic developments, social and geopolitical instability and changes in governmental policies, including expropriation, nationalisation, international ownership legislation, interest rate caps and tax policies). In addition, emerging markets are affected by conditions in global financial markets and some are particularly affected by commodity price fluctuations, which in turn may affect financial market conditions through exchange rate fluctuations and interest rate volatility and deposits volatility. In addition, since REN owns a non-controlling stake in Electrogas, the other two shareholders (including an entity owned by the government of Chile) may adopt decisions regarding the business of Electrogas that are not in REN's best interests.

Furthermore, despite the legal and business due diligence review conducted on both Electrogas' and Transemel's transactions, REN may subsequently uncover information that was not known to REN and which may give rise to significant new contingencies or to contingencies in excess of the projections made by REN. Any losses incurred by REN as a result of the occurrence of any contingencies for which REN is not otherwise compensated could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features.

Interest rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes. While the nominal interest rate of Fixed Rate Notes is fixed during the life of such securities, changes in market interest rates could adversely affect the price of the Notes and can lead to losses for Noteholders.

Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Risks related to Floating Rate Notes which are linked to "benchmarks"

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") and other interest rates or other types of rates and indices which are deemed to be benchmarks are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory discussions and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented.

Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (the "EU Benchmarks Regulation") applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the EU. Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the "UK Benchmarks Regulation") applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the UK. The EU Benchmarks Regulation or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to EURIBOR or another benchmark rate or index, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or UK Benchmarks Regulation, and such changes could (amongst other things) have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level, or affecting the volatility of the published rate or level, of the benchmark. More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain "benchmarks", trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain "benchmarks" or lead to the discontinuance or unavailability of quotes of certain "benchmarks".

As an example of such benchmark reforms, on 21 September 2017, the European Central Bank announced that it would be part of a new working group tasked with the identification and adoption of a "risk free overnight rate" which can serve as a basis for an alternative to current benchmarks used in a variety of financial instruments and contracts in the euro area. On 13 September 2018, the working group on Euro risk-free rates recommended the new Euro short-term rate ("€STR") as the new risk-free rate for the euro area. The €STR was published for the first time on 2 October 2019. Although EURIBOR has subsequently been reformed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation, it remains uncertain as to how long it will continue in its current form, or whether it will be further reformed or replaced with €STR or an alternative benchmark.

The elimination of EURIBOR or any other benchmark, or changes in the manner of administration of any benchmark, could require or result in an adjustment to the interest calculation provisions of the Conditions (as further described in Condition 5.2(F) (Benchmark Discontinuation)), or result in adverse consequences to holders of any Notes linked to such benchmark (including Floating Rate Notes whose interest rates are linked to EURIBOR or any other such benchmark that is subject to reform). Furthermore, even prior to the implementation of any changes, uncertainty as to the nature of alternative reference rates and as to potential changes to such benchmark may adversely affect such benchmark during the term of the relevant Notes, the return on the relevant Notes and the trading market for securities (including the Notes) based on the same benchmark.

The Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a published benchmark (including any page on which such benchmark may be published (or any other successor service)) becomes unavailable or a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Conditions) occurs. Such an event may be deemed to have occurred prior to the issue date for a Series of Notes. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the rate of interest could be set by reference to a successor rate or an alternative rate and that such successor rate or alternative reference rate may be adjusted (if required) in accordance with the recommendation of a relevant governmental body or as otherwise provided in the Conditions, although the application of such adjustments to the Notes may not achieve this objective. Any such changes may result in the Notes performing differently (which may include payment of a lower interest rate) than if the original benchmark continued to apply. In certain circumstances the ultimate fallback of interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the rate of interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used.

This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page. In addition, due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of successor rates and alternative reference rates and the involvement of an Independent Adviser (as defined in the Conditions) in certain circumstances, the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks arising from the possible cessation or reform of certain reference rates in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

The market continues to develop in relation to SONIA as a reference rate for Floating Rate Notes

Investors should be aware that the market continues to develop in relation to the use of risk-free rates, including Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA"). This relates not only to the substance of the calculation and the development and adoption of market infrastructure for the issuance and trading of bonds referencing SONIA, but also how widely SONIA and SONIA-related methodologies might be adopted.

The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of SONIA that differs significantly from that set out in the Terms and Conditions as applicable in relation to Notes that reference SONIA issued under this Programme. The development of SONIA for the Eurobond markets could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise affect the market price of any Notes that reference SONIA issued under this Programme from time to time.

In addition, the manner of adoption or application of SONIA reference rates in the Eurobond markets may differ materially compared with the application and adoption of SONIA in other markets, such as the derivatives and loan markets. Noteholders should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of SONIA in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing Compounded Daily SONIA.

In particular, investors should be aware that several different methodologies have been used in risk-free rate notes issued to date. No assurance can be given that any particular methodology, including the compounding formula in the terms and conditions of the Notes, will gain widespread market acceptance. In addition, market participants and relevant working groups are still exploring alternative reference rates based on risk-free rates, including various ways to produce term versions of certain risk-free rates (which seek to measure the market's forward expectation of an average of these reference rates over a designated term, as they are overnight rates) or different measures of such risk-free rates. If SONIA does not prove to be widely used in securities like the Notes, the trading price of such Notes linked to such risk-free rates may be lower than those of Notes referencing indices that are more widely used.

Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to any Notes which reference SONIA or any related indices.

SONIA and other risk-free rates may differ from LIBOR and other inter/bank offered rates in a number of material respects and have a limited history

Risk-free rates may differ from the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") and other inter-bank offered rates in a number of material respects. These include (without limitation) being backwards-looking, in most cases, calculated on a compounded or weighted average basis, risk-free, overnight rates and whereas such interbank offered rates are generally expressed on the basis of a forward-looking term, are unsecured and include a risk-element based on interbank lending. As such, investors should be aware that risk-free rates may behave materially differently to interbank offered rates as interest reference rates for the Notes.

Risk-free rates offered as alternatives to interbank offered rates also have a limited history. For that reason, future performance of such rates may be difficult to predict based on their limited historical performance. The level of such rates during the term of the Notes may bear little or no relation to historical levels. Prior observed patterns, if any, in the behaviour of market variables and their relation to such rates such as correlations, may change in the future. Investors should not rely on historical performance data as an indicator of the future performance of such risk-free rates nor should they rely on any hypothetical data.

Furthermore, interest on Notes which reference a backwards-looking risk-free rate is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may be difficult for investors in Notes which reference such risk-free rates reliably to estimate the amount of interest which will be payable on such Notes, and some investors may be unable or unwilling to trade such Notes without changes to their IT systems, both of which could adversely impact the liquidity of such Notes. Further, in contrast to Notes linked to interbank offered rates, if Notes referencing backwards-looking rates become due and payable as a result of an Event of Default under Condition 10 (Events of Default), or are otherwise redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final Rate of Interest payable in respect of such Notes shall be determined by reference to a shortened period ending immediately prior to the date on which the Notes become due and payable or are scheduled for redemption.

The administrator of SONIA may make changes that could change the value of SONIA or discontinue SONIA

The Bank of England (or a successor), as administrator of SONIA, may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of SONIA, including changes related to the method by which SONIA is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate SONIA, or timing related to the publication of SONIA. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of SONIA (in which case a fallback method of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply). The administrator has no obligation to consider the interests of Noteholders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing SONIA.

Notes issued as green bonds ("Green Bonds") may not be a suitable investment for all investors seeking exposure to eligible green assets

The Final Terms relating to any specific issue of Notes may provide that it will be the relevant Issuer's intention to apply the proceeds from an offer on those Notes towards financing and/or refinancing, in whole or in part, new or existing planned investments related to sustainable and green assets and projects with a positive environmental benefit and impact ("Eligible Green Assets"). Prospective investors should determine the relevance of such information for the purpose of any investment in such Notes, together with any other investigation such investors may deem necessary.

In particular, no assurance is given by the Issuers or the Dealers that the use of such proceeds for any Eligible Green Assets will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular, with regards to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to any Eligible Green Assets.

Despite Regulation (EU) 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the "Taxonomy Regulation"), and the recommendation developed by the Technical Expert Group on Sustainable Finance regarding the implementation of the Taxonomy Regulation, there is currently no market consensus as to what constitutes a "green" or "sustainable" or an equivalently labelled use or what are the attributes required for a use to be defined as "green" or "sustainable" or such other equivalent label and no assurance can be given that such clear definition or consensus will develop over time. Accordingly, no assurance is or can be given that Eligible Green Assets will meet investor expectations or requirements regarding "green", "sustainable", "social" or similar labels or that any adverse environmental, social and/or other impacts will not occur during the implementation of any projects or uses the subject of, or related to, any Eligible Green Assets.

No assurance or representation is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the relevant Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Green Bonds and in particular with any Eligible Green Assets to fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria, given that any opinion or certification is not, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus and is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the relevant Issuer, the Dealers or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Green Bonds.

ISS ESG has issued an independent opinion, dated 2 February 2021, on REN's Green Finance Framework (the "Second Party Opinion"). The Second Party Opinion provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations and is not intended to address any credit, market, or other aspects of an investment in any Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security. The Second Party Opinion is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion or certification does not form part of, nor is incorporated by reference, in this Base Prospectus. No representation or assurance is given as to the suitability or reliability of the Second Party Opinion or any opinion or certification of any third party made available in connection with an issue of Notes issued as Green Bonds, nor is any such opinion or certification a recommendation to buy, sell or hold any such Notes and is current only as of the date it was issued.

Currently, the providers of such opinions and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion or certification for the purpose of any investment in such Green Bonds.

While it is the intention of the relevant Issuer to apply the proceeds of any Green Bonds so specified for Eligible Green Assets in, or substantially in, the manner described in this Base Prospectus, there can be no assurance that the relevant project(s) or use(s) will be capable of being implemented in or substantially in such manner and/or accordance with any timing schedule and that accordingly such proceeds will be totally or partially disbursed for such Eligible Green Assets. Nor can there be any assurance that such Eligible Green Assets will be completed within any specified period or at all or with the results or outcome (whether or not related to the environment) as originally expected or anticipated by the relevant Issuer. Any such event or failure by the relevant Issuer will not constitute an Event of Default under the Green Bonds.

Any such event or failure to apply the proceeds of any issue of Green Bonds for any Eligible Green Assets as aforesaid and/or withdrawal of any opinion or certification or any opinion or certification attesting that the relevant Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion or certification is opining or certifying on may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Green Bonds and also potentially the value of any other notes which are intended to finance Eligible Green Assets and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

Additionally, any such event or failure to apply the net proceeds of the Green Bonds for any Eligible Green Assets or failure to obtain and publish any such reports, assessments, opinions and certifications will not lead to an obligation of the relevant Issuer to redeem the Green Bonds.

Risks relating to certain terms of the Notes

Notes issued by REN B.V. are not guaranteed by REN, and investors do not have any direct rights to enforce payment on the Notes against REN in case of default by REN B.V.

Notes issued by REN B.V. are obligations of REN B.V. and not of REN. REN has no obligation to pay any amounts due under Notes issued by REN B.V. REN has entered into a Keep Well Agreement with REN B.V., which is not a guarantee. Under the Keep Well Agreement, REN has agreed that, for so long as REN B.V. has any Notes outstanding under the Programme, it will make available to REN B.V. funds sufficient to meet its payment obligations or repay borrowings then maturing to the extent that REN B.V.'s funds or other liquid assets are insufficient to meet its payment obligations or repay its borrowings. Although under the terms of the Keep Well Agreement the Trustee may, on behalf of holders of any Notes issued by REN B.V. under the Programme, enforce REN B.V.'s rights under the Keep Well Agreement against REN, Noteholders do not have any direct rights against REN.

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuers

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the relevant Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The relevant Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Where the relevant Issuer has the right to effect such a conversion, this will affect the secondary market and the market value of the Notes since the relevant Issuer may be expected to convert the rate when it is likely to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing. If the relevant Issuer converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate in such circumstances, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. If the relevant Issuer converts from a floating rate to a fixed rate in such circumstances, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on its Notes.

Modification

The terms and conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders (including by means of telephone or video conference call) to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The conditions of the Non-Book-Entry Notes also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes and without regard to the interests of particular Holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes (1) agree to any modification of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or the Trust Deed which is not, in the opinion of the Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of such Non-Book-Entry Notes; (2) agree to any modification of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or the Trust Deed which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or to comply with mandatory provisions of the law; or (3) determine that any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default (as defined in the Trust Deed) shall not be treated as such which, in any such case, is not, in the opinion of the Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes, in the circumstances described in Condition 16 (Meetings of Holders of Notes) of the conditions of the Notes.

Risks related to procedures for collection of Noteholders' details

It is expected that the direct registering entities, the participants and the clearing systems will follow certain procedures to facilitate the collection from the Noteholders of the information referred to in "Risks related to withholding tax" above required to comply with the procedures and certifications required by Decree-Law 193/2005. Under the Decree-Law 193/2005, the obligation of collecting from the Noteholders proof of their non-Portuguese resident status and of the compliance with the other requirements for the exemption rests with the direct registering entities, the participants and the entities managing the international clearing systems. A summary of those procedures is also set out in "Taxation – Portugal - 2. Tax Treatment of Notes under the Special Tax Regime for Debt Securities". Such procedures may be revised from time to time in accordance with applicable Portuguese laws and regulations, further to clarifications from the Portuguese tax authorities regarding such laws and regulations and the operational procedures of the clearing systems. While the Notes are registered by Interbolsa, Noteholders must rely on such procedures in order to receive payments under the Notes free of any withholding, if applicable.

Noteholders must seek their own advice to ensure that they comply with all applicable procedures and to ensure the correct tax treatment of their Notes. None of the Issuers, the Dealers, the Agent or the clearing systems assumes any responsibility.

FORM OF THE NOTES, CLEARING SYSTEMS, EXERCISE OF RIGHTS AND LISTING

Form of the Notes

The Notes of each Series issued by REN B.V. will be in either bearer form, with or without interest coupons ("Coupons") attached, or registered form, without Coupons attached. Bearer Notes and Registered Notes will be offered and sold outside the United States in offshore transactions to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S. When the Issuer is REN, the Notes will be issued in book-entry form.

Bearer Global Notes issued by REN B.V. - Form and Exchange

- (1) TEFRA D or TEFRA C: The Final Terms shall specify whether U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the "TEFRA D Rules") or U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor U.S. Treasury Regulation section including, without limitation, regulations issued in accordance with U.S. Internal Revenue Service Notice 2012-20 or otherwise in connection with the U.S. Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010) (the "TEFRA C Rules") shall apply. Each Tranche of Bearer Notes is represented upon issue by a temporary global Note (a "Temporary Global Note"), unless the Final Terms specify otherwise and the TEFRA C Rules apply.

Where the Final Terms applicable to a Tranche of Bearer Notes specifies that the TEFRA C Rules apply, such Tranche is represented upon issue by a Permanent Global Note.

The Global Notes will:

- (i) if the Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note ("NGN") form, as stated in the Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg; and
- (ii) if the Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN Form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository for, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Interests in a Temporary Global Note may be exchanged for:

- (i) interests in a permanent global Note (a "Permanent Global Note"); or
- (ii) if so specified in the Final Terms, definitive Notes in bearer form ("Definitive Notes") and/or (if so specified in the Final Terms) Registered Notes.

Exchanges of interests in a Temporary Global Note for Definitive Notes or, as the case may be, a Permanent Global Note will be made only on or after the Exchange Date (as specified in the Final Terms) and provided certification as to the non-U.S. beneficial ownership thereof as required by U.S. Treasury Regulations (in such form as is customarily issued in such circumstances by the relevant clearing system) has been received. An exchange for Registered Notes will be made at any time or from such date as may be specified in the Final Terms, in each case, without any requirement for certification.

- (2) Limitation on entitlement under a Temporary Global Note after Exchange Date: Holders of interests in any Temporary Global Note shall not (unless, upon due presentation of such Temporary Global Note for exchange (in whole but not in part only) for a Permanent Global Note or for delivery of Definitive Notes and/or Registered Notes, such exchange or delivery is improperly withheld or refused and such withholding or refusal is continuing at the relevant payment date) be entitled to receive any payment in respect of the Notes represented by such Temporary Global Note which falls due on or after the Exchange Date or be entitled to exercise any option on a date after the Exchange Date.
- (3) Certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership: Unless the Final Terms specify that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable to the Notes and subject to paragraph (2) above, if any date on which a payment of interest is due on the Notes of a Tranche occurs whilst any of the Notes of that Tranche are represented by a Temporary Global Note, the related interest payment will be made on the Temporary Global Note only to the extent that certification as to the non-U.S. beneficial ownership thereof as required by U.S. Treasury Regulations (in such form as is customarily issued in such circumstances by the relevant clearing system) has been received by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, or any other relevant clearing system which may be specified in the Final Terms. Payments of amounts due in respect of a Permanent Global Note or (subject to paragraph (2) above) a Temporary Global Note (if the Final Terms specify that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable to the Notes) will be made through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system without any requirement for certification.

- (4) Exchange for Definitive Notes: Interests in a Permanent Global Note will be exchanged (subject to the period allowed for delivery as set out in (i) below), in whole but not in part only and at the request of the holder of such Global Note, for Definitive Notes and/or (if so specified in the Final Terms) Registered Notes (a) if Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and, in any such case, no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Trustee is available, or (b) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 10 (Events of Default)) occurs. The circumstances described in (a) and (b) are each herein referred to as an "Exchange Event". Whenever a Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes and/or Registered Notes, REN B.V. as Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery of such Definitive Notes and/or Registered Notes, duly authenticated and where and to the extent applicable, with Coupons and Talons attached (each as defined in Condition 1.2 (Form and Denomination – Coupons and Talons)), in an aggregate nominal amount equal to the nominal amount of such Permanent Global Note to the Holder of the Permanent Global Note against its surrender at the specified office of the Issue and Paying Agent within 30 days of the Holder requesting such exchange.

Registered Global Notes issued by REN B.V. - Form of Exchange

- (1) Registered Global Note: Registered Notes held in Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (or other clearing system) will be represented by a Registered Global Note which will be deposited with a common depository or common safekeeper if the Registered Note is held under the NSS, as the case may be, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and registered in the name of a common nominee of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or in the name of a nominee of the common safekeeper if the Registered Notes are held under the NSS, as specified in the Final Terms (or registered in the name of a nominee of, and deposited with, a common depository for such other relevant clearing system).
- (2) Exchange: The Registered Global Note will become exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for individual Registered Notes if (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or has in fact done so and, in any such case no successor clearing system satisfactory to the Trustee is available or (b) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 10 (Events of Default)) occurs. The circumstances described in (a) and (b) are each herein referred to as an "Exchange Event".

Whenever the Registered Global Note is to be exchanged for individual Registered Notes, such individual Registered Notes will be issued in an aggregate nominal amount equal to the nominal amount of the Registered Global Note within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered Holder of the Registered Global Note, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to the Registrar or the Transfer Agent (as the case may be) of such information as is required to complete and deliver such individual Registered Notes (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Registered Notes are to be registered and the nominal amount of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Registered Global Note at the specified office of the Registrar or the Transfer Agent (as the case may be). Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Notes scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any Noteholder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar or the Transfer Agent (as the case may be) may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Bearer and Registered Global Notes issued by REN B.V.

Initial Issue of Notes

If the Global Notes or Registered Global Note are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be), on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche the Global Notes or Registered Global Notes will be delivered to a Common Safekeeper and Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be informed whether or not the Notes are intended to be held as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intraday credit operations by the Eurosystem ("Eurosystem eligible collateral").

Depositing the Global Notes or the Registered Global Notes intended to be held as Eurosystem eligible collateral with a Common Safekeeper does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognised as Eurosystem eligible collateral either upon issue, or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon the European Central Bank being satisfied that Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met. In the case of Notes issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be) which are not intended to be held as Eurosystem eligible collateral as of their issue date, should the Eurosystem eligibility criteria be amended in the future so that such Notes are capable of meeting the eligibility criteria, such Notes may then be deposited with Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as Common Safekeeper.

The relevant Final Terms will indicate whether such Bearer Notes or Registered Notes (as applicable) are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Bearer Notes or Registered Notes (as applicable) are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Bearer Notes or Registered Notes (as applicable) of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

Relationship of Accountholders with Clearing Systems

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other clearing system as the holder of a Note represented by a Global Note (which expression includes a Temporary Global Note and a Permanent Global Note) must look solely to Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or such other clearing system (as the case may be) for such person's share of each payment made by the Issuer (REN B.V.) to the bearer of such Global Note (or the registered holder of the Registered Global Note, as the case may be), and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Notes, subject to and in accordance with the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or such other clearing system (as the case may be). Such persons shall have no claim directly against the Issuers in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are represented by such Global Note or Registered Global Note and such obligations of the Issuer (REN B.V.) will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Note (or the registered holder of the Registered Global Note, as the case may be), in respect of each amount so paid. References in these provisions relating to the Notes in global form to "holder" or "accountholder" are to those persons shown in the records of the relevant clearing system as the holder of a Note.

Amendment to Conditions of Registered and Bearer Global Notes

The Temporary Global Notes, Permanent Global Notes and Registered Global Notes contain provisions that apply to the Notes that they represent, some of which modify the effect of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in this Base Prospectus. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

- (1) Meetings: The holder of a Permanent Global Note or the registered holder of a Registered Global Note shall (unless such Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note represents only one Note) be treated as having one vote in respect of each minimum Specified Denomination of Notes for which such Global Note may be exchanged.
- (2) Cancellation: Cancellation of any Note represented by a Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note that is required by the Conditions to be cancelled (other than upon its redemption) will be effected by a reduction in the nominal amount of the relevant Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note.

- (3) Purchase: Notes represented by a Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note may only be purchased by REN B.V. as Issuer or by any of its subsidiaries if they are purchased together with the rights to receive all future payments of interest and Instalment Amounts (if any) thereon.
- (4) Payments: Payments of amounts (principal, interest or otherwise) due in respect of Registered Notes when in global form, shall be made at the close of the business day (being for this purpose a day on which Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg are open for business) before the relevant due date for such payment.
- (5) Exercise of Call Options: Any redemption at the option of the relevant Issuer provided for in the Conditions of the Notes while such Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note or a Registered Global Note shall be exercised by REN B.V. as Issuer giving notice to the holders within the time limits set out in and containing the information required by the Conditions, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of Notes drawn in the case of a partial exercise of an option and accordingly no drawing of Notes shall be required. In the event that any option of REN B.V. as Issuer is exercised in respect of some but not all of the Notes of any Series, the rights of accountholders with a clearing system in respect of the Notes will be governed by the standard procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other clearing system (as the case may be).
- (6) Exercise of Put Options: Any redemption at the option of the Noteholders provided for in the Conditions of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note or a Registered Global Note may be exercised by the holder of such Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note, giving notice to the Issue and Paying Agent within the time limits relating to the deposit of Notes with a Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent) or the Registrar, in the case of a Registered Global Note substantially in the form of the notice available from any Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent), or the Registrar (in the case of a Registered Global Note), except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of the Notes in respect of which the option has been exercised, and stating the nominal amount of Notes in respect of which the option is exercised and at the same time presenting for notation the Permanent Global Note or the Registered Global Note to the Issue and Paying Agent, or to a Paying Agent acting on behalf of the Issue and Paying Agent, or the Registrar, in the case of a Registered Global Note.
- (7) Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 15 (Notices), so long as the Notes of any Series are represented by a Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note and such Permanent Global Note or Registered Global Note is held on behalf of a clearing system (i) notices to the holders of that Series may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to the clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication as required by the Conditions and any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders on the day after the date on which it is given to the clearing system and (ii) notices to be given by any holder of the Series may be given to the Issue and Paying Agent through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Issue and Paying Agent and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

Book-Entry Notes issued by REN

Notes to be issued under the Programme by REN will be represented in dematerialised book-entry form (forma escritural) and will be nominativas (which means that Interbolsa - Sociedade Gestora de Sistemas de Liquidação e de Sistemas Centralizados de Valores Mobiliários, S.A. ("Interbolsa"), at the Issuer's (REN) request, can ask the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa for information regarding the identity of the Noteholders and transmit such information to the Issuer).

Book-Entry Notes will be tradable in integral multiples of their denomination and will be held through the accounts of Affiliate Members of Interbolsa, as operator and manager of CVM (Central de Valores Mobiliários).

Clearing and Settlement

CVM is the centralised system (sistema centralizado) for the registration and control of securities in Portugal, (the "Book-Entry Registry" and each entry a "Book-Entry"). CVM is composed of interconnected securities accounts, through which securities (and inherent rights) are created, held and transferred. This allows Interbolsa to control the amount of securities created, held and transferred. Issuers of securities, financial intermediaries which are Affiliate Members (Direct Registration Entities) of Interbolsa (as defined below) and the Bank of Portugal, all participate in this centralised system.

CVM provides for all the procedures which allow the owners of securities to exercise their rights.

In relation to each issue of securities, CVM comprises inter alia, (a) the issue account, opened by the relevant issuer in CVM and which reflects the full amount of securities issued; (b) the individual accounts, opened in the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa (as defined below) by their respective customers; and (c) the control accounts opened by each of the financial intermediaries which participate in Interbolsa's centralised system, and which reflect, at all times, the aggregate nominal amount of securities held in the individual securities accounts opened by holders of securities with each of the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa.

Each person shown in the records of an Affiliate Member of Interbolsa as having an interest in Book-Entry Notes shall be treated as the holder of the principal amount of the Book-Entry Notes recorded.

The expression "Affiliate Member of Interbolsa" means any authorised financial intermediary entitled to hold control accounts with Interbolsa on behalf of Noteholders and includes any depository banks appointed by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for the purposes of holding accounts on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Book-Entry Notes registered with Interbolsa will be attributed an International Securities Identification Number ("ISIN") code through Interbolsa's codification system and will be accepted for registration and clearing through the system operated at Interbolsa and settled by Interbolsa's settlement system.

Exercise of Financial Rights

Payment of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be subject to Portuguese laws and regulations, notably the regulations from time to time issued and applied by the Comissão do Mercado de Valores Mobiliários (the Portuguese Securities Market Commission) and Interbolsa.

The Issuer (REN) must give Interbolsa advance notice of all payments and provide all necessary information for that purpose, notably the identity of the financial intermediary integrated in Interbolsa appointed by the Issuer to act as the paying agent in respect of the Notes responsible for the relevant payment.

Prior to any payment such paying agent shall provide Interbolsa with a statement of acceptance of its role of Paying Agent.

Interbolsa must notify such paying agent of the amounts to be settled, which will be determined by Interbolsa on the basis of the account balances of the accounts of the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa.

On the date on which any payment in respect of the Notes is to be made, the corresponding entries and counter-entries will be made by Interbolsa (i) in the Bank of Portugal current accounts held by such paying agent and by the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa in the case of payments in euro or (ii) in the Caixa Geral de Depósitos, S.A. ("CGD") current accounts held by such paying agent and by the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa in the case of payments in currencies accepted by Interbolsa other than euro.

Whilst the Notes are held through Interbolsa, payment of principal and interest in respect of the Notes will be (i) if made in euro (a) credited, according to the procedures and regulations of Interbolsa, by the Portuguese Paying Agent (acting on behalf of the Issuer (REN)) to the payment current accounts used by the Affiliate Members of Interbolsa for payments in respect of securities held through Interbolsa and thereafter (b) credited by such Affiliate Members of Interbolsa from the aforementioned payment current accounts to the accounts of the owners of those Notes or through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to the accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg of the beneficial owners of those Notes, in accordance with the rules and procedures of Interbolsa, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be; or (ii) if made in currencies other than euro (a) transferred, on the payment date and according to the procedures and regulations of Interbolsa, from the account held by the Portuguese Paying Agent in the Foreign Currency Settlement System (Sistema de Liquidação em Moeda Estrangeira), managed by CGD to the relevant accounts of the relevant Affiliate Members of Interbolsa and thereafter (b) transferred by such Affiliate Members of Interbolsa from such relevant accounts to the accounts of the beneficial owners of Notes or through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to the accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg of the beneficial owners of Notes, in accordance with the rules and procedures of Interbolsa, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

Listing

Application has been made to Euronext Dublin for the Notes to be admitted to the Official List and to be admitted to trading on its Regulated Market. Notes may also be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on Euronext Lisbon or by such other or further competent authorities, stock exchanges and/or quotation systems as may be agreed with the relevant Issuer.

The applicable Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be applicable to each Note. Reference should be made to "Form of Final Terms" for a description of the content of Final Terms which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.

Each Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by an Issuer (the "Issuer") which will be, as specified in the Final Terms (as defined below), either REN-Redes Energéticas Nacionais, SGPS, S.A. The final terms for each Note (or the relevant provisions thereof) complete these Terms and Conditions. References to the "applicable Final Terms" are to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof), in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, attached to or endorsed on the Note.

In respect of Notes issued by REN B.V., REN B.V. has the benefit of a Keep Well Agreement (the "Keep Well Agreement") dated 21 July 2014 made between REN and REN B.V.

5. INTEREST

5.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest. Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

Except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount set out in the applicable Final Terms. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

In these Terms and Conditions, "Fixed Interest Period" means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

If interest is required to be calculated for a period other than a Fixed Interest Period, such interest shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to each Specified Denomination, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction specified in the Final Terms, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

In these Terms and Conditions, "Day Count Fraction" means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 5.1:

 - (b) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:
 - 1. the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
 - 2. the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (ii) if 30/360 is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In these Terms and Conditions:

"Determination Period" means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to (but excluding) the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and

2. the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (EURIBOR as specified in the applicable Final Terms) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page specified in the applicable Final Terms (or such replacement page on that service which displays the information) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR (the "Specified Time")) on the Interest Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or, where the applicable Final Terms specify a Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent so specified. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or Calculation Agent, as applicable, for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) or, as applicable, the relevant Calculation Agent, of such offered quotations.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available, or if no offered quotation appears or fewer than three offered quotations appear, in each case as at the Specified Time, the Issuer shall appoint a Determination Agent and the Determination Agent shall request each of the Reference Banks to provide it with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Specified Time on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Determination Agent with offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Determination Agent.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Determination Agent with an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Determination Agent determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Determination Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Determination Agent with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the relevant Issuer suitable for the purpose) informs the Determination Agent it is quoting to leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

In these Terms and Conditions:

"Reference Banks" means, in the case of a determination of EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone offices of four major banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market, in each case selected by the Determination Agent; and

"Determination Agent" means a leading investment bank which is an active market participant in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR), in each case as selected by the Issuer.

(ii) Linear Interpolation:

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined and Linear Interpolation is specified in the applicable Final Terms as applicable in respect of an Interest Period, the Rate of Interest for that Interest Period shall be calculated by the Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or, where the applicable Final Terms specify a Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent so specified, by straight-line linear interpolation by reference to two rates (each determined in the same manner as set out above for the Reference Rate) which appear on the Relevant Screen Page specified in the applicable Final Terms as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time, in the case of EURIBOR) on the relevant Interest Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms, where:

(A) one rate shall be determined as if the relevant Interest Period were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period; and

(B) the other rate shall be determined as if the relevant Interest Period were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), provided, however, that if no rate is available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, then the Calculation Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

(C) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specify a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of Condition 5.2 above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specify a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of Condition 5.2 above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(D) Determination of Rate of Interest and Calculation of Interest Amounts

The Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or, where the applicable Final Terms specify a Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent so specified, or, where applicable, the Determination Agent, will at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period. The Calculation Agent, if any, will notify the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent, as applicable, of the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period as soon as practicable after calculating the same.

The Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or, where the applicable Final Terms specify a Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent so specified, or, where applicable, the Determination Agent, will calculate the amount of interest payable on the Floating Rate Notes in respect of each Specified Denomination (each an Interest Amount) for the relevant Interest Period. Each Interest Amount shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to each Specified Denomination, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest for any Interest Period:

- (i) if Actual/Actual (ISDA) or Actual/Actual is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (ii) if Actual/365 (Fixed) is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;
- (iii) if Actual/365 (Sterling) is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (iv) if Actual/360 is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (v) if 30/360, 360/360 or Bond Basis is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D_1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D_1 is greater than 29, in which case D_2 will be 30;

- (vi) if 30E/360 or Eurobond Basis is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D_1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D_2 will be 30;

- (vii) if 30E/360 (ISDA) is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

Y_1 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

Y_2 is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

M_1 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

M_2 is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

D_1 is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D_1 will be 30; and

D_2 is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31 and in which case D_2 will be 30.

(E) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or, where the applicable Final Terms specify a Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent so specified, or, where applicable, the Determination Agent, will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer, the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent, as the case may be (if the Calculation Agent is an entity other than the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent, as the case may be) and to any Stock Exchange or other relevant competent listing authority or quotation system on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed, quoted and/or traded (by no later than the first day of each Interest Period) and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices) as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth Lisbon Business Day thereafter in the case of Book-Entry Notes or, in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, the fourth Lisbon and London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment or alternative arrangements will be promptly notified to each Stock Exchange or other relevant authority on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to listing or trading and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices). For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression Lisbon Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in Lisbon; and the expression London Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(F) Benchmark Discontinuation

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition 5.2 and in the case of SONIA-linked Notes to the operation of Condition 5.3, if REN (in consultation with the Calculation Agent (or the person specified in the relevant Final Terms as the party responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest)) determines that a Benchmark Event has occurred when the Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) for any Interest Period remains to be determined by reference to such Reference Rate, then REN shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, no later than 5 Business Days prior to the Interest Determination Date relating to the next succeeding Interest Period to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread, (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(iii)) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(iv)).

For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent, any Paying Agent, or the Calculation Agent (if applicable), shall be obliged to monitor or inquire whether a Benchmark Event has occurred or have any liability in respect thereof.

In the absence of bad faith or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as the case may be or the Noteholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 5.2(F).

- (i) If (a) REN is unable, having used its reasonable endeavours, to appoint an Independent Adviser or (b) the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate and, in each case, an Adjustment Spread, in accordance with this Condition 5.2(F) prior to the date which is 3 Business Days prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Reference Rate applicable to the immediate following Interest Period shall be the Reference Rate determined on the last preceding Interest Determination Date. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Reference Rate shall be the Reference Rate applicable to the first Interest Period. For the avoidance of doubt, any adjustment pursuant to this final paragraph of Condition 5.2(F) shall apply to the immediately following Interest Period only. Any subsequent Interest Period may be subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 5.2(F).

- (ii) If the Independent Adviser determines in its discretion that:
 - (a) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 5.2(F)(iii)) subsequently be used in place of the Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for the immediately following Interest Period and all following Interest Periods, subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 5.2(F); or
 - (b) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in Condition 5.2(F)(iii)) subsequently be used in place of the Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for the immediately following Interest Period and all following Interest Periods, subject to the subsequent operation of this Condition 5.2(F).
- (iii) If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined in accordance with Condition 5.2(F), the Independent Adviser shall determine an Adjustment Spread (which may be expressed as a specified quantum or a formula or methodology for determining the applicable Adjustment Spread). The Adjustment Spread shall apply to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be), subject to any subsequent further operation and adjustment as provided in this Condition 5.2(F).
- (iv) If any relevant Successor Rate, Alternative Rate or Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 5.2(F) and the Independent Adviser determines in its discretion: (a) that amendments to these Conditions, the Trust Deed, the Interbolsa Instrument and/or the Agency Agreement are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the "Benchmark Amendments") and (b) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then REN and REN B.V. shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of relevant Noteholders, vary these Conditions, the Trust Deed, the Interbolsa Instrument and/or the Agency Agreement to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent shall, at the direction and expense of REN, consent to and effect such consequential amendments to the Trust Deed (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Interbolsa Instrument, the Agency Agreement and these Conditions as may be required in order to give effect to this Condition 5.2(F), subject to receipt by the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent (if applicable) of the certificate referred to in Condition 5.2(F)(vi), provided however, that neither the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Calculation Agent nor the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent shall be obliged so to concur if in the reasonable opinion of the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Calculation Agent or the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent (as applicable) doing so would have the effect of imposing more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions in these Conditions, the Agency Agreement or the Trust Deed.
- (v) Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 5.2(F) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent (if applicable), the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices), the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

- (vi) No later than notifying the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Calculation Agent (if applicable), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer:
 - (a) confirming (x) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (y) the relevant Successor Rate, or, as the case may be, the relevant Alternative Rate and, (z) where applicable, any relevant Adjustment Spread and/or the specific terms of any relevant Benchmark Amendments, in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 5.2(F); and
 - (b) certifying that the relevant Benchmark Amendments are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such relevant Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread.

The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without further enquiry and without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof.

- (vii) The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and such Adjustment Spread and such Benchmark Amendments (if any)) be binding on the Issuer (and, if REN B.V. is the Issuer, REN), the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Issue and Paying Agent or the Portuguese Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent (if applicable) and the Noteholders.
- (viii) Without prejudice to the obligations of REN and/or REN B.V., as appropriate, under Condition 5.2(F) (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), the Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5.2(B) will continue to apply unless and until the Calculation Agent or the person specified in the Final Terms as the party responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest has been notified of the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be), the applicable Adjustment Spread and Benchmark Amendments (if applicable), in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(v).
- (ix) If, in the case of any Benchmark Event, any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread is notified to the Issue and Paying Agent and the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent pursuant to Condition 5.2(F)(v), and the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent is in any way uncertain as to the application of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread in the calculation or determination of any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof), it shall promptly notify the Issuer thereof and the Issuer shall direct the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent in writing (which direction may be by way of a written determination of an Independent Advisor) as to which course of action to adopt in the application of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread in the determination of such Rate of Interest. If the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent is not promptly provided with such direction, or is otherwise unable to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer thereof and the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and shall not incur any liability for not doing so. For the avoidance of doubt, for the period that the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or, as applicable, the Calculation Agent remains uncertain of the application of the Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or Adjustment Spread in the calculation or determination of any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof), the Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Conditions 5.2(F) will continue to apply.

- (x) If REN (in consultation with the Calculation Agent (or the person specified in the relevant Final Terms as the party responsible for calculating the Rate of Interest)) determines that a Benchmark Event has occurred when the Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) for any Interest Period remains to be determined by reference to any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, then REN shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, no later than 5 Business Days prior to the Interest Determination Date relating to the next succeeding Interest Period to determine a further Successor Rate, failing which a further Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(ii)) and, in either case, a further Adjustment Spread, (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(iii)) and any further Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(iv)), in each case as though references in this Condition 5.2(F) to the Reference Rate were references to such originally determined Successor Rate or Alternative Rate.

As used in this Condition 5.2(F):

"Adjustment Spread" means either a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or the formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which the Independent Adviser determines is required to be applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the relevant Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (a) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended in relation to the replacement of the Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body; or
- (b) (if no such recommendation has been made, or in the case of an Alternative Rate), the Independent Adviser determines is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Reference Rate; or
- (c) (if no such determination has been made), the Independent Adviser determines is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or
- (d) (if the Independent Adviser determines that no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged) the Independent Adviser determines to be appropriate.

"Alternative Rate" means an alternative benchmark or screen rate which the Independent Adviser determines in accordance with Condition 5.2(F)(ii) as customary in market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining floating rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) in the Specified Currency.

"Benchmark Amendments" has the meaning given to it in Condition 5.2(F).

"Benchmark Event" means:

- (a) the relevant Reference Rate has ceased to be published for a period of at least five consecutive Business Days or more on the Relevant Screen Page as a result of such benchmark ceasing to be calculated or administered; or publication of such Reference Rate) and (B) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (b)(A); or

- (c) the later of (A) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that such Reference Rate has been or will, by a specified date, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued and (B) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (c)(A); or
- (d) the later of (A) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that such Reference Rate will, by a specified date, be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, either generally or in respect of the Notes and (B) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (d)(A); or
- (e) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the relevant Reference Rate that, in the view of such supervisor, such Reference Rate is no longer representative or will no longer be representative of an underlying market; or
- (f) it has or will, by a specified date within the following six months, become unlawful for the Issue and Paying Agent, the Portuguese Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder using the relevant Reference Rate (as applicable) (including, without limitation, under the Benchmarks Regulation (EU) 2016/1011, if applicable).

"Independent Adviser" means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial adviser experienced in the international capital markets, in each case appointed by REN at its own expense under Condition 5.2(F)(i).

"Reference Rate" means the rate specified in the relevant Final Terms as being the Reference Rate and includes any component part thereof.

"Relevant Nominating Body" means, in respect of a benchmark or screen rate (as applicable):

- (B) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (a) the central bank for the currency to which the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable) relates, (b) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the benchmark or screen rate (as applicable), (c) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (d) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof.

"Successor Rate" means a successor to or replacement of the Reference Rate which is formally recommended by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(G) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 5.2, whether by the Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes) or the Calculation Agent (if applicable) shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith or manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, REN (if the Issuer is REN B.V.), the Trustee and the Issue and Paying Agent (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes), the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes), the Calculation Agent (if applicable), the other Paying Agents and all Noteholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability

5.3 Interest on Floating Rate Notes referencing SONIA

This Condition 5.3 is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable and the "Reference Rate" is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being "SONIA".

Where "SONIA" is specified as the Reference Rate in the Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be Compounded Daily SONIA plus or minus (as specified in the relevant Final Terms) the Margin, all as determined by the Calculation Agent.

For the purposes of this Condition 5.3:

"Compounded Daily SONIA", with respect to an Interest Period, will be calculated by the Calculation Agent on each Interest Determination Date in accordance with the following formula, and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the fourth decimal place, with 0.00005 being rounded upwards:

"d" means the number of calendar days in:

"London Banking Day" or "LBD" means any day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London;

"ni" for any London Banking Day "i", in the relevant Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable) is the number of calendar days from, and including, such London Banking Day "i" up to, but excluding, the following London Banking Day;

"Observation Period" means, in respect of an Interest Period, the period from, and including, the date falling "p" London Banking Days prior to the first day of such Interest Period (and the first Interest Period shall begin on and include the Interest Commencement Date) and ending on, but excluding, the date which is "p" London Banking Days prior to the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period (or the date falling "p" London Banking Days prior to such earlier date, if any, on which the Notes become due and payable);

"p" for any Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable), means the number of London Banking Days specified as the "Lag Period" or the "Observation Shift Period" (as applicable) in the relevant Final Terms or if no such period is specified, five London Banking Days;

"SONIA Reference Rate" means, in respect of any London Banking Day, a reference rate equal to the daily Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA") rate for such London Banking Day as provided by the administrator of SONIA to authorised distributors and as then published on the Relevant Screen Page (or if the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, as otherwise is published by such authorised distributors) on the London Banking Day immediately following such London Banking Day; and

"SONIA_i" means the SONIA Reference Rate for:

- (i) where "Lag" is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Final Terms, the London Banking Day falling "p" London Banking Days prior to the relevant London Banking Day "i"; or
- (ii) where "Observation Shift" is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Final Terms, the relevant London Banking Day "i";

For the avoidance of doubt, the formula for the calculation of Compounded Daily SONIA only compounds the SONIA Reference Rate in respect of any London Banking Day. The SONIA Reference Rate applied to a day that is a non-London Banking Day will be taken by applying the SONIA Reference Rate for the previous London Banking Day but without compounding.

If, in respect of any London Banking Day in the relevant Interest Period or Observation Period (as applicable), the Calculation Agent determines that the SONIA Reference Rate is not available on the Relevant Screen Page or has not otherwise been published by the relevant authorised distributors, such SONIA Reference Rate shall be, subject to Condition 5.2(F) (Benchmark Discontinuation)

- (i) the Bank of England's Bank Rate (the "Bank Rate") prevailing at close of business on the relevant London Banking Day; plus the mean of the spread of the SONIA Reference Rate to the Bank Rate over the previous five London Banking Days on which a SONIA Reference Rate has been published, excluding the highest spread (or, if there is more than one highest spread, one only of those highest spreads) and lowest spread (or, if there is more than one lowest spread, one only of those lowest spreads) to the Bank Rate; or
- (ii) if the Bank Rate is not published by the Bank of England at close of business on the relevant London Banking Day, (a) the SONIA Reference Rate published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors) for the first preceding London Banking Day on which the SONIA Reference Rate was published on the Relevant Screen Page (or otherwise published by the relevant authorised distributors) or (b) if this is more recent, the latest determined rate under (i) above.

Subject to Condition 5.2(F) (Benchmark Discontinuation), if the Interest Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Condition 5.3, the Interest Rate shall be (A) that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period, in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period) or (B) if there is no such preceding Interest Determination Date, the initial Interest Rate which would have been applicable to the Notes for the first Interest Period had the Notes been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Interest Period but ending on (and excluding) the Interest Commencement Date (but applying the Margin applicable to the first Interest Period).

If the Notes become due and payable in accordance with Condition 10 (Events of default) or are otherwise redeemed on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final Interest Determination Date shall, notwithstanding the definition specified above, be deemed to be the date on which the Notes became due and payable or are to be redeemed (as applicable) and the Interest Rate on the Notes shall, for so long as the Notes remain outstanding, be the rate determined on such date.

5.4 Accrual of interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date for its redemption unless, upon due presentation thereof, if applicable, or, in the case of a Book-Entry Note presentation of the relevant Certificate in respect thereof, payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue as provided in the Trust Deed (in relation to Non-Book-Entry Notes) and as provided in the Interbolsa Instrument (in relation to Book-Entry Notes).

6. PAYMENTS

All payments of interest will be made to accounts outside the United States except as may be permitted by US tax law in effect at the time of such payment without detriment to the Issuer.

6.2 Payments in relation to Book-Entry Notes

Payments of principal and interest in respect of Book-Entry Notes may only be made in euro, U.S. dollars, Sterling, Japanese Yen and Swiss francs until such date as Interbolsa accepts registration and clearing of securities denominated in other currencies.

Payment of the final instalment will be made in the manner provided in Condition 6.1 above only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of the relevant Note in accordance with the preceding paragraph. Each Receipt must be presented for payment of the relevant instalment together with the definitive Note to which it appertains. Receipts presented without the definitive Note to which they appertain do not constitute valid obligations of the Issuer. Upon the date on which any definitive Note becomes due and repayable, unmatured Receipts (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect thereof.

Fixed Rate Notes in bearer form should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8 (Taxation)) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 9 (Prescription)) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in bearer form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note in definitive form becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof.

If the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from and including the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant Bearer Note.

6.5 Payment Subject to Fiscal Laws

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any clearing system regulations, fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8 (Taxation) and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

6.6 Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the Holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, Payment Day means any day which (subject to Condition 9 (Prescription)) is:

If the Make-whole Exemption Period is specified as applicable and the Issuer gives notice to redeem the Notes during the Make-whole Exemption Period, the Optional Redemption Amount will be 100 per cent. of the principal amount outstanding of the Notes to be redeemed.

In the case of a partial redemption of Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Non-Book-Entry Notes to be redeemed ("Redeemed Notes") will (i) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, be selected individually by lot, not more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption and (ii) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a Global Note, be selected in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion). In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices) not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for redemption.

In the case of Book-Entry Notes partial redemption will be done in accordance with Interbolsa rules.

"Reference Government Note Dealer Quotations" means, with respect to each Reference Government Note Dealer and any date for redemption, the arithmetic average, as determined by the Agent, of the bid and offered prices for the Reference Note (expressed in each case as a percentage of its nominal amount) at the Quotation Time specified in the applicable Final Terms on the Reference Date quoted in writing to the Calculation Agent by such Reference Government Note Dealer.

"Reference Note" shall be the note so specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if not so specified or if no longer available, the FA Selected Note.

"Reference Note Price" means, with respect to any date of redemption: (a) the arithmetic average of the Reference Government Note Dealer Quotations for such date of redemption, after excluding the highest and lowest such Reference Government Note Dealer Quotations; or (b) if the Financial Adviser obtains fewer than four such Reference Government Note Dealer Quotations, the arithmetic average of all such quotations.

"Reference Note Rate" means, with respect to any date of redemption, the rate per annum equal to the annual or semi-annual yield (as the case may be) to maturity or interpolated yield to maturity (on the relevant day count basis) of the Reference Note, assuming a price for the Reference Note (expressed as a percentage of its nominal amount) equal to the Reference Note Price for such date of redemption.

All Notes in respect of which any such notice is given shall be redeemed on the date specified in such notice in accordance with this Condition.

A "Substantial Purchase Event" shall be deemed to have occurred at the point in time at which at least 80 per cent. or such higher percentage as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series originally issued (which for these purposes shall include any further Notes of the same Series issued subsequently) is purchased by REN B.V., REN or any subsidiary of REN (and in each case is cancelled in accordance with Condition 7.10);

7.5 Residual Maturity Call Option

If a Residual Maturity Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice (or such other period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) to the Issue and Paying Agent and the Trustee (in the case of NCN Back Entry Notes) or the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book Entry Notes) and, in each case, in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices) the Noteholders (which notice shall specify the date fixed for redemption (the "Residual Maturity Call Option Redemption Date")), redeem the Notes comprising the relevant Series, in whole but not in part, at their principal

To exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the Holder of this Note must deliver (1) (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes in definitive form) to the specified office of any Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent) at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the notice period a duly completed and signed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from any specified office of any Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent); or (2) (in all other cases) in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, a notice to the Issue and Paying Agent or Transfer Agent or Registrar (as the case may be); or, in the case of Book-Entry Notes, a notice to the Portuguese Paying Agent, in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or Interbolsa (as applicable) or any common depository or custodian for them stating the principal amount of the Notes in respect of which such option is exercised (a "Put Notice") in which the Holder must specify a bank account to which payment is to be made under this Condition together in the case of Bearer Notes with the Notes. Any Put Notice given by a Holder of any Note pursuant to this paragraph shall be irrevocable. No deposit of Notes will be required in respect of Book-Entry Notes. For Book-Entry Notes held through Interbolsa, the right to require redemption will be exercised directly against the Issuer, through the Portuguese Paying Agent.

7.7 Early Redemption Amounts

For the purpose of Condition 7.2 above and Condition 10 (Events of Default), each Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount calculated as follows:

- (i) in the case of a Note with a Final Redemption Amount equal to the Issue Price of the first Tranche of the Series, at the Final Redemption Amount thereof;
- (ii) in the case of a Note (other than a Zero Coupon Note but including an Instalment Note) with a Final Redemption Amount which is or may be less or greater than the Issue Price of the first Tranche of the Series at the amount specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no such amount or manner is so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at its nominal amount; or
- (iii) in the case of a Zero Coupon Note, at an amount (the "Amortised Face Amount") calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Early Redemption Amount} = \text{RP} \times (1 + \text{AY})^y$$

where:

"RP" means the Reference Price; and

"AY" means the Accrual Yield expressed as a decimal; and

y is a fraction the numerator of which is equal to the number of days (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of 12 months of 30 days each) from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator of which is 360.

Such Notes may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the relevant Issuer and, if the Issuer is REN, B.V., REN or the relevant subsidiary (as the case may be), cancelled.

7.10 Cancellation

- (a) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Zero Coupon Note have been paid; and
- (b) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Zero Coupon Notes has been received by the Issue and Paying Agent or the Trustee (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes) or the Portuguese Paying Agent (in the case of Book-Entry Notes), and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices).

All payments in respect of the Notes, Receipts and Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer shall be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature ("Taxes") imposed or levied by or on behalf of any of the Relevant Jurisdiction, unless the withholding or deduction of the Taxes is required by law. In that event, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holders of Notes, Receipts or Coupons after the withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts which would have been receivable in respect of the Notes, Receipts or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of the withholding or deduction; except that no additional amounts shall be payable in relation to any payment in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon:

- (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who is liable to the Taxes in respect of the Note, Receipt or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with the Relevant Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of the Note; or

10.2 Interpretation

For the purposes of this Condition 10:

"Group" means REN and its Subsidiaries;

"IFRS" means International Financial Reporting Standards adopted by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB);

"Indebtedness for Borrowed Money" means any indebtedness (whether being principal, premium, interest or other amounts) for or in respect of any notes, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock or other securities or any borrowed money or any liability under or in respect of any bank loan or acceptance or acceptance credit;

"Material Subsidiary" means at any time any Subsidiary of REN:

- (a) whose total assets or revenues (consolidated in the case of a company which itself has subsidiaries) represent not less than 10 per cent. of the consolidated total assets or consolidated revenues of the Group taken as a whole, all as calculated by reference to the then most recent financial statements and in accordance with IFRS (consolidated or, as the case may be, unconsolidated) of that Subsidiary and the most recent consolidated financial statements of the Group; or
- (b) to which is transferred the whole or substantially the whole of the assets and undertaking of a Subsidiary which, immediately prior to such transfer, is a Material Subsidiary;

"Permitted Reorganisation" means a reorganisation, reconstruction, amalgamation, merger, consolidation or transfer of assets and/or activities between or among REN and its Subsidiaries (a "Reorganisation"), in each case where:

- (a) such Reorganisation does not result in any change to the legal status of REN as a limited liability company ("Sociedade Anónima" under the laws of the Portuguese Republic) or, in the case of Notes issued by REN B.V., any change to the legal status of REN B.V. (a private company with limited liability under the laws of The Netherlands (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid));
- (b) the aggregate amount of the assets of the Group owned, controlled or otherwise held, directly or indirectly, by REN, as determined by reference to the last publicly available audited consolidated financial statements of REN prior to the date of the first public announcement of such Reorganisation, is no less than the corresponding amount of assets owned, controlled or otherwise held, directly or indirectly, by REN following the date of completion of such Reorganisation; and
- (c) no internationally recognised rating agency has made any announcement or issued any notice to REN or REN B.V. or any other party to the effect that, as a result of the Reorganisation, it will downgrade, or is contemplating the possibility of downgrading, the rating it has previously assigned to the Notes (including the Notes being placed on a negative rating watch or a negative outlook being applied to the Notes) or REN; and

"Subsidiary" means an entity from time to time in respect of which REN (a) has the right to appoint the majority of the members of the board of directors or similar board or (b) owns directly or indirectly more than 50 per cent. of (i) the share capital or similar right of ownership or (ii) voting rights (by contract or otherwise).

10.3 Reports

A report by two directors of REN whether or not addressed to the Trustee that in their opinion a Subsidiary of REN is or is not or was or was not at any particular time or throughout any specified period a Material Subsidiary may be relied upon by the Trustee without further enquiry or evidence and, if relied upon by the Trustee, shall, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive and binding on all parties.

In respect of Non-Book-Entry Notes, in connection with Condition 10.1(iv) and (v) above, the Trustee shall be entitled to accept without any further enquiry (i) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing procured by the relevant Issuer to the effect that paragraph (a) of the definition of Permitted Reorganisation is satisfied and (ii) a certificate signed by two directors of the relevant Issuer confirming that paragraphs (b) and (c) of the definition of Permitted Reorganisation are satisfied as sufficient evidence that any operation falls within the definition of Permitted Reorganisation, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Non-Book-Entry Noteholders.

11. ENFORCEMENT

11.1 Enforcement by the Trustee

In the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Trustee may, at its discretion and without further notice, take such proceedings against the Issuer as it may think fit to enforce the obligations of the Issuer under the Trust Deed and the Non-Book-Entry Notes and any related Receipts or Coupons or the obligations of REN under the Keep Well Agreement, but it shall not be bound to take any such proceedings or any other action unless (a) it shall have been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Non-Book-Entry Noteholders or so requested in writing by the Holders of at least one-quarter in nominal amount of the Notes outstanding and (b) it shall have been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

11.2 Limitation on Trustee actions

The Trustee may refrain from taking any action in any jurisdiction if the taking of such action in that jurisdiction would, in its opinion based upon legal advice in the relevant jurisdiction, be contrary to any law of that jurisdiction. Furthermore, the Trustee may also refrain from taking such action if it would otherwise render it liable to any person in that jurisdiction or, if in its opinion based on such legal advice, it would not have the power to do the relevant thing in that jurisdiction by virtue of any applicable law in that jurisdiction or if it is determined by any court or other competent authority in that jurisdiction that it does not have such power.

11.3 Enforcement by Book-Entry Noteholders

The Trustee may not, but the Book-Entry Noteholders may, at any time, take such proceedings against REN as they may think fit to enforce the provisions of the Book-Entry Notes and/or the Interbolsa Instrument.

11.4 Enforcement by the Non-Book-Entry Noteholders

Non-Book-Entry Noteholders shall not be entitled to proceed directly against REN B.V. or REN unless the Trustee, having become bound so to do, fails or is unable to do so within 90 days and such failure or inability is continuing.

12. REPLACEMENT OF NOTES, RECEIPTS, COUPONS AND TALONS

Should any Non-Book-Entry Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon be lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the specified office of any Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent) upon payment by the claimant of such costs and expenses as may be incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence and indemnity as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Non-Book-Entry Notes, Receipts, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

13. PAYING AGENTS

The names of the initial Paying Agents and their initial specified offices are set out below.

The Issuer is entitled (in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, with the prior written approval of the Trustee) to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent and/or appoint additional or other Paying Agents and/or approve any change in the specified office through which any Paying Agent acts, provided that:

- (i) in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes there will at all times be an Issue and Paying Agent and, in respect of Registered Notes, a Registrar;
- (ii) in the case of Book-Entry Notes, there will at all times be a Portuguese Paying Agent;
- (iii) so long as any of the Book-Entry Notes are registered with Interbolsa there will at all times be a Paying Agent having a specified office in such place of registration and complying with any requirements that may be imposed by the rules and regulations of Interbolsa; and
- (iv) so long as any of the Notes are listed on any Stock Exchange or admitted to trading by any other relevant authority, there will at all times be a Paying Agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant Stock Exchange or as the case may be, other relevant authority.

In acting under the Agency Agreement, the Paying Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer and, in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, in certain limited circumstances, of the Trustee, and in all cases do not assume any obligation to, or relationship of agency or trust with, any Noteholders. The Agency Agreement contains provisions permitting any entity into which any Paying Agent is merged or converted or with which it is consolidated or to which it transfers all or substantially all of its assets to become the successor paying agent.

14. EXCHANGE OF TALONS

On and after the Interest Payment Date on which the final Coupon comprised in any Coupon sheet matures, the Talon (if any) forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of any Paying Agent (other than the Portuguese Paying Agent) in exchange for a further

Coupon sheet including (if such further Coupon sheet does not include Coupons to (and including) the final date for the payment of interest due in respect of the Note to which it appertains) a further Talon, subject to the provisions of Condition 9 (Prescription).

15. NOTICES

All notices regarding the Notes will be deemed to be validly given if published in accordance with the rules and regulations of any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading.

All notices regarding Bearer Notes will be deemed to be validly given if published in a leading English language daily newspaper of general circulation in London. It is expected that such publication will be made in the Financial Times in London. Notices to Holders of Registered Notes will be deemed to be validly given if sent by first class mail (or equivalent) or (if posted to an overseas address) by air mail to them (or, in the case of joint Holders, to the first-named in the register kept by the Registrar) at their respective addresses as recorded in the Register, and will be deemed to have been validly given on the fourth weekday after the date of such mailing or, if posted from another country, on the fifth such day.

The Issuer shall comply with disclosure obligations applicable to listed companies under Portuguese law in respect of Notices relating to the Book-Entry Notes, which are integrated in and held through Interbolsa in dematerialised form.

Any notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of publication or, if so published more than once or on different dates, on the date of the first publication. In the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, if publication as provided above is not practicable, notice will be given in such other manner, and will be deemed to have been given on such date, as the Trustee shall approve.

Notices to be given by any Noteholder shall be in writing and given by lodging the same either with the Issuer or with the Issue and Paying Agent in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, or the Portuguese Paying Agent in the case of Book-Entry Notes.

16. MEETINGS OF HOLDERS OF NOTES

Book-Entry Notes

The Interbolsa Instrument contains provisions for convening meetings of the Book-Entry Noteholders to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of these Terms and Conditions or any of the provisions of the Interbolsa Instrument.

The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on: (i) a resolution not regarding a Reserved Matter will be any person or persons holding or representing whatever the nominal amount of the Book-Entry Notes so held or represented; or (ii) an Extraordinary Resolution regarding a Reserved Matter of the Book-Entry Notes, will be any person or persons holding or representing at least 50 per cent. in nominal amount of the Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding or, at any adjourned meeting, any person being or representing whatever the nominal amount of the Book-Entry Notes so held or represented. Each Book-Entry Note grants its holder one vote.

The majorities required to approve a resolution at any meeting convened in accordance with the applicable rules shall be: (i) if in respect to a resolution not regarding a Reserved Matter, the majority of the votes cast at the relevant meeting; or (ii) if in respect to an Extraordinary Resolution regarding a Reserved Matter, at least 50 per cent. in nominal amount of the Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding or, at any adjourned meeting two-thirds of the votes cast at the relevant meeting.

For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, a "Reserved Matter" means any proposal: (i) to change any date fixed for payment of principal or interest in respect of the Book-Entry Notes of all or of a given Series, (ii) to reduce the amount of principal or interest due on any date in respect of the Book-Entry Notes of all or of a given Series or to alter the method of calculating the amount of any payment in respect of the Book-Entry Notes of all or of a given Series on redemption or maturity; (iii) to effect the exchange, conversion or substitution of the Book-Entry Notes of all or

- (A) A resolution approved at any meeting of the Book-Entry Noteholders of a Series shall, be binding on all the Book-Entry Noteholders of such Series, whether or not they are present at the meeting.
- (B) Any such meeting to consider a resolution may be convened by the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders of REN, by a common representative (if appointed by the Noteholders) or if the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders of REN refuses to convene the meeting, then 5 per cent. of the Book-Entry Noteholders of any Series may petition the court to order a meeting to be convened.
- (C) A resolution approved at any meeting of the Book-Entry Noteholders of all Series shall be binding on all Book-Entry Noteholders of all Series, whether or not they are present at the meeting.
- (D) In connection with any meeting of the Book-Entry Noteholders of more than one Series where such Book-Entry Notes are not denominated in euro, the nominal amount of the Book-Entry Notes of any Series not denominated in euro shall be converted into euro at the relevant exchange rate at the date of the meeting.

Non-Book-Entry Notes

The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes to consider any matter affecting their interests, including the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or any of the provisions of the Trust Deed. Such a meeting may be convened by REN B.V. or the Trustee and shall be convened by REN B.V. if required in writing by holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes holding not less than 10 per cent. in nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes for the time being remaining outstanding. The quorum at any such meeting for passing an Extraordinary Resolution is one or more persons holding or representing more than 50 per cent. in nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned meeting one or more persons being or representing holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes whatever the nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes so held or represented, except that at any meeting the business of which includes the modification of certain provisions of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or the Trust Deed (including modifying any date of payment, reducing or cancelling the amount of principal or the rate of interest payable in respect of Non-Book-Entry Notes or altering the currency of payment of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts or the Coupons), the quorum shall be one or more persons holding or representing not less than two-thirds in nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding, or at any adjourned such meeting one or more persons holding or representing not less than one-third in nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding. The Trust Deed provides that (i) a resolution passed at a meeting duly convened and held in accordance with the Trust Deed by a majority consisting of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast on such resolution, (ii) a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than three-fourths in nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding or (iii) consent given by way of electronic consents through the relevant clearing system(s) (in a form satisfactory to the Trustee) by or on behalf of the holders of not less than three-fourths in nominal amount of the Non-Book-Entry Notes for the time being outstanding, shall, in each case, be effective as an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders. An Extraordinary Resolution passed at any meeting of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes shall be binding on all the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes, whether or not they are present at the meeting and on all holders of Receipts and Coupons.

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes, to:

- (A) any modification of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or the Trust Deed which is not, in the opinion of the Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes; or
- (B) any modification of the Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or the Trust Deed which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or to comply with mandatory provisions of the law.

The Trustee may also, without any consent as aforesaid, waive or authorise any breach or proposed breach by REN B.V. of any of the covenants or provisions contained in the Trust Deed, or determine that any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default (as defined in the Trust Deed) shall not be treated as such which, in any such case, is not in the opinion of the Trustee, materially prejudicial to the interests of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes.

Any such modification, waiver, authorisation or determination shall be binding on the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes and, unless the Trustee agrees otherwise, any such modification shall be notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 15 (Notices) as soon as practicable thereafter.

In addition, pursuant to Condition 5.2(F) (Benchmark Discontinuation), certain changes may be made to the interest calculation provisions of the Floating Rate Notes in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in such Condition, without the requirement for consent of the Trustee or the Noteholders.

In connection with the exercise by it of any of its trusts, powers, authorities or discretions (including, without limitation, any modification, waiver, authorisation or determination), the Trustee shall have regard to the general interests of the holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes as a class but shall not have regard to any interests arising from circumstances particular to individual holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes (whatever their number) and, in particular, but without limitation, shall not have regard to the consequences of such exercise for individual holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes (whatever their number) resulting from their being for any purpose domiciled or resident in, or otherwise connected with, or subject to the jurisdiction of, any particular territory and the Trustee shall not be entitled to require, nor shall any Holder be entitled to claim, from REN B.V. any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such exercise upon individual holders of Non-Book-Entry Notes except to the extent already provided for in Condition 8 (Taxation) and/or any undertakings given in addition thereto or in substitution therefor pursuant to the Trust Deed.

17. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer shall be at liberty from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders to create and issue further Notes having terms and conditions the same as the Notes or the same in all respects save for the amount and date of the first payment of interest thereon and the date on which interest starts to accrue, and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the outstanding Notes of such Series. In relation to Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Trust Deed and, in relation to Book-Entry Notes, the Interbolsa Instrument, contain provisions for convening a single meeting of the Noteholders and the Holders of Notes of other series in certain circumstances where, in the case of Non-Book-Entry Notes, the Trustee so decides.

18. INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEE

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and for its relief from responsibility, including provisions relieving it from any obligation to take proceedings to enforce repayment unless indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction. The Trust Deed provides that, when determining whether an indemnity or any security or pre-funding is satisfactory to it, the Trustee shall be entitled (i) to evaluate its risk in any given circumstance by considering the worst-case scenario and (ii) to require that any indemnity or security given to it by the Noteholders or any of them be given on a joint and several basis and be supported by evidence satisfactory to it as to the financial standing and creditworthiness of each counterparty and/or as to the value of the security and an opinion as to the capacity, power and authority of each counterparty and/or the validity and effectiveness of the security. The Trustee may enter into business transactions with the Issuer or any person or body corporate associated with the Issuer without accounting for any profit made or benefit received.

NOW, THEREFORE, REN and REN B.V. hereby covenant and agree as follows:

1. REN shall own, directly or indirectly, all of the issued and outstanding share capital of REN B.V. and will control the composition of the board of directors of REN B.V. so long as any Debt Obligation is outstanding and shall not pledge, grant a security interest in, encumber or dispose of any of such share capital.

5. REN warrants and agrees that its payment obligations which may arise hereunder constitute unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of REN and rank pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of REN other than those obligations which are preferred by law.
6. This Deed is not, and nothing herein contained and nothing done by REN pursuant hereto shall be deemed to constitute, a guarantee, direct or indirect, by REN of any Debt Obligation or any other debt of REN B.V. - (ii) shall be deposited with and held by the Trustee for so long as the Trust Deed is in force and, if thereafter, any other Debt Obligation remains outstanding it will be deposited with and held by a reputable financial institution on behalf of the holder(s) of such other Debt Obligation. Both REN and REN B.V. hereby acknowledge the right of the holder of any Debt Obligation to obtain from either party a copy of this Deed.
- (iii) The term "holder" herein has the same meaning in relation to each Note as the term "Holder" in the Terms and Conditions of such Note.

11. This Deed may be executed in any number of counterparts, all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
12. This Deed and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Deed shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the English law.
13. Each of REN and REN B.V. irrevocably agrees that the courts of England are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with this Deed (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Deed) and accordingly submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
14. Each of REN and REN B.V. waives any objection to the courts of England on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum.
15. Nothing contained herein shall limit any right to take any suit, action or proceeding (together referred to as "Proceedings") arising out of or in connection with this Deed (including any Proceedings relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this Deed) in any other court of competent jurisdiction and concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.
16. Each of REN and REN B.V. appoints Law Debenture Corporate Services Limited at its registered office at 8th Floor, 100 Bishopsgate, London EC2N 4AG, United Kingdom, as its agent for service of process and agrees that, in the event of Law Debenture Corporate Services Limited ceasing so to act or ceasing to be registered in England, it will appoint another person as its agent for service of process in England in respect of any Proceedings. REN – REDES ENERGÉTICAS NACIONAIS, SGPS, S.A.

REN – Redes Energéticas Nacionais, SGPS, S.A. ("REN") is a public liability company organised as a "Sociedade Gestora de Participações Sociais" and a "Sociedade Anónima". As a holding company, REN indirectly pursues its economic activity through the management of holdings in other companies.

REN is notably governed by the following Portuguese legislation: (i) the Decree-Law No. 495/88, of 30 December (as amended) applicable to holding companies ("sociedades gestoras de participações sociais"); (ii) the Portuguese Companies Code, approved by the Decree-Law No. 262/86, of 2 September (as amended) which sets out the legal framework applicable to share limited liability companies ("sociedades anónimas"); (iii) the Portuguese Securities Code, approved by Decree-Law No. 486/99, of 13 November (as amended) which sets out the legal framework applicable to the public offers of securities; and (iv) regulations of the Portuguese Securities Market Commission applicable to the issuers of securities.

REN has its registered office at Avenida Estados Unidos da América, No. 55, Lisbon, Portugal (Telephone: +351 21 001 35 00) and is registered at the Lisbon Commercial Registry Office of Lisbon under taxpayer and commercial registration number 503.264.032. As per article 3 of its articles of association, REN's purpose consists of the management of shareholdings in other companies which carry out activities in the areas of transmission of electricity, transmission and storage of natural gas and of reception, storage and regasification of liquefied natural gas and other related activities. Being a holding company ("Sociedade Gestora de Participações Sociais"), REN does not directly perform operational activities.

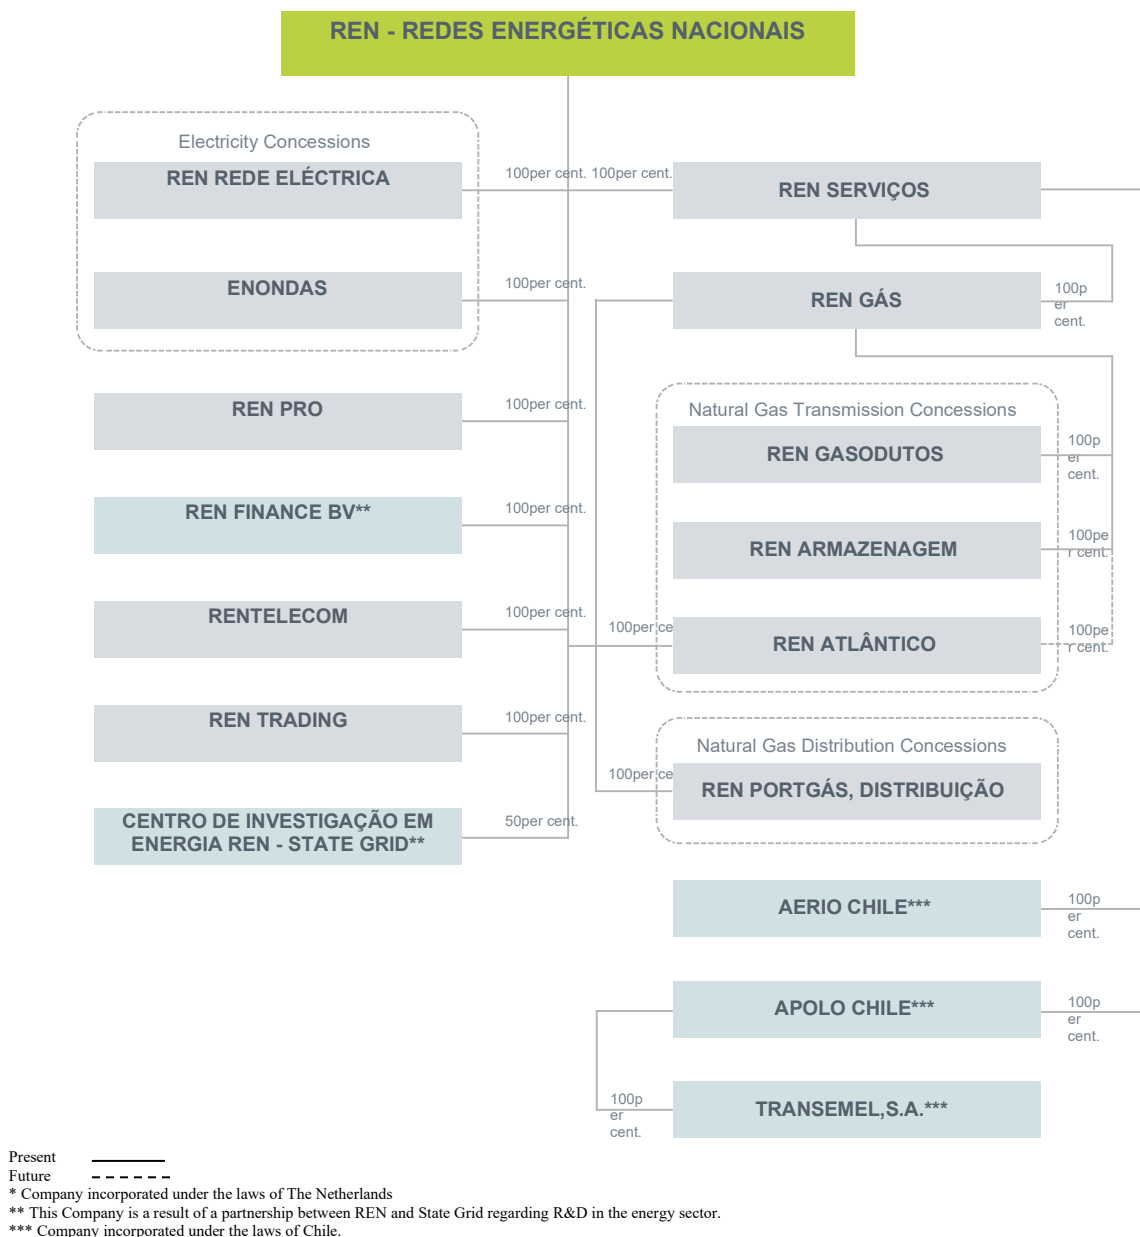

REN was incorporated in August 1994 under the name of REN – Rede Eléctrica Nacional, S.A. ("REN Rede Eléctrica") as a result of the spin-off of a business unit of EDP – Energias de Portugal, S.A. ("EDP"). In November 2000, the Portuguese Republic acquired a 70 per cent. stake in REN from EDP as part of the liberalisation of the domestic energy market, which required the legal separation of electricity transmission, distribution and generation companies.

Until September 2006, REN's core business was the operation and technical management of the National Electricity Transmission Grid in Portugal (the "RNT"), acting also as a sole purchaser of electricity, through the long-term PPAs executed between 1993 and 1996 with the hydro and thermal electricity generation plants in mainland Portugal. In September 2006, REN acquired certain assets and companies relating to the transportation and underground storage of natural gas and the liquefied natural gas ("LNG") terminal and regasification facility in Sines from Transgás as defined above.

In January 2007, REN changed its by-laws to reorganise the group (the "Group"), becoming a holding company that operates electricity and gas businesses through its subsidiaries. It also changed its name to REN – Redes Energéticas Nacionais, SGPS, S.A.

In July 2007, the majority of the PPAs were terminated early and REN's activity as sole purchaser of electricity was replaced with a new and specifically regulated trading activity in the context of a market environment, involving the two PPAs that were kept in force. One of these PPAs terminated in 2021 and the remaining PPA is scheduled to be terminated in 2024.

The diagram below sets out the structure of the Group as at the date of this Base Prospectus:

In July 2007, two new companies were incorporated by REN: REN Trading, for the management of the two remaining PPAs (entered into with Turbogás – Produtora Energética, S.A. ("Turbogás") and Tejo Energia, S.A. ("Tejo Energia")) and selling the energy acquired pursuant to those PPAs in the market (operating since 1 July 2007); and REN Serviços, S.A. ("REN Serviços"), which provides back office services to the Group.

In October 2010, a new company Enondas, Energia das Ondas, S.A. ("Enondas"), whose share capital is fully owned by REN, was incorporated for the operation of a pilot zone for the generation of electric energy from sea waves, under a concession agreement entered into on 20 October 2010 with the Portuguese Republic for a duration of 45 years.

REN Gás, S.A. ("REN Gás") of which 100 per cent. is held by REN Serviços, was incorporated in March 2011. REN Gás holds, as at the date of this Base Prospectus, the entire share capital of REN Gasodutos, S.A. and REN Armazenagem, and is expected to hold in the near future the entire share capital of REN Atlântico. This was the result of a corporate restructuring, which aimed to rationalise the organisation's structure and improve flexibility. The corporate restructuring placed particular emphasis on the organisation of the Group's main business areas and on the reinforcement of the Group's institutional image. The restructuring did not affect the substance of the Group's main activities nor the ownership of its assets and main holdings.

In May 2012, the Portuguese Republic concluded the sale of 40 per cent. of REN's share capital to two strategic international partners, State Grid International Development ("SGID") (25 per cent.) and Oman Oil Company S.A.O.C. ("OOC") (15 per cent.).

In July 2012, REN completed the acquisition of 7.5 per cent. of the share capital and voting rights of Hidroeléctrica de Cahora Bassa, S.A. ("HCB") in Mozambique.

In May 2013, REN incorporated its wholly owned subsidiary, REN B.V., for the purpose of raising funds in the capital markets and financing the companies within the Group.

In June 2014, the Portuguese Republic concluded the sale of 11 per cent. of REN's share capital in the market through a public offering in Portugal of 11,748,000 shares to retail investors and by way of a private placement of 46,992,000 shares to institutional investors within and outside of Portugal in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 (as amended).

Since May 2016, the date in which 213,600,000 shares held by State Grid Europe Limited and Mazoon B.V. were admitted to trading, all of REN's shares are admitted to trading in Euronext Lisbon, regulated market managed by Euronext Lisbon – Sociedade Gestora de Mercados Regulamentados, S.A., with ISIN code PTRELOAM0008.

In February 2017, REN acquired a participation of 42.5 per cent. in the share capital of Electrogas S.A., which operates a gas pipeline in central Chile 165.6 km long.

In October 2017 REN acquired the whole share capital of the EDP Gas Group (i.e. EDP Gas and its subsidiary EDP Gás Distribuição, S.A. (renamed REN Portgás Distribuição, S.A.)) from EDP Iberia, S.L.U., which held the second largest gas distribution network) in Portugal, with, at that time, 4,707 km of network at the time of the Acquisition. The purchase price (corresponding to the enterprise value) was EUR 530.5 million.

In December 2017, REN carried out a share capital increase through the issuance of 133,191,262 new ordinary shares with a nominal value of EUR 1.00 each with subscription reserved to the shareholders and purchasers of subscription rights pursuant to a rights offering, in accordance with applicable law.

In November 2018, a new company – REN PRO, S.A. - was incorporated in order to render support services, including administrative, logistics, communication, business development, consultancy and IT services to the other companies of the group and to third entities.

In October 2019 REN acquired, through its Chilean subsidiaries, the entire share capital of Transemel, a company with approximately 93 per cent. of its revenues coming from regulated activities, that owns and operates 92 km of electricity transmission lines and 5 substations, located mainly in northern Chile.

On 30 July 2021, Pontegadea Inversiones S.L. acquired from Mazoon B.V. (a subsidiary of OOC), through an over-the-counter transaction, 80,100,000 shares of REN, corresponding to 12.006 per cent. of the share capital of REN. As a result of this acquisition, Pontegadea Inversiones S.L. holds directly 12.006 per cent. of the voting rights in REN and, such voting rights are attributable (imputados) to Mr. Amancio Ortega Gaona.

Recent Developments

As a result of the COVID-19, and more recently with the war in Ukraine, there has been a general worsening of the global climate of uncertainty, with negative effects on the prospects for the world economy evolution and financial markets. REN Group is not immune to this climate and its investment performance may be affected, albeit in a controlled manner, as a result of the significant fluctuations in the cost of energy and raw materials and the increased difficulties concerning logistics, namely with regard to maritime transportation.

REN Group is actively monitoring this situation, has activated all the necessary plans and, although the situation is unpredictable, REN Group, as of the date of this Base Prospectus, does not estimate to have, significant effects on its operability and regulatory duties as a consequence of COVID-19 and the impact of the Russia – Ukraine war. It should be noted that REN Group operates, essentially, in two business areas, electricity and gas, according to concession contracts attributed to the Group. These concession contracts are regulated, which in a certain way minimises the possible immediate impacts of the pandemic and the war. For the information on the risks related to these situations, please see "Risk Factors – Risks related to the energy prices volatility, inflation and potential shortage of commodities and materials".

Although REN Group, as of the date of this Base Prospectus, does not estimate to have, significant effects on its operability and regulatory duties as a consequence of COVID-19 and the impact of the Russia – Ukraine war, a substantial recovery from the consequences of COVID-19 was experienced in 2021 in relation to the delays affecting some wider-scale investment projects, which resulted in a significant increase in investment compared to the values of 2020.

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, there are no significant changes in the long-term expectation of recovery of the Group's investments and financial holdings.

Business Overview

REN engages in two principal lines of business: (i) electricity transmission and system operation where it operates the RNT; and (ii) gas, transport, distribution and technical system operation (including natural gas, gases of renewable origin and low-carbon gases) where it is engaged in the operation of the national high-pressure gas transportation network, reception, storage and regasification of LNG, underground storage of gas and distribution of gas. Gas transportation and distribution networks operated by REN currently carry natural gas. In the future, it is possible REN will also carry natural gas blended with H2 and other gases, within minimum and maximum quotas of incorporation set by ERSE's regulations.

REN holds concession rights to the entire infrastructure operated under public concessions relating to electricity transmission and gas transportation in Portugal until the end of each relevant concession period and also relating to the gas distribution in the coastal region of Northern Portugal.

REN's businesses are the result of the liberalisation of the electricity and natural gas industries in Portugal. This involved, in the case of electricity, the unbundling of certain regulated functions previously carried out by EDP (the vertically integrated electricity company in Portugal) into separate companies. In the case of natural gas, the regulated activities of Transgás (a former subsidiary of GALP Energia, S.A. ("GALP")) were split up under a reorganisation that included, among other things, the segregation of the natural gas regulated infrastructure for transport, underground storage and reception, storage and regasification of LNG.

REN's electricity transmission business is conducted through its subsidiary REN Rede Eléctrica, which holds a concession to operate the electricity transmission network in Portugal (renewed for a 50-year period commencing on 15 June 2007). Pursuant to this concession, REN provides a public utility service in Portugal, which includes planning, constructing, operating and maintaining the electricity transmission network and managing the technical aspects of the national electricity system.

REN's natural gas business comprises the ownership and operation of (i) the high-pressure natural gas transportation network in Portugal; (ii) the LNG terminal in Sines, which is engaged in the reception, storage and regasification of LNG; (iii) the natural gas distribution network in the northern coastal region of Portugal through the acquisition of REN Gás, SGPS, S.A.; and (iv) the underground storage and related facilities in Carriço. REN operates these businesses through 40-year concessions, granted by the Portuguese Republic on 26 September 2006 (and in the case of the acquisition of EDP Gás, SGPS, S.A. on 1 January 2008). REN acquired EDP Gás, SGPS, S.A. and indirectly its subsidiary EDP Gás Distribuição, S.A. (currently named REN Portgás Distribuição, S.A.) from EDP Iberia, S.L.U. on 4 October 2017. EDP Gás, SGPS, S.A. holds the second largest gas distribution network in Portugal. For the year ended 31 December 2021, REN's total operating income, total operating results and net profit were EUR 838.35 million, EUR 218.86 million and EUR 97.15 million, respectively, in comparison to figures of EUR 758.33 million, EUR 228.87 million and EUR 109.25 million, respectively, for the year ended 31 December 2020.

In February 2017, REN acquired a stake of 42.5 per cent. in the share capital of Electrogas, S.A., a Chilean company, through a company with registered office in Chile (Aerio Chile SpA), a wholly owned REN subsidiary. This transaction was an important milestone in REN's internationalisation.

On 1 October 2019, REN's subsidiaries Aerio Chile SpA and Apolo Chile, SpA completed the Transemel Acquisition.

REN also operates certain other businesses that complement its core electricity and natural gas businesses: a telecommunications business through RENTELECOM – Comunicações, S.A. ("RENTELECOM") which markets the excess telecommunications capacity of its electricity and natural gas networks, an energy trading business for the remaining PPA, a business piloting the production of electricity from sea waves through ENONDAS and a business providing engineering and advisory services to third parties through REN Serviços.

In addition, REN holds other strategic stakes, in particular within the implementation of the agreement between the Portuguese Republic and Kingdom of Spain in relation to the incorporation of an Iberian electrical energy market and other relevant stakes.

ESG Objectives

REN's commitment to sustainability goals is demonstrated by its adoption of an ethical and socially responsible management model based on the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact regarding human rights, labour practices, environmental protection and anti-corruption, of which REN is a signatory since 2005. REN created a Sustainability Committee, whose primary objective is the strategic analysis of the progress made towards its commitment to the Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG") objectives, as well as the supervision of the implementation of those objectives and decisions by the Board of Directors of REN.

REN aims to become a leader in ESG development, with a particular focus on four priority areas: promoting internal well-being, stakeholder engagement and satisfaction, environmental protection and governance and ethics.

The selection of these four priority areas resulted from an in-depth analysis by REN of the current trends in the field of ESG and the main themes identified by REN's stakeholders, through regular consultation processes.

The main initiatives developed in each of the four priority areas are:

In 2021, with the presentation of the new strategic plan for the 2021-2024 period, REN reinforced its commitment to sustainability, assuming its central role in the energy transition and defining the goal to be carbon neutral by 2040. REN also reinforced its commitment towards diversity, with the aim of having one-third of the top management positions occupied by women by 2030. Finally, REN is also committed to sustainable financing with a target of 100 per cent. of new bonds issued as Green Bonds.

REN has also continued to invest in the development of a set of initiatives that aim to contribute to sustainable development goals for 2030, in particular, through projects that foster education and innovation, promote the preservation of biodiversity and forests and that are aligned with decarbonisation goals.

ELECTRICITY INDUSTRY

As a consequence of the financial and economic crisis, the global health crisis and the energy efficiency measures put in place by the Portuguese Republic, electricity consumption in Portugal had a negative average annual growth rate in the last decade. According to REN's internal data, in 2021, electricity consumption increased 1.4 per cent. compared to a decrease of 3.0 per cent. in 2020 and 1.1 per cent. in 2019.

Portugal has one of the lowest electricity consumption per capita in the EU. The graph below indicates the final electricity consumption per capita in the EU Countries listed below:

Source: based on Eurostat data for final electricity consumption and population

In 2020, the electricity consumption per capita in Portugal amounted to 4.6 MWh, compared with 4.8 MWh in Spain and 5.5 MWh across all other EU countries. Between 2010 and 2020, the compound annual growth rate of the electricity consumption per capita was -0.4 per cent. in Portugal, -1.1 per cent. in Spain and -0.7 per cent. in the EU countries.

The table below illustrates the growth in annual electricity consumption by source in Portugal between 2012 and 2021:

During this period, the Portuguese system kept the diversification of its energy sources. Gas-fired, hydroelectric and wind power plants remain the main contributors to electricity production and whilst there has been no growth in the installed capacity of natural gas power plants, significant reinforcements have been made to large hydroelectric power plants already in service. Coal-fired generation, in turn, ended in 2021, with the deactivation of the Sines coal-fired power plant in January 2021 and of the Pego coal-fired power plant (that had a PPA managed by REN Trading) in November 2021.

There has been an increase in electricity generation from renewable resources, in particular from wind power (which currently represents a share similar to hydropower). In the last three years the coal fired generation facilities were losing share and they were completely discontinued by the end of 2021. Also, Portugal's 2020 PV auction marked a new era of solar energy battery storage, since bidders could compete for the first time through storage systems, including combinations such as solar PV plus battery. In 2022, Portugal completed the first PV floating auction.

Currently the Portuguese system uses a wide range of primary energy sources and technologies (namely gas, water, waste, wind, biomass and solar). The main electricity generators in Portugal (fossil and hydro resources) are currently EDP – Gestão da Produção de Energia, Turbogás, Endesa Generation and MOVHERA Hidroelétricas do Norte (ENGIE Group). As regards renewable energy generation (other than large hydro), some of the main generators are EDP Renewables, Finerge, Iberwind (Ventient Energy), Trustenergy, Altri, Navigator and Geneng. In addition, depending on the EU electricity market conditions, the national system may export or import through the interconnections with Spain. REN - Rede Eléctrica Nacional operates the national transmission network in mainland Portugal connecting generators and distributors to consumers and matching supply with demand. As of the date of this Base Prospectus, REN is the single national concessionaire of electricity transmission in mainland Portugal.

Electricity transmission and distribution are activities carried out under public service concessions.

E-Redes Distribuição de energia ("E-Redes"), a subsidiary of EDP is, as at the date of this Base Prospectus, the sole high and medium voltage distribution concessionaire in Portugal and the largest low voltage distribution company. It should be noted that concessions for low voltage distribution systems are expiring and that public tenders for awarding the new concessions are foreseen to occur in a near future.

Electricity supply companies are responsible for managing relationships with customers, including billing and customer service.

The current national electricity system

Under the current electricity industry framework, the SEN is divided into eight major activities: generation, storage, self-consumption, transmission, distribution, aggregation and supply, logistics for switching aggregators or suppliers and operation of the organised electricity markets.

Each of these activities has to comply with the unbundling criteria established according to market structure models, as per Directive (EU) 2019/944 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 5 June 2019 on common rules for the internal market for electricity (the "Electricity Directive") and that was transposed by the Portuguese Government Decree-Law no. 15/2022, of 14 January, which sets out the organisation and functioning of the SEN.

Electricity generation and storage

Electricity generation is, as of the date of this Base Prospectus, fully open to competition, subject to only obtaining the mandatory licences and approvals for the implementation of the project and carrying out the activity. For small generating units (up to 1 MW of installed capacity), simple registries and certificates of operation, or prior communications, are required.

Renewable source electricity generators that do not benefit from a guaranteed remuneration (or for which guaranteed remuneration is paid through a contract for differences, as occurs with solar photovoltaic plants licensed according to the 2020 solar auction and the 2022 floating solar auction in the modality of fixed price) sell their electricity in the market, at market prices. Decree-Law no. 15/2022 sets forth the activity of Last Resort Aggregator ("LRA"), which is obliged to purchase all electricity generated in self-consumption excess and generated by power plants benefiting from guaranteed remuneration (the majority of which are renewable energy plants, mostly wind powered, licensed until 2012, when legislation setting feed-in-tariffs was revoked). Also, the LRA is the default purchaser vis-à-vis electricity generated by renewable power plants.

The license for LRA was not issued yet; meanwhile, the Last Resort Supplier ("LRS") shall comply with the existing power purchase agreements concluded under the applicable law at the time. For new generators, the LRS shall purchase self-consumption excess and renewable energy generated by renewable power plants with injection capacity of up to 1 MW; the remaining generators will sell in wholesale market.

The electricity consumption in Portugal in 2021 was mainly provided by renewable sources (including large hydroelectric power plants), which met 59 per cent. of total consumption, according to REN's internal estimates. The remaining demand, about 41 per cent. of the consumption was met mainly by natural gas-fired power plants and imported energy.

Hydroelectric power plants have low operating costs and offer a quick solution when needed; however hydroelectric supply depends greatly on meteorological conditions and therefore fluctuates widely based on the availability and amount of available water storage capacity. As noted, since 2019, the Portuguese Government launched three auctions to award capacity in the grid for PV projects: the first in 2019, with 1150 MW of capacity awarded, the second in 2020, with 670 MVA awarded, and the last one in 2022, specifically designed to award capacity for PV floating projects, with 183 MVA awarded. It is also worth noting the 2022 award of Pego's point of connection, in consequence of the termination of Tejo Energia's PPA.

In 2021, imports of electricity outweighed exports, and the net import balance represented about 9 per cent. of the Portuguese consumption.

The recent Decree-Law no. 15/2022 provides for the legal regime on decentralised production (renewable small generating units, i.e., of installed capacity up to 1 MW) and self-consumption. Self-consumption may be individual (prosumer, be it domestic or industrial) or collective, be done behind-the-metre (through private wires) or through the public grid, and of proximity or remote, the latter being available for electro-intensive industry only. Said diploma also sets forth the regimes for renewable energy communities (CER) and citizens communities for energy (CCE), which are similar to the collective self-consumption one.

Finally, the diploma also provides for the electricity storage regime. Storage may serve as a system service to be provided to the global system manager (REN Eléctrica), against remuneration. In general, storage installations are expected to be owned by generators and self-consumers, although they also may be owned and managed by closed grids operators and, subject to strict requirements and ERSE's favorable opinion, by other system operators, notably the TSO and DSOs.

Electricity transmission

Electricity transmission activities are carried out by REN Rede Eléctrica, a wholly-owned subsidiary of REN, by means of an exclusive concession granted by the Portuguese Republic on 15 June 2007 for a 50-year period. Transmission includes the conveyance of electricity through interconnected very high and high voltage networks. The activities carried out under this concession are described below in greater detail. The TSO of the SEN unbundled from generation, distribution or supply activities in the SEN and in the National Gas System ("SNG"). Strict unbundling criteria between transmission and generation and supply are set forth in the current electricity framework. Further limits regarding the holding of direct or indirect participations in the TSO of the SEN were set by the industry's legal framework.

Electricity distribution

Electricity distribution is carried out through the operation of the national distribution grid, which consists of a medium and high voltage network, and through the operation of the low voltage distribution grids that are municipality concessions. The national distribution network in mainland Portugal (high and medium voltage) is operated through an exclusive public service concession granted by the Portuguese Republic.

The concession for the activity of electricity distribution in high and medium voltage belongs to E-Redes, as a result of the conversion into a concession agreement of the former licence held by this company. E-Redes is also the major low voltage distributor in Portugal, together with a limited number of local low voltage distributors. The low voltage distribution grids continue to be operated under concession agreements granted by the municipalities. As stated above, public tenders for the awarding of new low voltage concessions are set to be launched soon, as current concessions are expiring. The existing concession agreements have been amended to comply with the unbundling criteria set out under the new regime, as applicable and described in more detail in "Regulation".

Distribution activity is unbundled from other activities of the SEN by legal, accounting and decision-making standpoint.

Electricity supply and aggregation

The supply of electricity is open to competition, subject only to obtaining a registration or, in the case of the LRS, a license. Suppliers are free to purchase and supply electricity. For this purpose, they have the right of access to the transmission and distribution grids upon payment of access fees set by the sector's regulator, ERSE. Under the current electricity framework, consumers are free to choose their supplier, and may switch suppliers without incurring any additional charges.

Suppliers are subject to certain commercial service standards in respect of the quality of service and are required to provide access to information in simple and understandable terms.

In addition, the LRS of the SEN, which is subject to regulation set out by ERSE, has been undertaken by SU Eletricidade, S.A. ("SU Eletricidade") to most of mainland Portugal and by a limited number of local low voltage distribution concessionaires. Meanwhile the transitory tariffs are in force, SU Eletricidade is responsible for the supply of consumers in normal low voltage, i.e., with contracted power up to 41,4 kVA, afterwards, it is obliged to supply only all economically vulnerable consumers demanding such supply. Under market conditions, consumers are free to choose their natural gas supplier and are exempt from any payment when switching suppliers. In order to manage the operation of switching suppliers, an independent logistics operator was created in 2017 by Law no. 42/2016 and Decree-Law no. 38/2017. This new entity, the ADENE ("Agência para a Energia"), is independent from other entities in the SEN, in a legal and functional basis, and is subject to ERSE's regulation. The recent Decree-Law no. 15/2022 sets forth that the activity of logistics operator of switching of suppliers (now extended also to aggregators) will be carried out to an entity selected in a competitive tender and to be provided with a license valid for 10 years.

Operation of the organised electricity markets

The Iberian electricity market ("MIBEL"), a joint initiative of the Portuguese and Spanish states, is in operation, being composed of a spot market (day-ahead and intraday transactions), and a forwards market (monthly, trimester and annual transactions) on energy derivatives.

MIBEL is a competitive market of electricity and electricity derivatives. MIBEL has, as at the date of this Base Prospectus, two market operators: OMIE for the spot market, based in Spain and OMIP for the forwards market based in Portugal.

Electricity activities and Tariffs

Electricity tariffs are uniform across mainland Portugal and are set "ex-ante" by ERSE, on an annual basis, based on estimated allowed revenues which typically are based on actual costs or on an efficient cost structure and on the weighted average cost of capital of the regulated companies of the electricity sector (such as SEN's TSO and DSOSs), and quantity forecasts, according to the rules set out in the Tariff Regulation and in other tariff documents approved by ERSE.

On 1 July 2007, with the beginning of the Iberian electricity spot market, the majority of the PPAs were subject to early termination, except for two long-term PPAs, of which one terminated in 2021 and the other will remain effective until 2024.

As a consequence, REN (through the RNT concessionaire, REN Rede Eléctrica) ceased acting as a "single buyer" of electricity and focused on its regulated activities, as follows:

- electricity transmission activity, which ensures:
 - the transmission of electricity through the RNT for delivery to the distributors in medium and high voltage, to the consumers connected to the RNT and to very high voltage networks to which the RNT is connected;

- the planning, design, construction, operation and maintenance of all the RNT infrastructure and of the interconnections to the international networks with which it is connected with the aims of safety, reliability and quality of service; and
- the maintenance of the RNT in mainland Portugal to ensure safety, reliability and quality of service.
- the global use of the system activity, under which REN:
 - manages electricity flows within the network, ensuring interoperability with the networks to which it is connected;
 - contracts services through efficient, transparent and competitive mechanisms for operational reserve of the system and remuneration and compensation of electricity production and consumption deviations;
 - receives from market agents information in relation to both the materialisation of bilateral agreements established and of the quantities traded by each participant in the organised markets;
 - provides users' settlement system services;
 - monitors the security of supply; and
 - pays the global costs as included in the overall system use tariff.

In electricity, REN's regulated activities recover allowed revenues through the application of the transmission grid tariff ("URT") and of the global use of system tariffs ("UGS"). The legislation and the Tariff Regulation of the Electricity Sector establish the allowed revenues applicable to REN, in its role of TSO. Likewise, they set out the level of compensation for the activities carried out by REN Trading as "commercial agent" under the remaining PPA.

The mechanisms to incentivise the efficient optimisation of the management of these agreements may give REN Trading revenues up to an amount of EUR750,000 per year in 2022 and 2023. The remaining contract will end in 2024 (first quarter) and ERSE's proposal for that year is EUR250,000.

On 15 December 2021, ERSE published tariffs and prices for electricity and other services for 2022 and parameters for the 2022-2025 regulatory period.

The efficiency factor defined by ERSE applicable to REN in 2022-2025 is set at 1.5 per cent. for the activities of Global System Management and Energy Transmission. ERSE has also decided to maintain a 0.75 per cent. premium on all assets built before 31 December 2021 that were eligible under the reference cost mechanism.

A new regulatory model is defined with a revenue cap methodology applied to the controllable TOTEX (Total Expenditure, i.e. Capital Expenditure plus Operational Expenditure) of electricity transmission, and additional revenues coming from incentives based on adequate network performance. ERSE introduced two mechanisms:

- Incentive to improve technical performance (IMDT) - Promotion of an adequate network performance. Based on performance metrics (Equivalent interruption time, Network and equipment availability and Interconnection capacity) and ranges between - EUR20m to + EUR20m.
- Efficiency sharing mechanism - a mechanism under which the positive or negative spread from the defined reference return is shared/recovered at the end of the regulatory period with cumulative sharing ratios 0 per cent., 50 per cent. and 100 per cent. as the spread grows.

The key elements of ERSE's proposal for the regulatory period 2022-2025 with an impact on the RoR are presented below.

- The reference RoR was set at 4.40 per cent;

- The RoR is indexed to the arithmetic average of the daily quotation of the Portuguese Republic 10-year Treasury bond yield as reported by the Bank of Portugal;
- The starting point of the index is 0.302 per cent. The value was obtained calculating the arithmetic daily average of the daily 10-year Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield, in the three months ending on 15 November 2021;
- For the purpose of calculation of the RoR of year t, it will be considered the average of the daily quotations of the index from October year t-1 up to September of year t. The average shall be filtered by eliminating 1/12 of the highest quotations and 1/12 of the lowest;
- There is a linear relation between the Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield and the RoR;
- A variation of 1 per cent. of the Portuguese 10YTB implies a variation of 0.3 per cent. in the RoR;
- The minimum RoR is set at 3.7 per cent, based on an average of the Portuguese Republic treasury bond yields of (-) 2.031 per cent;
- The maximum RoR is set at 7.0 per cent., based on an average of the Portuguese Republic treasury bond yields of 8.969 per cent.;

The assets valued at reference costs benefit from a premium of 0.75 per cent.

REN's Electricity Transmission Business

Overview

As mentioned above, the exclusive concession for electricity transmission in mainland Portugal was granted to REN Rede Eléctrica by the Portuguese Republic, under a public service and exclusivity regime, as per the concession agreement entered into on 15 June 2007 for a 50-year period (by its Second Amendment, as of 23 April 2019, the concession also includes a 17 km² marine space in the continental national sea offshore Viana do Castelo). Under Decree-Law No. 15/2022, of 14 January and the concession agreement, the concession assets are owned by REN Rede Eléctrica until the concession reverts to the Portuguese Republic in exchange for the net book value of the assets.

The concession includes the planning, design, construction, operation, maintenance and decommissioning of the RNT and the global technical management of the SEN, to ensure the coordination of electricity generation, distribution and electricity transmission infrastructure, together with the management of the transnational interconnections (such as those with the Spanish transmission grid), to protect the continuity and security of supply and ensure the integrated and efficient operation of the SEN.

As the concessionaire for the RNT, REN Rede Eléctrica is obliged to ensure the security of electricity supply, thereby meeting operational, quality and safety standards established in national and European laws and regulations. ERSE has recently approved a revision of the Quality-of-Service Regulation for the Electricity Sector that seeks to enhance the quality of service provided by agents within the SEN, in which REN Rede Eléctrica plays a role.

REN Rede Eléctrica is a member of the European and Mediterranean associations of Transmission System Operators, the European Network of Transmission System Operators and the Mediterranean Transmission System Operators (respectively "ENTSO-E" and "MED-TSO").

The RNT

The RNT covers Portugal's mainland and approximately 17 km² of the Portuguese sea domain offshore Viana do Castelo. RNT is interconnected with the Spanish transmission grid (managed by Red Eléctrica de España) by means of ten very high voltage circuit lines, including six at 400 kV (connecting Minho and Galicia - two circuits -, Douro International, Tejo International, Alentejo and Estremadura, and also Algarve and Andalusia), three at 220 kV (Douro International) and one at 130 kV (Minho and Galicia).

Interconnection capacity depends on a variety of factors related to the real operation conditions of the network. The average interconnection capacity, between Portugal and Spain for commercial purposes in 2021 was approximately 3,000 and 3,750 MW (exporting and importing average capacity). This interconnection capacity is expected to grow further when the planned new 400kV interconnection line between the regions of Minho (Portugal) and Galicia (Spain) enters into operation.

As of 31 December 2021, RNT had in service 9,348 km of circuit lines, of which 3,051 km of 400 kV, 3,848 km of 220kV and 2,449 km of 150 kV power lines, and a total transformation capacity of 39,221 MVA, of which 14,920 MVA is auto-transformation (connecting RNT different voltage levels).

The very high voltage grid is based on 400 kV lines running in a north-south direction near the coast, from the Alto Lindoso power plant in the north of Portugal, to the Tavira substation in the south. Starting from this axis, the other 400 kV lines run from west to east into Spain: the Alto Lindoso-Cartelle double circuit interconnection; the diagonally spanning branch from Paraimo (close to the Anadia municipality, approximately 30 km inland) connecting Vermoim (Porto) to Armamar via Recarei and from Armamar to Spain through the Lagoaça-Aldeadavila interconnection; the lines from Rio Maior and Batalha entering Spain through the Falagueira-Cedillo interconnection; the line from Sines entering Spain through the Alqueva-Brovaes interconnection; and the line from Portimão entering Spain through the Tavira-P.Guzmán interconnection. Besides this 400kV transmission network structure, RNT includes a 220kV voltage level with a meshed set of overhead and underground lines, mainly between Lisbon and Porto, and diagonally from Pereiros (close to the city of Coimbra) to the Miranda hydro power plant (close to the municipality of Miranda do Douro). The 150kV grid is geographically distributed through scattered centres interconnected with the 220 and 400kV network levels, providing further coverage to the very high voltage grid, in the North-Northeast (as of 2019, including the first very high voltage submarine cable in Portugal, installed offshore Viana do Castelo), as well as in a small area in central mainland Portugal and in the South supporting Setúbal, Alentejo and Algarve regions.

In 2021, several projects were completed, aiming to reinforce the supply to the national distribution grid, to create connections to new renewable power plants, and also to assure operation security and reliability of the RNT and the global electrical system. In the Minho region, the 400kV overhead line (OHL) link between Pedralva and Vila Nova de Famalicão substations was completed, as well as the construction of Viana do Castelo switching station, which enables the full conditions for the reception of renewable energy from an oceanic source or a location offshore of Viana do Castelo. Also in the North, the first phase of integration of the hydro power plants of Tâmega river basin (foreseen to reach 1,158 MW) has been completed, with the entry in operation of the Ribeira de Pena substation through the new 400 kV OHL, connecting to the Vieira do Minho switching station. In the interior Beira region, the 400 kV Falagueira – Fundão OHL and the Fundão substation (400/220 kV/kV) were concluded, and also a set of 220 kV OHL modifications in the vicinity of this new substation. In the Alentejo region, the construction of two new 400 kV substations, namely Divor (close to the city of Évora) and Pegões (near the city of Montijo), and also a new 400 kV Divor – Pegões OHL, in conjunction with the integration of two existing 400 kV OHL that have been previously operated at different voltage levels, allowed the completion of the Falagueira – Estremoz – Divor – Pegões 400 kV axis. The connection of new solar photovoltaic and wind farms was made available through a set of new very high voltage bays at several voltage levels in existing substations. In addition, several replacement and modernisation projects in existing assets were also concluded.

As of 31 December 2021, RNT had 87 stations (70 transformer substations and 17 switching and sectioning stations). These substations and switching stations connect the different parts of RNT and provide the entry and exit points at which the power plants, distributors and some large consumers, as well as international interconnections, are connected to RNT.

The majority of RNT primary equipment has an average estimated useful lifespan of between 30 and 40 years as of the date of the commencement of their operation. The expansion of the RNT started during the early 1950s and has been subject to a continuous process of monitoring, regular maintenance, expansion upgrading and reinforcement, including the systematic upgrading of all of REN's oldest transmission lines.

In 2021, REN's electricity sector average RAB (Regulatory Asset Base) was composed of an electricity average RAB with a premium rate of EUR 1,040 million, an electricity average RAB without premium rate of EUR 973 million and hydroelectric power plants land average assets of EUR 206 million.

The following graph shows the evolution of REN's electricity average RAB in the period 2012 to 2021:

Quality of service of the national transmission network

During the course of 2021, REN recorded one service interruption exceeding three minutes. The average interruption time ("AIT"), the overall performance indicator of service continuity, was 0.05 minutes. This interruption occurred at Alcochete substation, with a duration of 6.6 minutes, corresponding to an energy not supplied of 4.7 MWh.

Despite this fact, the quality of technical service provided — understood as being security and continuity of supply of electrical power with the necessary technical characteristics — achieved adequate levels with a global positive performance.

Power Quality

RNT has a monitoring system to evaluate the power quality, under which the measurement of several voltage parameters, such as harmonic content, flicker, three-phase system imbalance, voltage and frequency deviations, covering all the delivery points, is performed and analysed under the Quality of Service Regulation. In 2021, the monitoring of voltage waveform quality continued at delivery and interconnection points. The measurements carried out continued to show results that, with a limited number of exceptions in individual and localised cases, match the figures recommended in the quality of service regulations.

Significant Dependencies

REN depends on the regulatory environment in which it acts, particularly on concession agreements and on the applicable legislative and regulatory framework. Investments in REN's electricity transmission network in 2021, amounted to EUR 181.1 million in electricity transmission infrastructure, as compared to EUR 126.2 million 2020.

In 2021, the following significant investments were made:

- In the Minho region, the 400kV overhead line (OHL) link between the Pedralva and Vila Nova de Famalicão substations was completed, as well as the construction of the Viana do Castelo switching station;
- In the North, the first phase of integration of the hydroelectric plants of the Tâmega basin (1,158 MW) has been completed, with the entry in operation of the Ribeira de Pena substation through the new 400kV double circuit OHL, connecting to the Vieira do Minho switching station;
- In the interior Beira region, the 400kV Falagueira – Fundão OHL and the Fundão substation (400/220 kV/kV) were concluded, and also a set of 220 kV OHL modifications in the vicinity of this new substation;

- In the Alentejo region, the construction of two new 400kV substations - Divor (close to the city of Évora) and Pegões (near the city of Montijo) – and also a new 400 kV Divor – Pegões OHL, in conjunction with the integration of two existing 400 kV OHL that have been previously operated at different voltage levels, allowed the completion of the Falagueira – Estremoz – Divor – Pegões axis;
- Modernisation/uprating of Riba d'Ave – Recarei 2 at 400kV, Porto Alto – Palmela 1 and Bouçã – Zêzere 1 at 150 kV, Carregado - Fanhões 2 at 220 kV, overhead lines; and
- New 400/2020 kV transformer in Fundão, new 400/60 kV transformer in Estremoz and Divor and new 220/60 kV transformers in Carregado and Valdigem substations.

New bays for connecting photovoltaic power plants in the:

- Santarém (220kV), Falagueira (150kV) and Alqueva (60kV) substations;
- Refurbishment of protection and control systems in Vila Chã, Alto de Mira and Estói substations.

Update and expansion of the RNT

REN Rede Eléctrica aims to upgrade, modernise and expand the RNT in response to concession contract requirements, ensuring that the transmission grid conditions meet the continuous balance between production and demand, while accounting for its dynamics and safety of people and reliability of the assets. The following are the main drivers for its current expansion and modernisation plans for the RNT:

- increasing transmission capacity in pace with evolution in electricity consumption: Despite the uncertain international economic situation and the reduction of national demand in the past years, REN believes that long-term growth in electricity consumption in Portugal will recover. Nonetheless, demand varies greatly across the entire transmission grid, and whilst total annual demand may have decreased in past years, the load has increased in several specific geographic areas and its patterns have changed, in some cases requiring reinforcement of the transmission grid and specific projects to support the distribution grid. One may also note that in 2021 the peak load has reached its historical maximum, which, together with the above mentioned factor will require development in the RNT transmission capacity, new reactive power management systems, new direct connections to final consumers at Very High Voltage ("VHV") levels and the establishment of new substations.
- facilitating connections to new power plants.: The EU and national goals for renewable energy lead to the integration of a growing number of new generators using renewable sources, especially the endogenous ones, which have a rather dispersed geographical distribution, demanding new transmissions grid axis to be developed. Installed electricity production capacity from renewable sources in Portugal mainland is expected to increase from approximately 14,685 MW in 2021 (of which approximately 7222 MW of hydro, approximately 55369 MW of wind and approximately 1,400 MW of solar), according to REN's internal estimates, to about 27,500 MW by 2030 (source: Plano Nacional Energia Clima 2030 approved by Resolution of the Council of Ministers No.53/2020, of 10 July). Installed solar capacity should significantly increase considering current power producer promoters' initiatives, namely through the government grid capacity auctions held in 2019, 2020 and 2021, as well as the requests for connection via the agreement with the relevant grid operator modality. Furthermore, the newly entered into force legislation of the electricity sector further expands the RNT concession territory scope to the national sea and sets a new role for REN Rede Eléctrica for the implementation and management of offshore infrastructures connecting marine power plants to the mainland public service network.
- preparation of the required infrastructure framework and systems that will be needed to respond to changes in the national and European power grid driven by new national laws, the EU energy policies and grid codes: One of the main goals will be the development of conditions to match supply-side volatility inherent to some renewable energy, with demand-side flexibility, as well as for the new grid planning and operation rules and methodologies yet to be regulated, according to the new electricity energy sector legal regime entered into force on January 2022.
- increasing interconnection capacity with the Spanish transmission grid, aiming for an integrated Iberian market with fewer constraints and ultimately, an integrated European market for electricity: As at the date of this Base Prospectus, REN Rede Eléctrica is planning to put into operation one further 400kV interconnection with Spain. According to REN's internal estimates, this new interconnection is expected to assure a commercial interconnection compliant to the agreement between Portugal and Spain, and to the conclusions of the European Councils regarding the ratio of interconnection capacity to the installed electricity generation capacity.

- refurbishment of obsolete end-of-life assets, namely full bulk transmission grid substations, a set of overhead power lines and substation VHV/HV apparatus, power transformers and protection and automation systems in order to assure adequate quality of supply indexes and to achieve operational efficiency.
- improving the current social and environmental impact of the existing network, namely in the metropolitan areas of Lisbon and Porto, in order to achieve better integration of electrical infrastructure in consolidated urban areas and non-urban zones as in UNESCO protected areas, although its realisation still requires further decisions by the authorities.

Global technical management of the SEN

In addition to managing the construction and operation of the RNT, REN Rede Eléctrica is also the system operator of the SEN.

In Portugal, this role involves the technical validation of the market scheduling on a daily basis in order to ensure the balance between supply and demand. The system operator has to verify if all the power flows remain within safe operational limits and control the RNT and the available system services in real time so as to correct any dynamic imbalances. As part of system management, REN Rede Eléctrica is also responsible for controlling the scheduling of imports and exports from and to Spain as defined by the market, and it manages, together with with Red Eléctrica de España ("REE"), the mechanisms to cope with interconnection congestions.

GAS INDUSTRY

Industry Overview

The first supplies of natural gas to Portugal arrived in January 1997 from Algeria through Morocco via the Europe–Maghreb pipeline. As a result, Portugal was one of the latest EU Member States to receive natural gas with its gas market being one of the newest in the EU. This is reflected in the regulatory framework, which places no emphasis on pre-existing competition.

The natural gas industry demand in Portugal was of 63.8 TWh of energy in 2021 and can be divided into two main market segments:

- combined cycle power plants, under an ordinary regime, and
- the conventional market segment, which comprises large industrial consumers connected directly to the high-pressure network and customers from the industrial, services and residential sectors connected through the regional distribution networks.

The supply of natural gas to large combined cycle natural gas-fired electricity power plants was approximately 22.3 TWh (about 35 per cent. of the market) in 2021, according to REN's internal estimates. Natural gas demand for this segment varies from year to year depending on the availability of other generating sources, particularly hydroelectric power, and is also influenced by the international price of coal vis-à-vis natural gas, carbon pricing on the Emissions Trading Scheme ("EU-ETS") and taxes applied on fuels, as these costs impact the competitiveness of coal-fired power generation.

In 2021, natural gas used in the conventional market segment comprised approximately 41.5 TWh, representing about 65 per cent. of the total demand.

Source: REN

The development of electricity generation using natural gas combined cycle gas turbine power plants ("CCGT") is of particular importance to the demand for natural gas. This technology consists of utilising natural gas combustion in a gas turbine cycle combined with a "Rankine" cycle, which uses the steam produced by heat of the exhaust gases of the gas turbine to generate additional electricity in the steam turbine. These two processes are complementary and enable high efficiency levels to be reached as energy is extracted from the fuel in two stages, expanding the potential of both cycles. Electricity generation using CCGT is therefore both efficient and has minimal environmental impact. It is the main technology used for large-scale electricity generation projects currently being implemented in developed countries due to its low initial costs, high efficiency and low carbon dioxide emissions as compared to other fuels.

The role of CCGT power plants in the country's electricity supply mix has changed rapidly over recent years. On the one hand the utilisation of the CCGTs has increased with the reduction in the use of coal-fired power plants, on the other hand it has become a secure back-up for periods of unavailability of renewable sources due to drought or lack of wind. The CCGTs are also valued for their ability to quickly respond and provide the ancillary system needs of the power grid. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, they represent around 30 to 40 per cent. of Portugal's demand for gas, according to REN's internal estimates.

The domestic use of natural gas (conventional market) has grown as the gas distribution companies connect more users to the distribution grids, particularly in newly developed urban areas, although this has started to stabilise in recent years.

As is the case for many European countries, Portugal is not a producer of natural gas. Natural gas is purchased from other countries essentially pursuant to long-term supply contracts. Natural gas is fed into Portugal through three entry points in the National Gas Transmission Network ("NGTN") (Rede Nacional de Transporte de Gás) ("RNTG"), two of which are pipeline interconnections with Spain (the Campo Maior and Valença do Minho entry points), and a third is a LNG terminal located at Sines, which receives shipments of LNG from methane tankers and regasifies the natural gas so that it is injected in the RNTG. Recently, interconnections with Spain have been also used to export gas unloaded at the LNG terminal.

The national gas system ("SNG" Sistema Nacional de Gás)

With regard to SNG activities, REN is an unbundled TSO, global system manager ("SO"), underground storage operator and LNG terminal operator and, therefore, an independent provider of third party access to the gas network, from a legal, functional and financial point of view. Assets operated by REN and its role as grid operator and system manager are essential for the implementation of a true gas market in the Iberian Peninsula, as stated by both the Spanish and Portuguese governments in the creation of the "MIBGÁS" (the Iberian Gas Market).

The SNG, as approved by Decree- Law no. 62/2020, of 28 August, is divided into nine major activities: reception, storage, regasification of LNG; underground storage of gas; production of gases of renewable origin; production of low-carbon gases; transportation of gas; distribution of gas; supply of gas, including last resort supply; gas market operation and gas supplier switching logistic operator. As with electricity, each of these functions must be operated under the EU unbundling criteria where applicable, as transposed into Portuguese legislation. Decree-Law no. 62/2020 promoted a deep revision of the SNG, allowing the incorporation into the natural gas transport and distribution grids not only of natural gas, but also of renewable gases (such as H₂) or low-carbon gases.

In much the same manner as the national electricity system, an integrated SNG has been established, in which the supply of natural gas and management of the organised markets are open to competition, subject to obtaining the required applicable licenses and authorisations.

Activities relating to the reception, storage and regasification of LNG and the transportation and underground storage of gas are carried out under a 40-year period public service concessions granted by the Portuguese Republic and are subject to the public service regime pursuant to the Portuguese legal framework applicable to organisation and functioning of the national gas system, approved by Decree-Law no 62/2020, 28 August, which replaced Decree-Law No 30/2006, 15 February, and Decree-Law No. 140/2006, of 26 July (as subsequently amended). REN's gas activities are identified below in greater detail.

These concessions incorporate the Portuguese high pressure gas infrastructure and provide third party access at regulated tariffs applicable to all market agents, that so request including renewable and low-carbon gas producers, wholesale and retail suppliers and consumers that acquire natural gas directly in the wholesale market. Tariffs must be applied objectively without discrimination to all system users, without prejudice to entering into any long-term supply contracts in compliance with competition law provisions.

REN's regulated activities are remunerated through five tariffs related to the use of the infrastructure:

- the tariff for the use of the reception, storage and regasification terminal, applied to its users by REN Atlântico as the LNG terminal operator, which should provide the allowed revenues for the activity of reception, storage and regasification of LNG;
- the tariff for the use of underground storage is applied by REN Armazenagem (who is the sole owner of the Carriço underground storage facilities since May 2015) as operator of the underground storage facilities, which shall provide the allowed revenues for this activity;
- the global system use tariff is applied by the gas transmission grid TSO (REN Gasodutos) to all gas supplied to distribution grid operators, licensed operators, privately-owned LNG client plants (autonomous gas units or "UAGs"), and clients directly connected to the transmission grid. This tariff provides the allowed revenues for the activity of global technical management of the national gas sector;
- the tariff for the use of the transmission network is applied by the grid's TSO to all gas input into the network at all connecting points and international deliveries, as well as high pressure and LNG deliveries to the distribution networks, deliveries of client-owned UAGs, and backflow deliveries to the LNG reception, storage and regasification terminal and, ultimately, to international interconnections. This tariff provides the allowed revenue for the gas TSO transmission activity; and
- the tariff for the use of the distribution network is applied by the grid's DSOs to all supply companies who will charge it to end users (clients). This tariff provides the allowed revenue for the gas DSO. DSOs will charge all the SNG's tariffs to supply companies keeping the distribution tariff and passing through all the other components to the TSO.

Production of Gas

Production of gases from renewable origin and of low-carbon gases is subject to prior registration of the generator before DGE, which is only granted to legal persons that demonstrate technical capacity to perform this activity.

Producers of renewable origin gases or low-carbon gases are entitled to (i) total or partially inject the gases produced into the network; (ii) self-consumption; and (iii) exportation. These producers are entitled to sell all or part of the gas generated to the Last Resort Supplier, by means of bilateral contracts or in organised markets.

Reception, storage and regasification of LNG

In the Sines terminal, LNG is offloaded from LNG tankers and sent to storage tanks at a low temperature, where it remains until a nomination or programmed gas flow is requested by the respective gas owner to the terminal operator. LNG undergoes regasification prior to being injected in the high-pressure RNTG. The Sines terminal also has the appropriate facilities to fill up cryogenic LNG tanker trucks which supply satellite autonomous regasification units.

Underground storage of natural gas

Natural gas can be stored for future use. Underground storage in Portugal involves natural gas compression and injection into underground salt gas caverns, where the compressed gas is stored until it is reintroduced into the RNTG upon user request. These types of caverns have a high deliverability to stored volume ratio and allow for a quick response to market requirements. This provides increased flexibility and storage capacity for users to manage their trade business.

Transportation of natural gas

Natural gas is transported through various high-pressure gas pipelines forming the RNTG, which is connected to the high-pressure Spanish network located upstream and supplies gas through regulation and metering stations to high-pressure customers and delivers it to medium-pressure networks operated by distribution companies. Then these networks supply gas to end users connected to lower pressure levels in the distribution network, including those in the services and residential sectors.

REN Gasodutos, as the operator of the RNTG, is certified, by decision of ERSE of 31 July 2015, as complying with the requirement of full ownership unbundling.

Distribution of natural gas

The distribution of natural gas through medium and low-pressure pipelines is carried out through concessions or licences granted by the Portuguese Republic by public tender. The entities operating the natural gas distribution grid at the date of enactment of Decree-Law No. 30/2006, of 15 February, recently replaced by Decree-Law No 62/2020, of 28 August, have maintained their right to operate the natural gas distribution grid as concessionaires or licensed entities under an exclusive public service regime with territorial delimitation. In order to further develop the renewable gas markets this Decree-Law has transformed the natural gas networks into a wider concept: a gas network for natural gas and other compatible gases, such as hydrogen and bio methane. Third party access to the gas distribution network must be ensured by the relevant concessionaires based on published tariffs applicable to all eligible customers, that request access, as well as to supply companies, and applied objectively without discrimination among system users. From now on companies are allowed to accept other gases from suppliers.

Certain local distributors also carry out regasification in cryogenic facilities with limited capacity, the UAGs. In this context, LNG is transported by truck and delivered in those UAGs to supply customers who are not connected to the national natural gas transmission network.

Following the acquisition of REN Portgás, the natural gas segment of REN also includes the distribution of gas in the northern coastal region of Portugal.

Supply of natural gas

The natural gas supply activity is open to competition and is subject to a prior registration regime.

The liberalisation of the natural gas supply began in 2007 (with respect to power plants) and was extended to consumers of over one million cubic metres of natural gas per year in 2008, and to consumers of over ten thousand cubic metres of natural gas per year in 2009. Since 1 January 2010, every consumer is free to choose his own natural gas supplier in an open market environment.

As is the case with electricity, the regulated tariffs published by ERSE regarding the gas sector are set annually by the ERSE directives.

Gas suppliers are subject to certain public service obligations and are required to ensure the quality and continuous supply of natural gas. In addition, the role of the "Last Resort Supplier" has been created and will be in place until the liberalised market is fully efficient. This new role has been assumed by a wholly-owned subsidiary of GALP for wholesale and large clients and by all other present concessionaires or licensed natural gas distributors within their area of coverage for retail customers, subject to licensing requirements.

Under market conditions, consumers are free to choose their natural gas supplier and are exempt from any payment when switching suppliers. In order to manage the operation of switching suppliers, an independent logistics operator was created in 2017 by Law no. 42/2016 and Decree-Law no. 38/2017. This new entity, the ADENE ("Agência para a Energia"), is independent from other entities in the SNG, in a legal and functional basis, and is subject to ERSE's regulation. Before this new legal regime was established, ERSE had determined that the process for switching operators was to be managed and carried out by the concessionaire of the transport business (REN Gasodutos). The transition between the old system and the new has been concluded. The recent Decree-Law no. 15/2022 sets forth that the activity of logistics operator of switching of suppliers will be subject to a licensing procedure for 10-year rights. Said license will be awarded in a competitive tender.

At the end of 2021, the total number of registered customers amounted to 1.5 million, with more than 85 per cent. of the national total on a free market basis. In terms of consumption, in December 2021, the corresponding value in the free market amounted to 97.8 per cent. of the total demand in Portugal.

Operation of the natural gas markets

The natural gas markets in Portugal are operated on an open market basis, subject to authorisations to be jointly granted by the Minister of Finance and by the Minister responsible for the Energy sector.

The entity managing the organised market is also subject to authorisation granted by the Minister responsible for the energy sector and, whenever required by law, the Minister of Finance.

In 2015, following several initiatives which were ratified in jointly succeeding summits of the Portuguese and Spanish governments, a stable framework was put in place to allow the participants in gas systems from both Portugal and Spain to carry on their activities across the Iberian Peninsula. The Spanish Government, by approving Ley 8/2015, of 21 May, of the Spanish Government ("Ley 8/2015"), constituted and appointed the operator of the organised market – the company MIBGAS.

MIBGAS is authorised to work as the management entity of the organised natural gas market in Portugal by means of Order No. 643/2015, of 21 August, from the Office of State Secretary of the Energy sector ("Portaria No. 643/2015") and ERSE's Directives nos. 18/2016, of 28 September, and 20/2016, of 9 December. This order stipulates that the constitution, organisation, functioning and regulation of the organised natural gas market is subject to specific regulation to be approved by the member of the Government responsible of the Energy sector, by Direção Geral de Energia e Geologia or by Entidade Reguladora dos Serviços Energéticos according to the respective powers.

The global participation of the share capital of MIBGAS, S.A. held by Portuguese and Spanish natural gas system operators is 20 per cent. of the total share capital. The Spanish and Portuguese system operators hold, 2/3 and 1/3 of that 20 per cent. stake, respectively.

REN's Gas Business

REN is the concessionaire of the RNTG for 40 years (until 2046), when, according to the concession agreement, REN will have the right to receive the net book value of the assets covered by the concession. REN acquired the assets associated with its natural gas activities and the Sines LNG terminal operator company in 2006 with the restructuring of the natural gas business.

In 2006, the natural gas business was restructured: reception, storage and regasification of LNG, underground storage of natural gas and natural gas transport are now carried out by three entities fully owned by REN under three different concessions:

- as mentioned above, REN Gasodutos is the concessionaire for transportation of natural gas through its high pressure grid. This concession also includes the technical global management of the SNG and the coordination of the natural gas distribution and natural gas transmission infrastructure, in order to ensure the continuity and security requirements of supply, the integrated and efficient operation and development of the SNG;
- REN Atlântico is the concessionaire for the reception, storage and regasification of LNG at Sines LNG terminal;
- REN Armazenagem is the concessionaire for the underground storage of gas in Carriço, in the municipality of Pombal; and

In May 2015 the partial transfer of a natural gas underground storage concession from GALP in Carriço, Pombal, to REN Armazenagem was completed. The partial transmission integrates two existing cavities, the rights to build two new cavities and other rights and obligations associated with these assets.

As a result of this operation, the relationship between the users and the infrastructure operator for gas storage is now simplified to the extent that the management and publication of existing and operating storage capacity is unified into a single entity, also providing the benefit of a direct business relationship, thus meeting a goal that sector's authorities have always sought to implement.

In 2017 REN acquired REN Portgás, which has a concession for gas distribution in the northern coastal region of Portugal (including Porto). The agreements for these four concessions between the Portuguese State and the respective concessionaires were entered into on 26 September 2006 (in the case of the transmission of gas; reception storage and regasification of LNG and underground storage of gas) and on 1 January 2008 (in the case of the REN Portgás' gas concession), all of them for a period of 40 years.

The RNTG concession includes the transportation of high pressure natural gas through the network, including:

- the reception, transportation and delivery of natural gas through the network;
- the construction, operation and maintenance of the RNTG infrastructure, its connections to networks and the premises necessary for such operation;
- the planning, development, expansion and technical management of the RNTG;
- the operation and maintenance of the connections between the RNTG and the international natural gas pipelines, underground storage infrastructure and LNG terminals;
- the infrastructure planning of the national LNG reception, storage and regasification facilities;
- global technical management of the SNG; and
- the monitoring of natural gas safety strategic security reserves.

The RNTG consists of high pressure pipelines totaling 1,375 kilometres, which is divided into eight route sections, with pipes ranging from a nominal size of 150 mm to 800 mm in diameter, of which more than half are 700 mm in diameter. In 2021, the RNTG transported 68.3 TWh of natural gas, including the total gas injection into the underground storage system. The RNTG includes 203 pipeline stations, which consist of 45 block valve stations, 66 junction stations for branched derivation, 5 T-branch connection stations, 85 gas regulating and metering stations, and 2 custody transfer stations. The RNTG's main dispatching centre is located in Bucelas (Loures) and it also has a redundant emergency dispatching centre in Pombal, which functions as a standby for the first centre and is located in a different seismic zone to the main dispatching centre. Operation and maintenance field activities are carried out by technical staff of REN Gasodutos distributed by the territory and supported by operational centres located at Ermesinde (Valongo), Pombal, Bucelas (Loures) and Portalegre. As the construction of the RNTG only started in 1994, it is one of the newest grids in Europe and accordingly incorporates the latest technology, including cathodic corrosion protection, double-block-and-bleed ball valves, a supervisory control and data acquisition system, a transmission system simulator with a built-in leak detection system, and a redundant telecommunications system.

At the time of the first injection of natural gas in January 1997, the RNTG had a total length of 649 kilometres. As of 31 December 2021, its total length was of 1,375 kilometres.

In 2021, REN's high-pressure gas transportation activity provided a very good service level, with all performance indicators within the limits set out in the Quality of Service Regulations published by ERSE. Regarding the level of supply interruptions, there were no interruptions during 2021.

As for the indicator on cumulative frequency of incidents with gas leakage affecting the transmission network (calculated per 1,000 km of exposed infrastructure, per year, and for a moving period covering the past 5 years) this was 0.29 in 2021, taking into account the length and the total operating time of the various pipeline sections commissioned since 1997. This refers to 2 external interferences in the transmission network and compares with the equivalent indicator of the European Gas Pipeline Incident Data Group ("EGIG"), of 0.126 in 2019 (this indicator is calculated for all transmission operators adhering to the EGIG initiative, including REN Gasodutos).

Reception, storage and regasification of LNG

REN operates the reception, storage and regasification concession for LNG, which is subject to the public service regime. This concession involves the reception, storage, regasification and delivery of LNG to the RNTG. REN Atlântico, under the terms of the concession, also performs the activities of loading and dispatching tanker trucks, marine tankers and also the construction, operation, maintenance and expansion of its own infrastructure.

The Sines LNG terminal entered the first phase of its commercial operation in January 2004. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the LNG terminal consists a jetty suitable for docking methane carriers with capacities ranging from 40,000 cubic metres up to 216,000 cubic metres of LNG, with an average unloading time of 19 hours for a 140,000 cubic metres LNG shipment and the three storage tanks, two of which with a capacity of 120,000 cubic metres each, and the third tank with a capacity of 150,000 cubic metres. The LNG terminal has a guaranteed nominal send out capacity of natural gas into the RNTG of 1,125,000 normal cubic metres per hour, equivalent to 7.6 billion cubic metres per year (considering a load factor of 0.77), with a peak technical send out capacity of 1,350,000 normal cubic metres per hour, and is able to load tanker trucks at 175m³/h rate.

Underground storage of natural gas

REN operates an underground storage site, comprising (as of the date of this Base Prospectus) of six caverns in operation, with a maximum technical working volume of 3.97 TWh of natural gas, as a result of the conclusion in 2015 of the acquisition of two caverns that were previously the property of Transgás Armazenagem. Since May 2015 REN is the sole owner of the Carriço underground storage facilities. Subject to the Portuguese Republic's authorisation, REN has the right to build and acquire additional natural gas caverns for the expansion of the system. REN Armazenagem holds these rights. REN Armazenagem's underground storage concession includes:

- the injection of gas from the RNTG, the underground storage of natural gas in the gas caverns and the withdrawal, treatment and delivery of natural gas to the RNTG; and
- the construction, operation, maintenance and expansion of the facilities and infrastructure related to the natural gas storage.

The gas caverns are constructed by leaching salt out of existing salt formations at a depth of more than 1,000 metres. Fresh or salt water is pumped through a well lined with concentric steel piping for in-depth saturation which dissolves the salt in a controlled manner over time, gradually creating a cavern as the salt is dissolved (the resulting brine is removed via the same well). Typically, eight cubic metres of fresh water are required for each cubic metre of dissolved salt. The cavern undergoes a leakage test after the leaching phase and an inner pipe string is lowered into the cavern to remove as much brine as possible. Finally, a subsurface safety valve is installed at a depth of approximately 50 metres in order to prevent unintentional gas release out of the cavern.

REN Portgás operates a natural gas distribution network with 5,545Km and 395,353 connection points, by 2021, under a public concession regime granted by the Portuguese State until December 2047. The framework under which REN Portgás works is fully regulated, consisting of a return on regulated assets. These assets are built under an approval of a five year investment plan.

Currently, REN Portgás' distribution activity covers 28 municipalities within its concession area, with only the connection to Paredes de Coura municipality still pending.

The density of consumers connected to REN Portgás distribution networks currently stands at 80 consumption points per km of network.

REN owns a number of enterprise, technical, commercial and financial systems that allow a full control over the activity from client commercial prospects, to network construction and third party access billing to supply companies. In 2021 REN Portgás distributed over 7,572 GWh of energy.

Control systems

As mentioned above, REN's natural gas infrastructure was recently constructed using the latest technology. It is monitored by modern systems employing fibre-optic based telecommunication technology connecting the remote stations in the pipeline to the dispatch centres of the infrastructure, as well as the LNG terminal in Sines and the underground storage facilities in Carriço (Pombal).

REN Gasodutos and REN Portgás rely on the Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition ("SCADA") system and onsite maintenance teams to keep the pipelines, the remote stations and connection points secure. The SCADA system, which has available redundancy, allows for early problem diagnosis and quick response to any malfunctions. The onsite maintenance teams regularly inspect the corridor along which the pipeline stretches and the existing stations that ensure its compliance with safety requirements, minimising the risk of interference with, or damage to, the infrastructure. Data is electronically collected, reducing the margin for human error, and recorded both on the remote terminal units in the stations and centrally, on the SCADA database, allowing analyses to be conducted at a later stage on equipment performance to detect malfunction trends and to anticipate problems. REN Atlântico and REN Armazenagem have both developed automated monitoring and control systems specific to their facilities (namely distributed control systems). For example, the truck loading bay at the LNG terminal of REN Atlântico is fully automated.

Technical global management of SNG

The technical global management of the SNG involves the systematic coordination of the functioning and usage of the different infrastructure of the National Transmission Network, Storage, Infrastructure and Terminals (Rede Nacional de Transporte, Infraestruturas de Armazenamento e Terminais) ("RNTIAT") to ensure free and non-discriminatory access to the infrastructure, as well as the monitoring capacity, planning capacities and the management of the SNG in order to avoid the occurrence of gas flow restrictions and to ensure the reliable performance of the infrastructure.

As technical manager of the system of the SNG, REN Gasodutos is responsible for overseeing the third party access process to the gas infrastructure in its different cycles, including managing the nominating process and gas metering for each user, with the view to promoting an efficient and cost-effective use of the network.

From a technical perspective, REN Gasodutos must ensure that the pipelines have enough capacity to meet user demand by managing the varying pressures and flows in order to maintain the responsiveness and availability of the network and managing the balance between inflows and outflows of gas on the RNTG. In addition, REN is also responsible for monitoring the compliance of participants operating in the SNG with legal and operational obligations in relation to the security of supply.

Investments in natural gas infrastructure

In 2021, REN invested a total value of EUR 29.5 million in the natural gas infrastructures (excluding distribution infrastructures), compared with a total value of EUR 11.9 million invested in 2020. In the first six months of 2020, the most significant investments consisted of refurbishment and substitution of equipment.

In the distribution business, REN Portgás invested over EUR 26 million in the year 2021 in networks, connection points and information systems, all comprised in the current PDIRG. The regulated asset base reached EUR 476.8 million growing 0.1 per cent. year-on-year.

In 2021, REN continued the execution of the PDIRGN. This plan, which includes projects in development and expansion, as well as projects of refurbishment and modernisation of the infrastructures, represented in 2021 an investment EUR 29.5 million in natural gas.

The most significant investments of 2021 were the following:

- In REN Gasodutos: Efficiency improvement of Heating Systems in Pego, Carregado and Lares stations; replacement of flow computers at the end of working life; inspection by smart tool (pig) of seven gas pipelines to verify the integrity of infrastructure; purchase and installation of Ultrasonic Measuring Systems for Navigator (DP12208); adaptation or remodeling of equipment and systems at different stations.
- REN Armazenagem: Adaptation and/or upgrade of different equipment and systems; extension of the Armed Fire Network (RIA).
- REN Atlântico: Rehabilitation of the outfall tunnel to eliminate sea water; reconditioning of seven high and low pressure LNG Cryogenic Pumps; rehabilitation of REN Atlântico's seawater filtration system; upgrade of equipment and systems at the end of working life; anti-corrosion protection of guardrails and equipment to ensure system integrity.

With regard to the IT infrastructure supporting system management and in response to the need to comply with changes in national and European regulations, as well as in relation to the IT efficiency and security of the respective processes, REN Gasodutos made several investments, including the following:

- Development and automation of the processes inherent to market operation and system management, resulting from the application of the Procedures Manual of the Global Technical Management (MPGTG), as well as the automation of interface processes inherent to the operation of the Organised Market in Portugal (MIBGÁS); and
- Introduction of cybersecurity improvements in the IT systems, processes and architecture of the SCADA and the Third Party Access Platform to improve the security of the business IT processes and respective data.

Incorporation of renewable and low-carbon gases into the natural gas network may require investments to be made in REN's network and infrastructure to allow H2 and other gases to be blended with natural gas. Decree-Law no. 30-A/2022, of 18 April established minimum incorporation quotas for certain gas suppliers of 1 per cent. of biomethane or H2. On the other hand, for security reasons, Orders no. 806-B/2022 and no. 806-C/2022 were published on 19 January 2022, approving the new regulations of the national gas distribution and transmission network and defined maximum incorporation quotas. For the gas transport network, the maximum incorporation quota of hydrogen is set at 5 per cent. until 2025, and between 10 per cent. and 15 per cent. in volume, until 2030.

Tariffs

The regulatory gas year for tariff purposes starts on 1 October of each year and ends on 30 September of the following year. The tariffs are reviewed annually. The regulatory system allows for the use of gas infrastructure by market agents holding a valid infrastructure access contract. Different tariff arrangements may apply, but they are all defined and published by the regulator. The settlement of physical or contractual congestion is accomplished through auctions. Tariffs are set ex-ante and deviations are corrected ex-post, as general rule up to two years after the year in question.

In January 2020, a new four-year regulatory period started, which will last until the end of 2023. Incentive regulation applies to the operating costs of all activities, excluding expenditure, which cannot be controlled by the company. The efficiency targets to apply to opex vary between 2 per cent. and 3 per cent. per year.

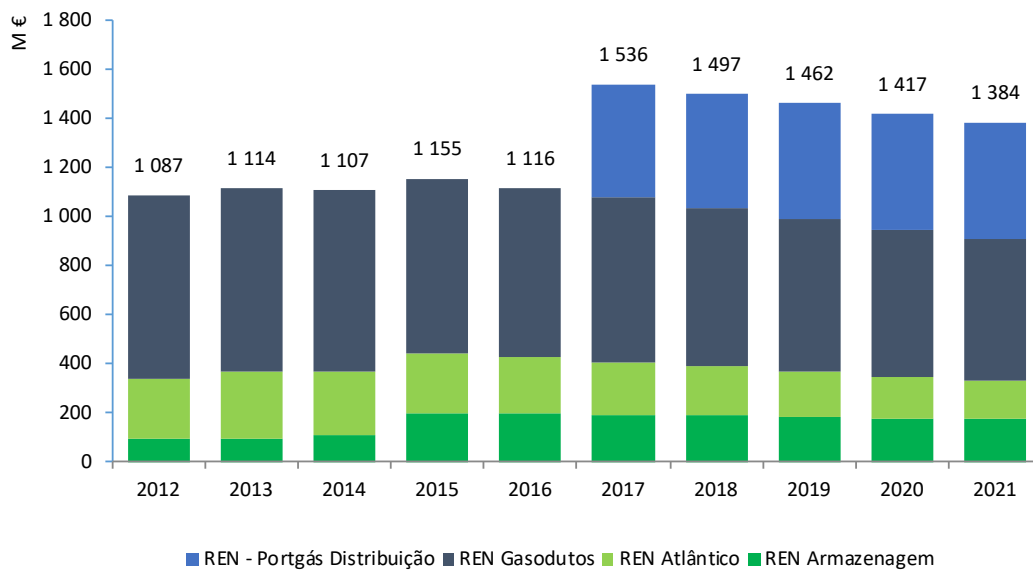

The RoR is indexed to the 10-year Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield. The starting point of the index is 2.70 per cent. and the reference RoR was set at 5.2 per cent. in the case of REN Portgás and 5.0 per cent. for the remaining activities.

There is a linear relation between the Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield and the RoR. A variation of 1 per cent. in the RoR is based on a variation in the Portuguese Republic treasury bond yield of 2.5 per cent.

Limits to the remuneration rate for the period 2020-2023 between 4.7 per cent. and 9.0 per cent. have been implemented in the case of REN Portgás and 4.5 per cent and 8.8 per cent. for the remaining activities.

In general, the allowed revenues for a given fiscal year are calculated by adding the forecasted allowed operational costs to the remuneration of the RAB, net of accumulated regulatory depreciations and subsidies, at a previously approved rate of return, plus the depreciations of the regulated asset for the year, net of subsidies. The relevant RAB for the year is the average of the RAB values at the beginning and end of that year.

The following graph shows the evolution of REN's natural gas average RAB in the period 2012 to 2021:

OTHER BUSINESSES

Guarantees of Origin

Decree-Law no. 141/2010, of 31 December 2010 laid down the method for calculation of the quotas of energy generated through renewable power sources and addressed the origin guarantee mechanism for the first time. This remains as the main legal basis of the instrument (articles 9 et. seq.), having been changed over time (in 2013, 2015 and 2018). Ten years have passed since the first law was enacted in Portugal providing for a mechanism of issuing and management of origin guarantees – certificates which provide evidence to customers of the origin of green electricity or combined generation of heat and power.

The opening of such a market in Portugal is a long-awaited step, a move which had already been made by some European peers (e.g., Poland, Belgium and Sweden). In the beginning of 2020, it was announced that things are set to change in Portugal: the "green light" was given through the Order no. 53/2020, of 28 February 2020, which was enacted and is in force since 1 March 2020.

The mentioned Order sets out the fees to be charged by the Issuing Body for Guarantees of Origin (EEXO - Entidade Emissora de Garantias de Origem), a role which in mainland Portugal is assumed by REN – Redes Energéticas Nacionais, subject to supervision by ENSE (Entidade Nacional para o Setor Energético).

The services that are to be charged include registration in the platform, issuance, transfer and cancellation of the certificates, as well as supervision and auditing.

Recently, the regime of guarantees of origin was extended to the renewable gases, through Decree-Law no. 60/2020, of 17 August. This will require the update of the manual of procedures of issuance of guarantees of origin to renewable gases and may require investment in adapting the relevant software.

The start-up process of the guarantees of origin issuance and trading platform is taking place gradually, with the phase of accession to the EEGO's system by the electricity producers and other participants, for the issue of Guarantees of Origin and corresponding cancellation and transfer operations, starting at the beginning of March 2020. The import/export operations have started in 1 September 2020.

The recent Decree-Law no. 15/2022 sets forth that the EEGO function will be subject to a licensing procedure for 10-year rights. Said license will be awarded in a competitive tender, which may determine REN ceasing its current role as EEGO.

Telecommunications

REN established RENTELECOM in 2002 as a wholly-owned subsidiary to manage the commercial exploitation of the surplus capacity available on the telecommunications safety network. RENTELECOM focuses on providing telecommunications carrier services within the public telecommunications grid as a licensed operator. In 2006, that capacity was increased with the integration of the fiber optic network of the national natural gas transportation grid.

RENTELECOM revenues, which are external to the Group, have grown from EUR 1.9 million in 2004 to EUR 7.7 million in 2021.

Management of the PPAs

In connection with the phasing out of the PPAs, the Portuguese Republic has stipulated that PPAs not terminated when the single buyer was abolished would be managed by REN Trading, incorporated by REN in July 2007, until the expiration of their respective terms.

REN Trading was incorporated to manage the two remaining PPAs, one entered into with Tejo Energia, in relation to the 600 MW coal fired power plant in Pego terminated in November 2021, and the other with Turbogás, in relation to the 990 MW natural gas combined cycle power plant in Tapada do Outeiro with a termination date in 2024.

As the PPA is an agreement which determines the remuneration of the generator, the benefits or losses of implementing the agreement's terms are transferred to the system. REN Trading works, therefore, as an intermediary, aiming to minimise costs and to maximise the revenues from selling energy on the market. In the regulated part of this business, the benefits obtained through this activity are stipulated by ERSE in its Directive No. 2/2021, of 19 January.

In 2021, the regulated revenues, which correspond to an incentive framework based on the performance targets defined by ERSE, are limited to a maximum of EUR 2.5 million.

In 2021, REN Trading obtained incentives of EUR 1.0 million from ERSE in connection with the two PPAs.

ENONDAS

ENONDAS was created in 2010 and a concession was granted to REN by the Portuguese Republic in the same year. ENONDAS is a public service company, holding a 45-year pilot area concession to support the development of energy production from the ocean waves, manage the marine area between Figueira da Foz and Nazaré, and promote the necessary infrastructure for the development of marine energy.

Consultancy and Commercial Services

REN also provides technical engineering consulting services to third parties, both domestic and international, leveraging on the Group's technical expertise and track record in the electricity and natural gas sectors.

In 2021, REN's consultancy and commercial services, provided through REN's subsidiary REN Pro, reached EUR 0.3 million.

International operations

Electrogas (Chile)

On 7 February 2017, REN entered the gas transportation market in Chile with the acquisition of a 42.5 per cent. stake in the share capital of Electrogas S.A. for U.S.$180 million. The remaining shareholders of Electrogas are Colbun S.A. (42.5 per cent.) and Empresa Nacional del Petróleo (ENAP), which is totally held by the Chilean State (15 per cent.). The relationship between the parties is governed through a shareholders' agreement. REN financed the acquisition with commercial paper fully backed by available long-term credit lines. Electrogas' natural gas transportation system links Santiago de Chile with the LNG Terminal of Quintero and electricity power plants and refineries in the region of Quillota.

Transemel (Chile)

On 1 October 2019, REN acquired 100 per cent. of Empresa de Transmisión Eléctrica Transemel S.A. ("Transemel"), for U.S.$167 million. The acquisition was financed solely with debt.

Founded in 1999, Transemel operates 14 lines (92 Km) and 5 substations (985 MVAs). Approximately 90 per cent. of its revenues are regulated, under perpetual concessions with no demand / price risk. The remaining revenues derive from bilateral PPA contracts.

Both transactions are in line with REN's strategic plan, which is based on a conservative growth strategy, favouring projects in the sectors in which the company has a vast experience, and in markets with economic stability and predictable regulatory frameworks.

Electricity Derivatives Trading Platform

In 2003, REN established OMIP, the Portuguese market operator for the exchange of Iberian electricity derivatives, following the approval of the Despacho No. 12596/2003 of the Ministry of Economy. As referenced above, the Portuguese and the Spanish governments have joined OMIP and OMIE, the Spanish branch of MIBEL, and have established limitations on the share capital of OMIP. REN currently holds a 45 per cent. stake in OMIP and intends to reduce its holding to an equivalent 10 per cent. stake, in line with what has been established by the Portuguese and Spanish governments.

OMIClear, a company now owned by OMIP and OMIE, 50 per cent. each, is the clearing agent and central counterpart for operations in the forwards electricity market.

EMPLOYEES

As of 31 December 2021, the number of employees were 701, an increase of 0.57 per cent, in comparison to 697 in 2020.

	As at 31 December

In 2021, approximately 30.1 per cent. of REN's employees were employed in REN's electricity business, 19.8 per cent. were employed in REN's natural gas transmission business, 9.9 per cent. in natural gas distribution (REN Portgás), and 40.2 per cent. were employed for other activities. 60.4 per cent. of those employees are employed in the greater Lisbon region, 31.2 per cent. in the northern and central regions, 7.1 per cent. in the southern region. The following table sets forth the percentage of RENs employees employed in each geographical area as of the dates indicated:

Total	100.0	100.0	100.0	100.0	100.0	100.0

Considering all the businesses, it was expected at the end of 2021 that approximately 14 per cent. of the employees of REN will retire during the next five years and that this number will increase to 22 per cent during the next 10 years.

In relation to the nature of employment contracts, 99.4 per cent. of REN's employees had a permanent employment contract in December 2021. 67.9 per cent of the employees have a high level of education. 98.4 per cent of REN's employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement ("CBA"). The CBA, entered into by all the unions that represent REN's employees, has been effective since 1 February 2015 and covers all the businesses with exception for REN Portgás. This business is covered by the CBA of the former owner that remains in force.

Management believes that REN maintains good relationships with the workers committee, which meets regularly with the Executive Committee. Meetings are also held with unions, either through REN's initiative or upon the request of the unions.

Considering all the businesses, the unions represent 35.7 per cent of REN's employees as at 31 December 2021.

ENVIRONMENTAL

REN regularly reviews the environmental impact of its business and seeks to minimise the environmental consequences of its activities by promoting the rational use of natural resources, preventing pollution and supporting the development of renewable energy sources. In fulfilling its mission of providing a public service in the Portuguese energy sector, the Board of Directors of REN considers that the creation of value for shareholders and society cannot be dissociated from real environmental protection.

REN's environmental actions include a continuous monitoring of compliance with current environmental laws, the identification and minimisation of environmental impact and setting environmental improvement goals. REN's work to protect the environment is integrated with other areas of social corporate responsibility such as the occupational health and safety components of quality and safety management, and the prevention of serious accidents. As a corollary of work in these areas, the scope of the quality, environment and safety certification of the REN management systems (which included REN – Rede Eléctrica Nacional and REN Serviços) was extended to REN Gasodutos and REN Atlântico in May 2009 and to REN Armazenagem and RENTELECOM in December 2009 and to ENONDAS and REN – State Grid, S.A. Energy Investigation Centre (Centro de Investigação em Energia REN – State Grid, S.A., "R&D Nester") in December 2014.

REN participates in multiple energy associations at the national and international level that focus on issues relevant to the energy sector, including several international groups specifically focused on climate change. REN is also subject to legal compliance at both national and European levels in matters related to climate change, specifically in regard to use of fluorinated greenhouse gases in its high-voltage switchgears and refrigeration gases used in the refrigeration and fire extinguishing systems at several of its facilities. In response, REN introduced stricter technical specifications on new equipment and services ordered and set an internal maintenance policy for its high-voltage equipment to reduce sulphur hexafluoride leakage. REN is also subject to the EU-ETS as a result of its participation in REN Trading. REN Trading is responsible for the purchase of EUAs (European Union Allowances) equivalent to the annual emissions of both power plants until the termination of the PPAs.

In 2015, in conjunction with the Foundation for Science and Technology ("FCT") and the University of Porto, REN created a Chair in Biodiversity to be lectured at the University of Porto. The partnership between REN, FCT and the Biodiversity and Genetic Resource Research Centre at the University of Porto reflects the commitment of these three organisations to this area.

The Chair, initially established for three years, was based on three pillars: monitoring, minimising and offsetting impact; population ecology; and citizen science. The first pillar was to conduct research into the assessment, monitoring, minimising and offsetting of impacts by power transmission networks on biodiversity, particularly with regard to power lines. The second was dedicated to the analysis of demographic responses of species subject to unnatural death and help define the circumstances in which significant effort should be made to minimise or offset, and where to direct such efforts. Finally, the third pillar focused on projects for Citizen Science, an internationally growing trend but with reduced visibility in Portugal with the double aim of raising awareness among citizens of the importance of science through their involvement in specific initiatives while also allowing relatively simple but useful data to be collected.

The Chair has since been extended for a further two-year period with a redefinition of the previous pillars to allow the consolidation of the basic scientific information and ecological research, with the introduction of a new pillar to establish the transferral of knowledge back to REN and other TSOs, as well as identify key thematic areas for technological development.

In essence, over the five-year period, the REN Chair in Biodiversity has and will enable the systematisation and dissemination of work already carried out combined with the development of new scientific and technological research with the following main goals:

- Identifying impacts on biodiversity;
- Assessing risks and implementing minimising measures;
- Promoting activities with positive impacts; and
- Integrating biodiversity into REN's activities and supporting nature conservation.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT ("R&D")

In a sector such as the Energy sector where the Group operates, company activities require specific alignment with current needs, trends and concerns in their respective fields (gas and electricity) and R&D and Innovation are seen as strategic aspects. Against such a background, the research centre, R&D Nester takes on special relevance. This initiative demonstrates that REN and its respective shareholders are aware of the need to innovate to overcome current challenges in the sector, investing in the creation of knowledge and in specific areas of applied research aligned with national and international energy policies, more specifically in relation to the promotion of clean energy, which is now a European Commission investment priority.

REN and R&D NESTER continue to be active in establishing protocols and partnerships with numerous entities in the national scientific system, sector associations, industry and other stakeholders. More specifically with: ISEL (Instituto Superior de Engenharia de Lisboa), INESC-TEC (Instituto de Engenharia de Sistemas e Computadores, Tecnologia e Ciência), LABLEC (Estudos, Desenvolvimentos e Actividades Laboratoriais, S.A), LNEG (Laboratório Nacional de Energia e Geologia), University of Coimbra and IST (Instituto Superior Tecnico) for the development of projects, as well as representation at entities such as COTEC (Associação Empresarial para a Inovação), UN CTNC (United Nations – Climate and Technology Center and Network) and the BLUE INVEST COMMUNITY, APREN (Associação Portuguesa de Energias Renováveis), CCILC (Câmara de Comércio e Indústria Luso-Chinesa), and IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers).

The Group also actively participates in international working groups, including: CIGRÉ (Conseil International des Grands Réseaux Électriques), CTCN (Climate Technology Centre and Network), EERA (European Energy Research Alliance), ETIP-SNET (European Technology & Innovation Platforms), ENTSO-E (European Network Transport System Operators – Electricity, Research, Development and Innovation RDI Committee), IEC (International Electrotechnical Commission) and BRIDGE (European Commission initiative, which unites Horizon 2020 Smart Grid, Energy Storage, Islands, and Digitalisation Projects).

Investment in R&D at the REN Group for the period from 2018 to 2020 was around two million euros, maintaining the trend of recent years. In the same period, the R&D Centre (R&D NESTER) invested more than four million euros.

In relation to Projects Portfolio, and aware of the challenges regarding energy and digital transition, R&D Nester and REN keep active a vast portfolio of Research, Development and Innovation projects with diverse typologies, dimension and objectives, which understand the needs of the sector and is in line with the European strategic priority of decarbonisation of the economy.

In this context, the ongoing projects cover various areas of research such as Network Planning, Flexibility, and Storage, Forecasting the production of renewables, TSO/DSO Cooperation, Digitalisation, Markets and Data Analytics.

A significant number of these projects are under R&D funding programmes, of which R&D Nester and REN are beneficiaries; in particular, the European programme Horizon 2020 and the national programme Portugal 2020.

Recognition of project results by the technical-scientific community is evident in more than 10 Publications (articles/papers) in scientific journals and conferences recognised in the sector (e.g. IEEE and CIGRÉ). A special note for the fact that last year the Innovation Radar (EC organisation with the aim of identifying and disseminating the results of the most innovative European projects) highlighted the work done by R&D Nester in one of the Projects in which it participates.

R&D Nester continued to invest in a laboratorial facility equipped with real-time power simulation and testing capabilities. Since 2017, that R&D Nester's laboratory has been mentioned on the list of the European Commission's publication – 'Smart Grid Laboratories Inventory'.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS

The main material contracts to which REN is a party are described below:

Electricity transmission and global management of the system

The concession for the use of the National Electricity Transmission Network ("RNT") was initially granted to REN Rede Eléctrica, pursuant to Decree-law no. 182/95 of 27 July (Article 64), for the purpose of managing the public electricity supply system, using the RNT, as well as developing the necessary infrastructure.

This initial concession agreement was amended and replaced by the amended concession agreement entered into between REN Rede Eléctrica and the Portuguese State on 15 June 2007 (as amended on 21 February 2012, and 23 April 2018) for a period of 50 years from the date of its execution, under the terms of Decree-law no. 172/2006, of 23 August, as subsequently amended.

The scope of this concession agreement consists of the following activities: (i) establishment and operation of the RNT, ensuring the transmission of electricity, and (ii) the global system management.

REN Rede Eléctrica may carry out other activities, directly or through subsidiary companies, when so authorised by the Portuguese Republic, if in the best interest of the concession or its clients.

The concession of the electricity transmission activity is carried out in accordance to a public service concession regime and exclusively through the operation of the RNT.

Except when required to finance the activity under concession and, even in that case, subject to certain conditions, the encumbrance or transfer of the shares representing the share capital of the concessionaire requires the prior authorisation from the Government member overseeing the energy sector, which lacking, any such encumbrance or transfer will be deemed as null and void.

REN Rede Eléctrica must maintain the good operating performance, maintenance and security of the assets and related means during the concession period, carrying out all repairs, renovations and adaptations necessary to maintain the assets in the required technical conditions. Pursuant to the concession agreement and to the relevant legal framework, the concessionaire must maintain financing adequate to the development of the concession activities, whilst simultaneously maintaining, at the end of each year, a financial autonomy ratio above 20 per cent.

REN Rede Eléctrica has the right to operate the concession's assets until termination of the concession. The assets may only be used for the purposes of the concession.

Termination of the concession involves transfer to the Portuguese State of the concession assets and the related rights and obligations. The concession can be terminated by agreement between the parties, early termination, redemption or expiry of its term.

The concession agreement may be terminated early by the Portuguese State whenever any of the following events occur and have a significant impact on the concession activities, including but not limited to: deviation from the scope of the concession or suspension of the concession activity; repeated opposition to the grantor's supervision and breach of the grantor's resolutions, or violation of applicable laws and regulations; refusal to make necessary repairs or perform maintenance on the concession assets, or to make necessary expansions to the network; applicability of tariffs higher than those set by the sector's regulatory authority; and non-authorised transfer of the concession or subconcession. In this case, the termination shall entail the gratuitous transfer of all the concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, without the concessionaire benefiting from any right to compensation. The concessionaire will further lose the security it rendered to guarantee contractual compliance, all without prejudice to the Portuguese State being indemnified for losses suffered, as per general law.

REN Rede Eléctrica may also terminate the concession early on the grounds of a serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the carrying out of the concession activity. Such a termination by the concessionaire entails the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor, but the concessionaire retains the right to receive compensation for losses it incurs, including for the amount of its investments and loss of profits.

The grantor may redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, at any time after ten years from the date of the beginning of the concession term. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall take into account the book value of the reverting assets as at the relevant redemption date, as well as loss of profits. On the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, the concession assets and the related rights and obligations shall revert to the Portuguese State in accordance with the contractual terms, which include compensation to REN Rede Eléctrica corresponding to the net book value of the assets covered by the concession.

Transportation of gas and global system management

The concession for the use of the RNTG was granted to REN Gasodutos by the Portuguese State via a concession agreement dated 26 September 2006 (as amended on 21 February 2012), for a period of 40 years from its execution date, under the Portuguese legal framework applicable to organisation and functioning of the national gas system, approved by Decree-Law No 62/2020, 28 August, which replaced Decree-Law No 30/2006, 15 February, and Decree-Law No. 140/2006, of 26 July.

This concession contract governs the management of the SNG, the operation of the high pressure RNTG and the development of its necessary related infrastructure, all under the public service regime.

The scope of the concession agreement of REN Gasodutos comprises the following activities: (i) global management of the SNG; and (ii) operation of the RNTG, by ensuring the reception, transportation and supply of natural gas in high pressure, among others.

Except when required to finance the activity under concession, and even in that case, it being subject to certain conditions, the encumbrance or transfer of the shares representing the share capital of the concessionaire requires the prior authorisation of the Government member overseeing the energy sector, in default of which any such encumbrance or transfer will be deemed as null and void.

REN Gasodutos has the right to operate the concession's assets until its termination. The assets may only be used for the purposes of the concession.

Pursuant to the concession agreement and to the relevant legal framework, the concessionaire must maintain adequate financing for the concession activities, whilst simultaneously maintaining, at the end of each year, a financial autonomy ratio above 20 per cent.

Termination of the concession involves transfer to the Portuguese State of the concession assets and the related rights and obligations. The concession can be terminated by agreement between the parties, early termination, redemption or expiry of the term.

The concession agreement may be terminated early by the Portuguese State whenever any of the following events occur and have a significant impact on the concession activities, including, but not limited to: deviation from the scope of the concession or suspension of the concession activity; repeated opposition to the grantor's supervision and breach of the grantor's resolutions, or violation of applicable laws and regulations; refusal to make necessary repairs or perform maintenance on the concession assets, or to make necessary expansions to the grid; refusal or inability of REN Gasodutos to resume the concession after sequestration of the same or maintenance of the events which originally gave rise to it; applicability of tariffs higher than those set by the sector's regulatory authority; non-authorized transfer or encumbrance of the concession; and refusal to timely restore the security provided by way of guarantee of the concessionaire's obligations. In this case, the termination shall entail the gratuitous transfer of all the concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, without the concessionaire benefiting from any right to compensation. The concessionaire will further lose the security it had rendered to guarantee contractual compliance, all without prejudice to the Portuguese State being indemnified for losses suffered, as per general law.

REN Gasodutos may also terminate the concession early on the grounds of a serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the carrying out of the concession activity. Such a termination by the concessionaire entails the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor, but the concessionaire retains the right to receive compensation for losses it incurs, including for the amount of its investments and loss of profits.

The Portuguese State may redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, at any time after 15 years from the date of the beginning of the concession term. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall take into account the book value of the reverting assets as at the relevant redemption date, as well as loss of profits.

Thus, on the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, REN Gasodutos' concession assets and the related rights and obligations revert to the Portuguese Republic in accordance with the contractual terms, which include compensation to REN Gasodutos corresponding to the net book value of the assets covered by the concession.

If, upon termination of the concession, it is not renewed or the new entity responsible for the concession has not yet been chosen, the concession agreement can be extended for a maximum period of one year, under the public services regime or any other legal form of public agreement.

Reception, storage and regasification of natural gas

The concession of the reception, storage and regasification of LNG (in a LNG terminal) was granted to REN Atlântico by the Portuguese State via a concession agreement dated 26 September 2006 (as amended on 21 February 2012), for a period of 40 years from its execution date, under the Portuguese legal framework applicable to organisation and functioning of the national gas system, approved by Decree-Law No 62/2020, 28 August, which replaced Decree-Law No 30/2006, 15 February, and Decree-Law No. 140/2006, of 26 July. The main scope of this agreement covers the performance of the following activities under the public service regime: (i) reception, storage, treatment and regasification of LNG; (ii) injection of high pressure natural gas into the RNTG or its loading and dispatch by trucks specific for such purpose or by methane tankers; (iii) the construction, operation, exploration, maintenance and expansion of the LNG terminal infrastructure (buildings, tanks, gas pipelines, etc.)

Except when required to finance the activity under concession and, even in that case, it being subject to certain conditions, the encumbrance or transfer of the shares representing the share capital of the concessionaire requires the prior authorisation of the Government member overseeing the energy sector, in default of which any such encumbrance or transfer will be deemed as null and void.

The concession agreement is modelled to reflect investment, operating and maintenance costs related to the assets covered by the concession in the tariffs applicable to the concessionaire. Pursuant to the concession agreement and to the relevant legal framework, the concessionaire must maintain adequate financing for the development of the concession activities and, at the end of each year, a financial autonomy ratio of over 20 per cent.

REN Atlântico must maintain the good operating performance, maintenance and security of the assets and related means during the concession period, carrying out all repairs, renovations and adaptations necessary to maintain the assets in the required technical conditions.

REN Atlântico has the right to operate the concession's assets until termination of the concession. The assets may only be used for the purposes of the concession.

Termination of the concession involves transfer to the Portuguese State of the assets and the related rights and obligations. The concession can be terminated by agreement between the parties, early termination, redemption or expiry of the term.

The concession contract may be terminated early by the Portuguese State if any of the following events of serious breach of REN Atlântico's contractual obligations – if not remedied or impossible to remedy – occur, including but not limited to: deviation from the scope of the concession or unjustified suspension or interruption of the concession activity; repeated opposition to the grantor's supervision and breach of the grantor's resolutions, or violation of applicable laws and regulations; refusal to make necessary repairs or perform maintenance on the concession assets; refusal or inability of REN Atlântico to resume the concession after sequestration of the same or maintenance of the events which originally gave rise to it; applicability of tariffs higher than those set by the sector's regulatory authority; non-authorized transfer or encumbrance of the concession; and refusal to timely restore the security provided by way of guarantee of the concessionaire's obligations. In this case, the termination shall entail the gratuitous transfer of all of the concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, without the concessionaire benefiting from any right to compensation. The concessionaire will further lose the security it had rendered to guarantee contractual compliance, all without prejudice to the Portuguese State being indemnified for losses suffered, as per general law.

REN Atlântico may also terminate the concession early on the grounds of a serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the carrying out of the concession activity. Such a termination by the concessionaire entails the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor, but the concessionaire retains the right to receive compensation for losses it incurs, including for the amount of its investments and loss of profits.

The Portuguese State may redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, at any time after 15 years from the date of the beginning of the concession term. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall take into account the book value of the reverting assets as at the relevant redemption date, as well as loss of profits.

On the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, the concession assets and the related rights and obligations revert to the Portuguese Republic in accordance with the contractual terms, which include compensation to REN Atlântico corresponding to the net book value of the assets covered by the concession.

If, upon termination of the concession, this latter is not renewed or the new entity responsible for the concession has not yet been chosen, the concession agreement can be extended for a maximum period of one year, under the public service regime or any other legal form of public agreement.

Furthermore, on 30 October 2000, a concession contract for private use was executed between REN Atlântico and the Administração do Porto de Sines, S.A., which grants the former the private use of a plot of land in the public domain of the Portuguese State (and of the Administração do Porto de Sines, S.A.) for construction of the LNG Sines terminal. The duration of this private use concession is linked to the duration of the gas public service concession. Upon expiry of the concession, the works executed on the land and the fixed installations of the terminal shall revert to the Portuguese State.

Underground storage of natural gas

The concession of the underground storage was granted to REN Armazenagem by the Portuguese State by means of a concession agreement dated 26 September 2006 (as amended on 21 February 2012), for a period of 40 years from its execution date, under the Portuguese legal framework applicable to organisation and functioning of the national gas system, approved by Decree-Law No 62/2020, 28 August, which replaced Decree-Law No 30/2006, 15 February, and Decree-Law No. 140/2006, of 26 July. The main scope of this agreement covers the performance of the following activities under the public service regime: (i) reception, injection, underground storage, extraction, treatment and delivery of natural gas, so as to create or maintain natural gas security reserves or for delivery to the RNTG; and (ii) construction, operation, use, maintenance and expansion of the underground storage tanks.

Except when required to finance the activity under concession and, even in that case, subject to certain conditions, the encumbrance or transfer of the shares representing the share capital of the concessionaire requires the prior authorisation of the Portuguese government member responsible for the energy sector, in default of which any such encumbrance or transfer will be deemed as null and void.

The concession agreement is modelled to reflect investment, operating and maintenance costs related to the assets covered by the concession in the tariffs applicable to the concessionaire. Pursuant to the concession agreement and to the relevant legal framework, the concessionaire must maintain adequate financing for the purpose of development of the concession activities, as well as a financial autonomy ratio of 20 per cent. at the end of each year.

REN Armazenagem must maintain the good operating performance, maintenance and security of the assets and related networks during the concession period, carrying out all repairs, renovations and adaptations necessary to maintain the assets in the required technical condition.

REN Armazenagem has the right to operate the concession's assets until termination of the concession. The assets may only be used for the purposes of the concession.

Termination of the concession involves transfer to the Portuguese State of the assets and the related rights and obligations. The concession can be terminated by agreement between the parties, early termination, redemption or expiry of the term.

The concession agreement may be terminated early by the Portuguese State in case any of the following events of serious breach – not remedied or impossible to remedy – of REN Armazenagem's contractual obligations, namely, but without limitation, is verified: deviation from the scope of the concession or suspension of the concession activity; reiterated opposition to the supervision and breach of the resolutions of the grantor or violation of laws or applicable regulations; refusal to entail repairs and maintenance to the concession infrastructure or to execute the respective necessary amplifications; refusal or impossibility for REN Armazenagem to resume the concession after sequestration of the same or maintenance of the events which originally gave rise to it; applicability of tariffs higher than the ones determined by the sector's regulatory authority; non-authorized transfer or encumbrance of the concession; and refusal of the concessionaire to timely reinforce the security provided by way of guarantee of compliance with its obligations. In this case, the termination shall implicate the gratuitous transfer of all the concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, without the concessionaire having the right to receive any indemnity. The concessionaire further loses the security rendered by way of guarantee of compliance with the agreement, all without prejudice to the Portuguese State being indemnified for losses suffered, as per general law.

REN Armazenagem may also terminate the concession early on the grounds of a serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the continued operation of the concession activity. Such a termination by the concessionaire entails the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor, but the concessionaire retains the right to receive compensation for losses it incurs, including the amount of its investments and loss of profits.

The grantor may redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, at any time after 15 years from the date of the beginning of the concession term. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall take into account the book value of the reverting assets as at the relevant redemption date, as well as possible loss of profits.

On the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, the concession assets and the related rights and obligations revert to the Portuguese State in accordance with the terms of the agreement, which includes compensation to REN Armazenagem corresponding to the net book value of the assets covered by the concession.

If, upon termination of the concession, it is not renewed or the new entity responsible for the concession has not yet been chosen, the concession agreement can be extended for a maximum period of one year, under the public service regime or any other legal form of public agreement.

Distribution of Natural Gas

REN Portgás entered into a concession agreement for distribution of gas. The agreement was executed in 2008 for a period of 40 years (until 1 January 2048). The scope of the concession agreement includes all the obligations assumed by REN Portgás in relation to the distribution of gas within the concession area and covering 29 municipalities in the northern coastal region of Portugal, in the districts of Porto, Braga and Viana do Castelo.

The concession was firstly granted in 1993, through a public tender, and was novated through a new concession contract signed in 2008, as mentioned, following the liberalisation of the natural gas sector and the unbundling of distribution and supply activities. The distribution of gas through medium and low-pressure pipelines is carried out through concessions or licences granted by the Portuguese Republic by public tender.

The main scope of this agreement covers the performance of the following activities under the public service regime: construction, operation, use, maintenance and expansion of the distribution network.

The concession agreement is modelled to reflect investment, operating and maintenance costs related to the assets covered by the concession in the tariffs applicable to the concessionaire. Pursuant to the concession agreement and to the relevant legal framework, the concessionaire must maintain adequate financing for the purpose of development of the concession activities, as well as a financial autonomy ratio of 20 per cent. at the end of each year.

The concession agreement set out the criteria for the remuneration of the concessionaire for the first five regulatory periods and for the periods following this latter. Once the five regulatory periods lapse, the remuneration rates for the remaining periods of the concession may be reviewed by ERSE. In order to review such rates, ERSE shall consider the remuneration of other reference assets (namely the assets allocated to the activities of electricity distribution or high-pressure transport of natural gas) determining the applicable remuneration.

REN Portgás must maintain the good operating performance, maintenance and security of the assets and related networks during the concession period, carrying out all repairs, renovations and adaptations necessary to maintain the assets in the required technical condition.

REN Portgás has the right to operate the concession's assets until termination of the concession (1 January 2048). The assets may only be used for the purposes of the concession.

Third party access to the gas distribution network must be ensured by REN Portgás based on published tariffs applicable to all eligible customers, that request access, as well as to supply companies, and applied objectively without discrimination among system users.

Termination of the concession involves transfer to the Portuguese State of the concession assets and the related rights and obligations. The concession can be terminated by agreement between the parties, early termination, redemption or expiry of the term.

The concession agreement may be terminated early by the Portuguese State whenever any of the following events occur and have a significant impact on the concession activities, including, but not limited to: deviation from the scope of the concession or suspension of the concession activity; repeated opposition to the grantor's supervision and breach of the grantor's resolutions, or violation of applicable laws and regulations; refusal to make necessary repairs or perform maintenance on the concession assets, or to make necessary expansions to the grid; refusal or inability of REN Portgás to resume the concession after sequestration of the same or maintenance of the events which originally gave rise to it; applicability of tariffs higher than those set by the sector's regulatory authority; non-authorised transfer or encumbrance of the concession; and refusal to timely restore the security provided by way of guarantee of the concessionaire's obligations. In this case, the termination shall entail the gratuitous transfer of all the concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, without the concessionaire benefiting from any right to compensation. The concessionaire will further lose the security it had rendered to guarantee contractual compliance, all without prejudice to the Portuguese State being indemnified for losses suffered, as per general law.

REN Portgás may also terminate the concession early on the grounds of a serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the carrying out of the concession activity. Such termination by the concessionaire entails the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor. Nevertheless, the concessionaire retains the right to receive compensation for losses it incurs, including for the amount of its investments and loss of profits.

The Portuguese State may redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, at any time after 15 years from the date of the beginning of the concession term. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall take into account the book value of the reverting assets as at the relevant redemption date, as well as loss of profits.

On the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, REN Portgás' concession assets and the related rights and obligations revert to the Portuguese Republic in accordance with the contractual terms, which include compensation to REN Portgás corresponding to the net book value of the assets covered by the concession.

If, upon termination of the concession, it is not renewed or the new entity responsible for the concession has not yet been chosen, the concession agreement can be extended for a maximum period of one year, under the public services regime or any other legal form of public agreement.

Operation of a pilot zone for the generation of electric energy from sea waves

In 2010, the Portuguese government granted Enondas, REN's wholly owned subsidiary, under the terms of Article 5(3) of Decree-law no. 5/2008, of 8 January, and Decree-law no. 238/2008, of 15 December, a concession to operate a pilot zone to generate electricity from the energy of ocean waves through Enondas, REN's wholly owned subsidiary.

In accordance with Decree-Law no. 238/2008, of 15 December, as amended by Decree-Law no. 15/2012, of 23 January, this concession has a duration of 45 years (which ends in 2055) and includes the authorisation to (i) install the infrastructure to connect to the public service electricity network; (ii) use of the public water resources; (iii) monitoring of the use by third parties of the water resources necessary to generate electricity from ocean waves energy; as well as (iv) the power to grant licences for the establishment and operation of the generation of electricity and related monitoring.

In accordance with the concession agreement and applicable legislation, Enondas will have the right to an adequate remuneration for the concession, through the acknowledgement of the costs of investment, operation and maintenance, provided that these latter are approved in advance by the Government minister overseeing the energy sector, and subject to the binding opinion of ERSE.

The concession contract may be early terminated by the Portuguese State in case any of the following events of serious breach of Enonda's contractual obligations – if not remedied or impossible to remedy –, namely but without limitation, occur: deviation from the scope of the concession; non-observance of the contractual delay for commencement of operation of the Pilot Zone (area identified and demarcated for carrying out the concession activity), whenever imputable to the concessionaire; unjustified prolonged interruption or abandonment of the concession activity for a period longer than one year; reiterated opposition to the supervision and breach of the resolutions of the grantor or violation of applicable laws or regulations; refusal to entail repairs and maintenance to the concession infrastructure; lack of payment of the concessions' consideration for a period longer than one year; non-authorised transfer, assignment, sale or encumbrance of the concession; and lack of payment of contractual penalties by the concessionaire. In this case, the termination shall implicate the gratuitous transfer of all concession assets and the related rights and obligations to the grantor, as well as the loss of the preservation and renewal fund (funded by 5 per cent. of the concessionaire's annual profits). In such case the concessionaire shall have no right to receive any compensation, all without prejudice to the possible civil liability of the concessionaire and of the respective contractual penalties.

Enondas may also early terminate the concession with grounds on serious breach of the grantor's obligations, if such breach jeopardises the carrying out of the activity included in the concession. This termination by the concessionaire implicates the transfer of all the concession assets and related rights and obligations to the grantor, without prejudice of the concessionaire's right to receive compensation for losses caused to it, including for the amount of investments it effectively funded and loss of profit.

Enondas has a further right to terminate the concession agreement from the fifth year after the Pilot Zone begins operation, should Enondas suffer a verifiable loss of more than EUR 6 million, as per the calculation parameters described in the agreement, despite the contractual mechanisms for Enondas remuneration. In such case, the Portuguese State may opt either to provide financial compensation to the concessionaire, in financial neutrality conditions, or to indemnify the concessionaire for the accumulated net losses, accrued of the amount of the investment provided for the agreement, as long as it is made by the concessionaire and is not amortised, up to the maximum amount of EUR 6 million. The concessionaire shall not have the right to be compensated for loss of profit.

The Portuguese State may unilaterally redeem the concession on justifiable grounds of public interest, after one year from the date of the notice to the concessionaire of such redemption intention. The concessionaire has the right to receive an indemnity in case of such redemption, which shall be calculated having as basis an evaluation to be performed by two well-known entities, always taking into account the book value of the investments executed and effectively funded by the concessionaire.

On the concession termination date, by expiry of its term, the assets and the related rights and obligations shall revert to the Portuguese Republic at no charge, having the concessionaire no right to any indemnity. Nonetheless, the assets subject to reversion which were acquired by the concessionaire with recourse to financing of the concession activity – which are not amortised – shall have to be paid by its book and non-amortised value, conditioned to the respective acquisition having been previously approved by the grantor.

Addenda to the concession agreements

On 21 February 2012, the following addenda to the concession agreements in force between the Portuguese State and REN's companies were executed, namely: (i) the concession agreement concerning the transmission of electricity through the RNT entered into by REN Rede Eléctrica; (ii) the concession agreement regarding the transport of natural gas through the RNTG entered into by REN Gasodutos; (iii) the concession agreement regarding the reception, storage and regasification of the LNG terminal in Sines entered into by REN Atlântico; and (iv) the concession agreement regarding the underground storage of natural gas, entered into by REN Armazenagem.

These concession agreements were amended with the main purposes of: (i) detailing the functions of the operators of the RNT and RNTG; (ii) developing arrangements for monitoring and supervising the activities of the concessionaires by the Portuguese State; and (iii) specifying the terms applicable to the provision of information by each of the concessionaires, adapting the respective contractual clauses to the legal provisions and regulations that entered into force in the meantime, in particular Decree-Laws no.77/2011 and 78/2011, both of 20 June.

On 23 April 2018, REN Rede Eléctrica concession agreement was amended with the main purpose of including the approximately 17 km² of Portuguese sea space offshore of Viana do Castelo in the scope of the concession and in accordance with (i) the determination number 22/SEEnergia/2015, dated as of 7 May, of the Energy Secretary of State, (ii) the Resolution of Council of Ministers no 81-A/2016, dated as of 24 November, and (iii) the Resolution of the Council of Ministers no 12/2018, dated as of 8 February.

PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Companies in the Group are owners and lessees of several properties located in Portugal, which, other than the surface right constituted in favour of Turbogás in relation to the property of the electric generation centre of natural gas combined cycle from Tapada do Outeiro for the duration of the respective PPA are free of significant encumbrances.

REN's principal properties are related to its electricity and gas infrastructure, as well as certain office buildings. REN's properties are for the most part held free of encumbrances. In general, REN's properties will revert to the Portuguese Republic or to the municipalities, as the case may be, upon the termination of its concessions. Despite the fact that REN holds the right to receive compensatory amounts in relation to these assets, the loss of such assets may have a negative impact on its business.

INSURANCE

REN maintains the types and amounts of insurance customary in the industries in which it operates, including coverage for third-party liability, employee-related accidents and injuries, property damage, environment and directors' and officers' liability.

REGULATION

REN operates primarily in the electricity and natural gas sectors, and additionally in the telecommunications sector. As a result, its activities are subject to legislation and regulation on several fronts. In particular, REN is subject to EU legislation applying to the electricity and natural gas industries the Commission Regulation (EU) 2016/1388, of 17 August 2016, establishing a Network Code on Demand Connection, and the Regulation (EU) 2014/312, of 26 March 2014, establishing a Network Code on Gas Balancing of Transmission Networks.

REN is also subject to extensive Portuguese legislation applying to the electricity sector, notably Decree-Law No. 15/2022, of 14 January, transposing the Directive (EU) 2019/944 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 5 June 2019.

REN is also subject to extensive Portuguese legislation applying to the natural gas sector such as Decree-Law No. 230/2012 of 26 October, transposing the Directive No. 2009/73/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July. Recently, Decree-Law no. 62/2020, of 28 August fully amended the natural gas Portuguese legal framework, replacing Decree-Law no. 30/2006, 15 February and Decree-Law no. 140/2006, of 26 July and establishing a new regime of organisation and functioning of the gas sector in Portugal. Decree-Law no. 62/2020, of 28 August transposed the relevant EU legislation, namely Directive (EU) 2019/692 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 April 2019, amending Directive 2009/73/EC concerning common rules for the internal market in natural gas.

REN is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Director General for Energy and Geology (Direcção Geral de Energia e Geologia) and ERSE and, in particular, to several regulation instruments issued by these entities for both the electricity and natural gas sectors. In respect of the electricity sector, these instruments include: (i) the Quality of Service Code; (ii) the Tariffs Regulation; (iii) the Commercial Relations Regulation; (iv) the Grid Operations Regulation; (v) the Access to the Grid and Interconnections Regulation; and (vi) the Transmission Grid Regulation and Distribution Grid Regulation. In respect of the natural gas sector, the instruments are: (i) the Quality of Service Regulation; (ii) the Tariffs Regulation; (iii) the Commercial Relations Regulation; (iv) the Access to the Grid, Infrastructure and Interconnections Regulation; (v) the Infrastructure Operation Regulation; (vi) the Project, Construction, Use and Maintenance of the Underground Storage Technical Regulation; (vii) the Project, Construction, Use and Maintenance of the LNG Reception, Storage and Regasification Terminal Technical Regulation; and (viii) the Project, Construction, Use and Maintenance of the National Gas Transmission Network Technical Regulation.

On 9 September 2014, ERSE issued a decision regarding the certification of REN - Rede Eléctrica Nacional and REN Gasodutos as electricity transmission and natural gas grid operators, respectively, under a full ownership unbundling, subject to the satisfaction of a set of certification conditions aiming at granting the operators independence (the "Decision"). Such conditions were deemed satisfied by ERSE on 31 July 2015, as disclosed to the market by REN on 4 August 2015.

The following conditions are imposed by the Decision:

- (i) restrictions concerning REN shareholders: without prejudice to the right of receiving dividends, the shareholders that control companies whose object is the generation or supply of electricity or

- the production or supply of natural gas are prevented from exercising any rights held in REN, unless ERSE (as the relevant certifying entity) attests to the absence of any conflicts of interest;
- (ii) restrictions concerning the members of the boards of directors or of the supervisory boards of REN and of the TSOs, i.e., REN Rede Eléctrica and REN Gasodutos, which:
 - (a) cannot be appointed by shareholders that control or hold rights over companies whose object is the generation or supply of electricity or the production or supply of natural gas; or
 - (b) are not allowed to be part of corporate bodies in companies whose object is the production and supply of electricity or the production or supply of natural gas;
 - (iii) amendment to the REN by-laws, in order to comply with the restrictions included in the two bullets above; and
 - (iv) communication to ERSE, in a timely manner, of any material change that involves the conditions that were analysed within the certification proceedings.

REN by-laws were amended in order to convey the certification condition mentioned in item (iii). above, by means of a resolution of the shareholders general meeting passed last 17 April 2015.

The Decision defines additional measures of functional unbundling, as per the situation of REN Trading, and of supervision of the activities developed by the Group and also makes reference to the current shareholders of REN and the members of the boards of directors and of the supervisory boards of REN and of the TSOs.

In fact, concerning REN Trading, the Decision notably establishes that the following shall be ensured:

- (i) measures aiming at reinforcing the transparency of the governance model are implemented. It shall be particularly ensured that changes to the board of directors of REN Trading board of directors and of the supervisory board are communicated to ERSE in a timely manner. Such changes must be grounded and it shall take into account that the members of the board of directors and of the supervisory board:
 - a. are neither part of the corporate bodies of REN Rede Eléctrica or REN Gasodutos nor of companies carrying out the production or supply of electricity or of natural gas;
 - b. have no labour relationship with REN Rede Eléctrica or REN Gasodutos;
 - c. do not, directly or indirectly and irrespective of the form, render any services to REN Rede Eléctrica or REN Gasodutos or to companies carrying out the production or supply of electricity or of natural gas; and
 - d. ERSE may issue a bounding decision on the early termination of the agreements or term of offices, as applicable. For such purposes, ERSE will take into account the directors duties and skills for the normal performance of functions and the level of accomplishment of goals;
- (ii) REN Trading cannot share IT equipment and systems, buildings or access safety systems with REN Rede Eléctrica or with REN Gasodutos. Similarly, REN Trading cannot hire the same consultants or external service providers for the IT equipment or systems or for the access safety systems; and
- (iii) REN Trading cannot use the joint services of REN Rede Eléctrica or REN Gasodutos (notably accounting and legal services) or use the same consultants or external service providers, without prejudice to the use of common structures of a purely administrative nature.

REN Trading activities on the supply or production of electric energy cannot be renewed after the expiry of the current PPAs.

TAXATION

Portugal

The following is a summary of certain tax consequences with respect to the Notes based on the tax laws of Portugal as in effect on the date of this Base Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date, including changes that could have retroactive effect. It is not a complete analysis of all of the potential tax effects relevant to a decision to invest in REN Notes. Potentially applicable transitional rules have not been considered. The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to any particular Noteholder, including tax considerations that arise from rules of general application or that are generally assumed to be known to Noteholders. The following summary neither takes into account nor discusses investors' individual circumstances or the tax laws of any country other than Portugal, and it relates only to the position of persons who are absolute beneficial owners of the Notes.

Prospective investors in the Notes should consult their professional advisers with respect to particular circumstances and the effects of state, local or foreign laws to which they may be subject. Noteholders who are in doubt as to their tax position should consult their professional advisers.

1. General Tax Treatment

Interest and other types of investment income obtained on Notes by a Portuguese resident individual, who is a beneficial owner, is subject to Portuguese Personal Income Tax. If the payment of interest or other investment income is made available to Portuguese resident individuals, withholding tax applies at a rate of 28 per cent., which is the final tax on that income unless the individual elects for aggregation to his taxable income, subject to Portuguese Personal Income Tax, at the progressive rates of up to 48 per cent. In this latter case, an additional Portuguese Personal Income tax rate will be due on the part of the taxable income exceeding EUR 80,000 up to EUR 250,000, as follows: (i) 2.5 per cent. on the part of the taxable income exceeding EUR 80,000 up to EUR 250,000 and (ii) 5 per cent. on the part of the taxable income exceeding EUR 250,000.

Where the Notes are redeemed, the difference between the subscription cost and the redemption value is qualified as capital gain and will be subject to Portuguese Personal Income Tax at a special flat rate of 28 per cent. unless the individual elects for aggregation to his taxable income, pursuant to the same tax regime as described above.

Notwithstanding the above, interest and other types of investment income paid or made available to accounts opened in the name of one or several accountholders acting on behalf of undisclosed third parties is subject to a withholding tax rate of 35 per cent., except where the beneficial owner(s) of such income is/are disclosed, in which case the general rules shall apply.

Capital gains obtained by Portuguese resident individuals on the transfer of Notes are computed as the difference between the sales proceeds and the acquisition cost, net of interest accrued from the last interest payment date or from the date of issue, placement or endorsement if payment has not occurred, to the date of transfer. Such capital gains are subject to Portuguese Personal Income Tax, at a special flat rate of 28 per cent., which is levied on any positive balance between any realised capital gains and losses made on the sale of shares, bonds, derivatives, warrants and other financial securities occurred in a given tax year. The respective beneficiary may also opt for the aggregation of said capital gains to his taxable income, in which case the capital gains obtained will be subject to tax at the progressive Portuguese Personal Income Tax rates of up to 48 per cent. and above described additional Personal Income surtax (if the corresponding amount exceeds the referred thresholds).

The Budget Law for FY 2022 provides that capital gains arising from the disposal of securities, including the Notes, are subject to mandatory aggregation whenever: (i) the securities disposed of have been held for less than 365 consecutive days; and (ii) the individual taxpayer has a taxable income which is equal to or exceeds the highest Personal Income Tax bracket (€ 75,000).

On the other hand, interest and other investment income, as well as capital gains obtained on the redemption or transfer of Notes, when earned by any corporate entities resident for tax purposes in Portugal, or by non-resident corporate entities with a permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income or gains are attributable, are subject to Portuguese Corporate Income Tax at the standard 21 per cent. tax rate (if the taxpayers are a small or medium enterprise as established in Decree-Law no. 372/2007, of 6 November 2007, a reduced 17 per cent. rate applies over taxable profits up to EUR 25 thousand). In addition, a municipal surcharge ("derrama municipal") of up to 1.5 per cent. of the beneficiary's taxable profits may be added, as well as a 3 per cent. State surtax ("derrama estadual") levied on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 1.5 million up to EUR 7.5 million, 5 per cent. on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 7.5 million up to EUR 35 million and a 9 per cent. on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 35 million. Withholding tax, at a rate of 25 per cent. on account of the final tax liability applies on interest and other investment income.

Financial institutions resident in Portugal for tax purposes or branches of foreign financial institutions located herein, pension funds, retirement and/or education savings funds, share savings funds, venture capital funds and collective investment undertakings incorporated under the laws of Portugal and some exempt entities, among other entities, are not subject to withholding tax.

Interest and other types of investment income obtained by non-resident individuals, or by non-resident corporate entities, in both cases without a Portuguese permanent establishment to which the income is attributable, are liable to a final withholding tax rate of 28 and 25 per cent., respectively.

However, interest and other types of investment income paid or made available to (i) individuals or companies domiciled in a country, territory or region subject to a clearly more favourable tax regime included in the list approved by Ministerial Order (Portaria) No. 150/2004 of 13 February (as amended from time to time) or (ii) to accounts opened in the name of one or more accountholders acting on behalf of undisclosed third parties is subject to a withholding tax rate of 35 per cent., except where the beneficial owners of such income are disclosed, in which case the general rules shall apply.

Under the tax treaties entered into by Portugal which are in full force and effect on the date of this Base Prospectus, the withholding tax rate over interest, as well as other investment income sources assimilated to interest, may be reduced to 15, 12, 10 or 5 per cent., depending on the applicable treaty and provided that the relevant formalities are met. The reduction may apply at source or through the refund of the excess tax withheld. The forms currently applicable for these purposes (form 21-RFI or form 22-RFI, respectively) are available for viewing and downloading at www.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt.

Pursuant to the EU Directive on Interest and Royalties (Directive No. 2003/49/EC of the Council, of 3 June), no withholding tax shall be applicable on interest paid to an associated company of an Issuer who is resident in the European Union.

For these purposes, an associated company of the Portuguese Issuer is:

- (i) a company which is subject to one of the taxes on profits listed in Article 3(a)(iii) of the EU Directive on Interest and Royalties without being exempt; which takes one of the legal forms listed in the Annex to the said Directive; and which is considered to be resident in an EU Member State and is not, within the meaning of a double taxation convention on income concluded with a third State, considered to be resident for tax purposes outside the EU;
- (ii) which holds a minimum direct holding of 25 per cent. in the share capital of the Issuer; or is directly held by the Issuer in at least 25 per cent.; or, together with the Issuer, are both held in at least 25 per cent. by a company; and
- (iii) provided that the holding has been maintained for an uninterrupted period of at least two years. If the minimum holding period is met after the date the withholding tax becomes due, a refund may be obtained.

The associated company of the Issuer to which payments are made must be the beneficial owner of the interest, which will be the case if it receives the interest for its own account and not as an intermediary, either as a representative, a trustee or authorised signatory, for some other person.

The exemption of the withholding tax rate may take place at source or through the refund of excess withholding tax. The forms currently applicable for the exemption from withholding tax rate and for the refund of excess withholding tax where the minimum holding period is met after withholding tax becomes due (form 01-DJR or form 02-DJR, respectively) are available for viewing and downloading at www.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt.

Capital gains realised by non-resident individuals on the transfer of Notes are subject to a 28 per cent. special flat rate. Again, and as referred to above, accrued interest does not qualify as capital gains for tax purposes. However, and provided the below mentioned conditions apply, such capital gains may be exempt under Portuguese domestic laws, or being out of the scope of Portuguese Personal Income Tax legislation whenever a tax treaty applies granting exclusive taxing rights to the beneficiary's State of Residency.

Gains obtained on the disposal of Notes by a corporate entity non-resident for tax purposes in Portugal and without a permanent establishment in the Portuguese territory to which gains are attributable, are exempt from Portuguese capital gains taxation, unless:

- (i) the share capital of the beneficial owner is more than 25 per cent. directly or indirectly held by Portuguese resident entities (the exemption will still apply even if the non-resident entity is held in more than 25 per cent. by Portuguese resident entities provided that the seller meets all the following requirements (A) is resident in another EU Member State or any State with whom Portugal has concluded a double tax treaty which foresees the exchange of information mechanism; (B) is liable to a tax mentioned in Article 2 of the Council Directive 2011/96/EU of 30 November or a tax with similar nature to Corporate Income Tax, provided that the applicable legal rate is not lower than 60 per cent. of the Portuguese standard Corporate Income Tax rate; (C) is not part of an artificial structure created with the sole or principal objective of obtaining tax advantages); or
- (ii) whenever the beneficial owner is resident in a country, territory or region subject to a clearly more favourable tax regime included in the list approved by Ministerial Order (Portaria) No. 150/2004 of 13 February (as amended from time to time). Where the exemption does not apply, the respective gains will then be subject to Corporate Income Tax at a rate of 25 per cent. Under the tax treaties entered into by Portugal, such gains are usually not subject to Portuguese tax, but the applicable rules should be confirmed on a case-by-case basis.

Stamp Tax at a rate of 10 per cent. applies to the acquisition of Notes through gift or inheritance by an individual who is domiciled in Portugal. An exemption applies to transfers in favour of the spouse, parents/grandparents and children.

On the other hand, gratuitous transfers of Notes in favour of a Portuguese resident corporate entity, or of a non-resident corporate entity acting through a Portuguese permanent establishment, both subject to Corporate Income Tax, are exempt from Stamp Tax. However, such gratuitous transfers will trigger at the Portuguese beneficiary's level, a positive variation in the company's net worth (variação patrimonial positiva), the same being taxable for Corporate Income Tax purposes at the standard 21 per cent. rate (if the taxpayers are small or medium enterprises as established in Decree-Law no. 372/2007, of 6 November 2007, a reduced 17 per cent. rate applies over taxable profits up to EUR 25 thousand). As referred to above, in addition to such taxation a municipal surcharge ("derrama municipal") of up to 1.5 per cent. of the beneficiary's taxable profits may be added, as well as a 3 per cent., State surtax ("derrama estadual") levied on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 1.5 million, 5 per cent. on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 7.5 million up to EUR 35 million and a 9 per cent. on the part of the taxable profits exceeding EUR 35 million.

Transfers to a non-resident corporate entity of Notes by gift or at death will not be subject to Portuguese Stamp Tax. However, such gratuitous transfers will be subject to Portuguese Corporate Income Tax at the standard 25 per cent. tax rate. Notwithstanding, such taxation may be prevented whenever a tax treaty applies provided that the same tax treaty expressly grants the State in which the non-resident beneficiary is domiciled the exclusive right to tax any income derived from securities issued by Portuguese companies.

There is neither wealth nor estate tax in Portugal.

2. Tax Treatment of Notes under the Special Tax Regime for Debt Securities

The regime described in paragraph one above corresponds to the general tax treatment of investment income and capital gains on Notes issued by a Portuguese entity, and to the acquisition through gift or inheritance of such Notes.

Nevertheless, pursuant to the Special Tax Regime for Debt Securities, approved by Decree-Law No. 193/2005, of 7 November (as amended from time to time) (hereafter "the special regime approved by Decree-Law No. 193/2005"), investment income and gains on the disposal of debt securities issued by

Portuguese resident entities, such as the Notes subscribed by non-resident beneficial owners (individuals and corporate entities), are exempt from Portuguese income tax provided that the debt securities are integrated in (i) a centralised system recognised under the Portuguese Securities Code and complementary legislation and managed by a an entity resident for tax purposes in Portugal (such as the Central de Valores Mobiliários, managed by Interbolsa) or (ii) in an international clearing system managed by an entity with head-office or place of effective management in an EU Member State or EEA Country provided, in this case, that such State is bound to cooperate with Portugal under an administrative cooperation arrangement in tax matters similar to the exchange of information schemes in relation to tax matters existing within the EU Member States or (iii) integrated in other centralised systems authorised by the Portuguese Government, and the beneficial owners are:

- (i) central banks or governmental agencies; or
- (ii) international bodies recognised by Portugal; or
- (iii) entities resident in countries or jurisdictions with whom Portugal has a double tax treaty in force or a tax information exchange in force; or
- (iv) other entities without headquarters, head office, place of effective management or a permanent establishment in the Portuguese territory to which the income is attributable and which are not domiciled in a country, territory or region subject to a clearly more favourable tax regime included in the list approved by the Ministerial Order (Portaria) No. 150/2004, of 13 February (as amended from time to time).

The special regime approved by Decree-Law No. 193/2005 (as amended from time to time) sets out the detailed rules and procedures to be followed on the proof of non-residence of the beneficial owners of the Notes.

Under these procedures (which are aimed at verifying the non-resident status of the Noteholders), each Noteholder is required to hold the Notes through an account with one of the following entities:

- (i) A direct registered entity, which is an entity affiliated with the clearing system recognised by the Portuguese Securities Code;
- (ii) An indirect registered entity, which, although not assuming the role of the direct registered entities, is a client of the latter; or
- (iii) Entities managing an international clearing system, which are entities operating with the international market to clear and settle securities transactions.

Under the above mentioned set of rules, the direct register entity (i.e. the entity affiliated to the centralised system where the securities are integrated), as the entity holding the relevant account with the relevant centralised system in which the Notes are integrated, will be under the obligation to obtain and keep proof, in the form described below, that the relevant beneficial owner is a non-resident entity that is entitled to the exemption. The evidence of non-residence status must be provided to, and received by, the direct registration entity prior to (i) the relevant date on which the interest coupon is paid, and (ii) the respective redemption date, or prior to the transfer of Notes' date, as the case may be.

The following is a general description of the rules and procedures on the proof required for the exemption to apply at source, as they stand on the date of this Base Prospectus.

(a) Domestic Cleared Notes – held through a direct or indirect registered entity

Direct registered entities are required, for purposes of Decree-Law No. 193/2005 (as amended from time to time), to register the Noteholders in one of two accounts: (A) an exempt account or (B) a non-exempt account.

The beneficial owner of Notes must provide proof of non-residence in Portuguese territory substantially in the terms set forth below:

- (i) If the beneficial owner of the Notes is a central bank, an international body recognised as such by the Portuguese Republic, or a public law entity and respective agencies, a declaration of tax residence issued by the beneficial owner of the Notes itself, duly signed and authenticated or proof pursuant to paragraph (iv) below. The corresponding proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, without any periodical renewal obligation. However, the beneficial owner should immediately inform the direct registered entity of any change that may prevent the tax exemption from applying.

- (ii) If the beneficial owner of the Notes is a credit institution, a financial company, a pension fund or an insurance company, domiciled in any OECD country or in a country with which Portugal has entered into a double taxation treaty, the respective certification shall be made by providing the following documentation: (a) its tax identification or (b) a tax certificate issued by the entity responsible for its supervision or registration confirming the legal existence of the beneficial owner of the Notes and its domicile; or proof of non-residence status pursuant to paragraph (iv) below. The corresponding proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, without any periodical renewal obligation. However, the beneficial owner should immediately inform the direct registered entity of any change that may prevent the tax exemption from applying.
- (iii) If the beneficial owner of the Notes is either an investment fund, or another type of collective investment undertaking, domiciled in any OECD country or in a country with which Portugal has entered into a double tax treaty or an agreement for exchange of information regarding tax matters, certification shall be provided by means of any of the following documents: declaration issued by the entity which is responsible for its registration or supervision or by the tax authorities, confirming its legal existence, the law of incorporation and domicile; or by proof of non-residence status pursuant to paragraph (iv) below. The corresponding proof of non-residence in Portugal is provided once, without any periodical renewal obligation. However, the beneficial owner should immediately inform the direct registered entity of any change that may prevent the tax exemption from applying.
- (iv) In any other case (i.e., other investors), confirmation must be made by way of providing a certificate of residence, or equivalent document, issued by the relevant tax authorities; or by providing a document issued by the relevant Portuguese consulate certifying the beneficial owner's residence abroad; or a document specifically issued by a public administration entity (either central, regional or peripheral, indirect or autonomous) of the relevant country certifying the non-residence status and existence of the respective beneficial owner.

In addition to the above mentioned documentation, Decree-Law No. 193/2005 also sets out specific rules to be followed in order to assure the authenticity and validity of the documents mentioned in paragraph (iv) above, in particular that the beneficial owner of the Notes must provide an original, or a certified copy of the respective residence certificate or equivalent document. This document must be issued up until three months after the date on which the withholding tax would have been applied and will be valid for a three-year period starting on the date such document is issued. The beneficial owner of the Notes must always inform the direct registered entity of any change of his respective status that may prevent the tax exemption from applying.

(b) Internationally Cleared Notes – held through an entity managing an international clearing system

If the Notes are registered in an account held through an entity managing an international clearing system recognised by the Portuguese Minister of Finance (such as Euroclear, or Clearstream, Luxembourg), and the management entity of such international clearing system undertakes not to provide registration services (i) to residents for tax purposes in Portugal which do not benefit from either an exemption from Portuguese taxation, or an exemption from Portuguese withholding tax, as well as (ii) to non-resident entities for tax purposes which do not benefit from the above Portuguese income tax exemption; special rules apply regarding the documentation to be provided. In such case, on each interest payment date, the necessary proof of non-residence will be made through documents provided by the respective beneficial owners to the direct register entity or to its Portuguese appointed representative, whenever the former is a non-resident for tax purposes in Portugal, and with respect to all accounts under its management, broken down by the following categories of beneficiaries:

- (i) Entities with residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income is attributable, which are non-exempt and subject to withholding tax;
- (ii) Entities resident in a country, territory or region subject to a clearly more favourable tax regime included in the list approved by Ministerial Order (Portaria) No. 150/2004 of 13 February (as amended from time to time) which are non-exempt and subject to withholding tax;
- (iii) Entities with residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income is attributable, which are exempt from or not subject to withholding tax;
- (iv) Other entities which do not have residence, headquarters, effective management or permanent establishment in Portugal to which the income is attributable.

In each interest payment date, the following information regarding the beneficiaries referred in a), b) and c) above shall also be communicated:

- Name and address;
- Tax identification number, if applicable;
- Identification and quantity of the Notes held; and
- Amount of income paid on the Notes.

The information above may be communicated in any format, provided that is made available to the Portuguese tax authorities whenever it is required.

If the conditions for the exemption to apply are met, but, due to inaccurate or insufficient information, tax was withheld, a special refund procedure is available under the special regime approved by Decree Law No. 193/2005 (as amended from time to time). The refund claim is to be submitted by the Noteholder to the direct register entity, to its Portuguese appointed representative (whenever the direct registering entity is a non-Portuguese resident) or to the indirect registering entity (the latter will forward the claim to the former) within six months from the date in which the tax was unduly withheld. A special tax form for these purposes was approved and must be used (form 25-RFI, available at www.portaldasfinancas.gov.pt).

After the six month period has elapsed, the refund of tax unduly withheld is to be claimed from the Portuguese tax authorities within two years counted from the end of the year in which the tax was unduly withheld.

The absence of evidence of non-residence in respect to any non-resident entity which benefits from the above mentioned tax exemption regime, shall result in the loss of the tax exception and consequent submission to the above applicable Portuguese general tax provisions.

No Portuguese exemption shall apply at source under the special regime approved by Decree-Law No. 193/2005 if the above rules and procedures are not followed. Accordingly, the general Portuguese tax provisions shall apply as described above.

The Netherlands

The following summary of certain Dutch taxation matters is based on the laws and practice in force as of the date of this Base Prospectus and is subject to any changes in law and the interpretation and application thereof, which changes could be made with retroactive effect. The following summary neither purports to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to acquire, hold or dispose of a Note nor purports to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules.

For the purpose of the paragraph "Taxes on Income and Capital Gains" below it is assumed that an individual or non-resident entity holding a Note neither has nor will have a substantial interest, or - in the case of a holder of a Note being an entity - a deemed substantial interest, in an Issuer and that a connected person (verbonden persoon) to the holder of a Note neither has nor will have a substantial interest in an Issuer.

Generally speaking, an individual has a substantial interest in a company if (a) such individual, either alone or together with the individual's partner, directly or indirectly has, or is deemed to have or (b) certain relatives of such individual or the individual's partner directly or indirectly have or are deemed to have (i) the ownership of, a right to acquire the ownership of, or certain rights over, shares representing 5 per cent. or more of either the total issued and outstanding capital of such company or the issued and outstanding capital of any class of shares of such company, or (ii) the ownership of, or certain rights over, profit participating certificates (winstbewijzen) that relate to 5 per cent. or more of either the annual profit or the liquidation proceeds of such company.

Generally speaking, a non-resident entity has a substantial interest in a company if such entity, directly or indirectly has (i) the ownership of, a right to acquire the ownership of, or certain rights over, shares representing 5 per cent. or more of either the total issued and outstanding capital of such company or the issued and outstanding capital of any class of shares of such company, or (ii) the ownership of, or certain rights over, profit participating certificates (winstbewijzen) that relate to 5 per cent. or more of either the annual profit or the liquidation proceeds of such company. An entity holding a Note has a deemed substantial interest in a company if such entity has disposed of or is deemed to have disposed of all or part of a substantial interest on a non-recognition basis. Generally, a non-resident entity has a deemed substantial interest in a company if such entity has disposed of or is deemed to have disposed of all or part of a substantial interest on a non-recognition basis.

For the purpose of the paragraph "Taxes on Income and Capital Gains" below, the term "entity" means a corporation as well as any other person that is taxable as a corporation for Dutch corporate tax purposes.

Where this summary refers to a holder of a Note, an individual holding a Note or an entity holding a Note, such reference is restricted to an individual or entity holding legal title to as well as an economic interest in such Note or otherwise being regarded as owning a Note for Dutch tax purposes. It is noted that for purposes of Dutch income, corporate, gift and inheritance tax, assets legally owned by a third party such as a trustee, foundation or similar entity, may be treated as assets owned by the (deemed) settlor, grantor or similar originator or the beneficiaries in proportion to their interest in such arrangement.

Where the summary refers to "The Netherlands" or "Dutch" it refers only to the European part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Prospective investors should consult their professional advisers on the tax consequences of their acquiring, holding and disposing of a Note.

1. WITHHOLDING TAX

All payments of principal and interest made by the Issuers under the Notes can be made without withholding or deduction of any taxes of whatever nature imposed, levied, withheld or assessed by the Netherlands or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, save that Dutch withholding tax may apply on certain (deemed) payments of interest by REN B.V. (or, with respect to payments by REN, to the extent such payments are attributable to a permanent establishment of it in the Netherlands, if any) made to an affiliated (gelieerde) entity of REN B.V. or REN, as the case may be, if such entity (i) is considered to be resident (gevestigd) in a jurisdiction that is listed in the annually updated Dutch Regulation on low-taxing states and non-cooperative jurisdictions for tax purposes (Regeling laagbelastende staten en niet-coöperatieve rechtsgebieden voor belastingdoeleinden), or (ii) has a permanent establishment located in such jurisdiction to which the interest is attributable, or (iii) is entitled to the interest payable for the main purpose or one of the main purposes to avoid taxation for another person, or (iv) is not considered to be the recipient of the interest in its jurisdiction of residence because such jurisdiction treats another (lower-tier) entity as the recipient of the interest (a hybrid mismatch), or (v) is not treated as resident anywhere (also a hybrid mismatch), or (vi) is a reverse hybrid whereby the jurisdiction of residence of a participant that has a qualifying interest (kwalificerend belang) in the reverse hybrid treats the reverse hybrid as tax transparent and that participant would have been taxable based on one (or more) of the items in (i)-(v) above had the interest been due to the participant directly, all within the meaning of the Withholding Tax Act 2021 (Wet bronbelasting 2021).

2. TAXES ON INCOME AND CAPITAL GAINS

Residents

Resident entities

An entity holding a Note which is or is deemed to be a resident in The Netherlands for Dutch corporate tax purposes and which is not tax exempt, will generally be subject to Dutch corporate tax in respect of income or a capital gain derived from a Note at the prevailing statutory rates (up to 25.8 per cent. in 2022).

Resident individuals

An individual holding a Note who is or is deemed to be a resident in The Netherlands for Dutch income tax purposes will generally be subject to Dutch income tax in respect of income or a capital gain derived from a Note at the prevailing statutory rates (up to 49.50 per cent. in 2022) if:

- (i) the income or capital gain is attributable to an enterprise from which the holder derives profits (other than as a shareholder); or
- (ii) the income or capital gain qualifies as income from miscellaneous activities ("belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden") as defined in the Income Tax Act (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001), including, without limitation, activities that exceed normal, active asset management ("normaal, actief vermogensbeheer").

If neither condition (i) nor (ii) applies, the individual holding a Note will generally be subject to Dutch income tax on the basis of a deemed return, regardless of any actual income or capital gain derived from the Note. For 2022, the deemed return ranges from 1.82 per cent. to 5.53 per cent. of the value of the individual's net assets as at the beginning of the relevant fiscal year (including the Note). The applicable percentages will be updated annually on the basis of historic market yields. Subject to application of certain allowances, the deemed return will be taxed at the prevailing statutory rate (31 per cent. in 2022). Based on a decision of the Dutch Supreme Court (Hoge Raad) of 24 December 2021 (ECLI:NL:HR:2021:1963), the current system of taxation based on a deemed return may under specific circumstances contravene with Section 1 of the First Protocol to the European Convention on Human Rights in combination with Section 14 of the European Convention on Human Rights. At the date of this Base Prospectus, no legislative changes have been proposed, however, the Dutch State Secretary for Tax Affairs and Tax Administration has announced that the system of taxation based on a deemed return will be amended.

Non-residents

A holder of a Note which is not and is not deemed to be a resident in The Netherlands for the relevant tax purposes will not be subject to Dutch taxation on income or a capital gain derived from the Note, unless:

- (i) the income or capital gain is attributable to an enterprise or part thereof which is either effectively managed in The Netherlands or carried on through a permanent establishment ("vaste inrichting") or a permanent representative ("vaste vertegenwoordiger") taxable in The Netherlands and the holder derives profits from such enterprise (other than by way of the holding of securities); or

- (ii) the holder is an individual and the income or capital gain qualifies as income from miscellaneous activities ("belastbaar resultaat uit overige werkzaamheden") in The Netherlands as defined in the Income Tax Act (Wet inkomstenbelasting 2001), including, without limitation, activities that exceed normal, active asset management ("normaal, actief vermogensbeheer").

3. GIFT AND INHERITANCE TAXES

Dutch gift or inheritance taxes will not be levied on the occasion of the transfer of a Note by way of gift by, or on the death of, a holder of a Note, unless:

- (i) the holder of a Note is or is deemed to be resident in The Netherlands for the purpose of the relevant provisions; or
- (ii) the transfer is construed as an inheritance or gift made by, or on behalf of, a person who, at the time of the gift or death, is or is deemed to be resident in The Netherlands for the purpose of the relevant provisions.

4. VALUE ADDED TAX

There is no Dutch value added tax payable by a holder of a Note in respect of payments in consideration for the issue or acquisition of the Notes, payments of principal or interest under the Notes, or payments in consideration for a disposal of the Notes.

5. OTHER TAXES AND DUTIES

There is no Dutch registration tax, stamp duty or any other similar tax or duty payable in The Netherlands by a holder of a Note in respect of or in connection with the execution, delivery and/or enforcement by legal proceedings (including any foreign judgment in the courts of The Netherlands) of the Notes or the performance of the Issuers' obligations under the Notes.

6. RESIDENCE

A holder of a Note will not be and will not be deemed to be resident in The Netherlands for Dutch tax purposes and, subject to the exceptions set out above, will not otherwise be subject to Dutch taxation, by reason only of acquiring, holding or disposing of a Note or the execution, performance, delivery and/or enforcement of a Note.

The proposed financial transactions tax ("FTT")

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the "Commission's Proposal") for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the "participating Member States"). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission's Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Notes should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission's Proposal the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

FATCA

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a "foreign financial institution" may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes ("foreign passthru payments") to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. A number of jurisdictions (including the jurisdictions of the Issuers) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA ("IGAs"), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be "grandfathered" for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date. However, if additional notes (as described under "Terms and Conditions—Further Issues") that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in a programme agreement (the "Programme Agreement") dated 28 June 2022, agreed with the Issuers a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to subscribe Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under "Form of Final Terms" and "Terms and Conditions of the Notes". In the Programme Agreement, the Issuers have agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment, and any future update, of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme and to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith. If in the case of any Tranche of Notes the method of distribution is an agreement between an Issuer and a single Dealer for that Tranche to be issued by that Issuer and subscribed by that Dealer, the method of distribution will be described in the relevant Final Terms as "Non-Syndicated" and the name of that Dealer and any other interest of that Dealer which is material to the issue of that Tranche beyond the fact of the appointment of that Dealer will be set out in the relevant Final Terms. If in the case of any Tranche of Notes the method of distribution is an agreement between an Issuer and more than one Dealer for that Tranche to be issued by the Issuer and subscribed by those Dealers, the method of distribution will be described in the relevant Final Terms as "Syndicated", the obligations of those Dealers to subscribe the relevant Notes will be joint and several and the names and addresses of those Dealers and any other interests of any of those Dealers which is material to the issue of that Tranche beyond the fact of the appointment of those Dealers (including whether any of those Dealers has also been appointed to act as Stabilisation Manager in relation to that Tranche) will be set out in the relevant Final Terms.

It is expected that CaixaBank, S.A., through an agreement with Banco BPI, S.A., will take part in the marketing activities and distribution of the Notes, although it is not, and will not, be party to the Programme Agreement or the relevant Subscription Agreement, and it will not receive any commission from any of the Issuers.

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable", each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to any retail investor in the European Economic Area. For the purposes of this provision,

- (a) the expression "retail investor" means a person who is one (or more) of the following:
 - (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II");
 - (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 ("Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or
 - (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "EU Prospectus Regulation"); and
- (b) the expression "an offer" includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

Non-Exempt Public Offer Selling Restriction Under the EU Prospectus Regulation

If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable", in relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to the public in that Member State except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Member State:

- (a) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the EU Prospectus Regulation;
- (b) at any time to fewer than 150, natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the EU Prospectus Regulation), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the relevant Issuer for any such offer;
- (c) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 1(4) of the EU Prospectus Regulation; or
- (d) if the Member State is Ireland or Portugal provided that the offer is made in the manner and during the period contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation to the Notes, provided that no such offer of Notes referred to in (a) to (d) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the EU Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the EU Prospectus Regulation.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Notes to the public" in relation to any Notes in any Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes and the expression "EU Prospectus Regulation" means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable" each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms thereto in relation thereto to any retail investor in the United Kingdom. For the purposes of this provision,

- (a) the expression "retail investor" means a person who is one (or more) of the following:

- (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA");
 - (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or
 - (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; and
- (b) the expression "an offer" includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

Non-Exempt Public Offer Selling Restriction Under the UK Prospectus Regulation

If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable", each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to the public in the United Kingdom except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in the United Kingdom:

- (A) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA;
- (B) at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA) in the United Kingdom subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the relevant Issuer for any such offer; or
- (C) at any time in any other circumstances falling within section 86 of the FSMA, provided that no such offer of Notes referred to in (A) to (C) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to section 85 of the FSMA or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the UK Prospectus Regulation.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Notes to the public" in relation to any Notes means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes and the expression "UK Prospectus Regulation" means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the EUWA.

No such mediation is required, however, in respect of (i) the initial issue of such Notes to the first holders thereof, (ii) the transfer and acceptance by individuals who do not act in the conduct of a profession or business and (iii) the issue and trading of such Notes if they are physically issued outside The Netherlands and are not immediately thereafter distributed in The Netherlands.

None of the Issuers and the Dealers represents that Notes may at any time lawfully be sold in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any jurisdiction, or pursuant to any exemption available thereunder, or assumes any responsibility for facilitating such sale.

With regard to each Tranche, the relevant Dealer will be required to comply with such other restrictions as the Issuers and the relevant Dealer shall agree and as shall be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

GENERAL CONSENT – THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR TERMS

These terms (the "Authorised Offeror Terms") will be relevant in the case of any Tranche of Notes, if (and only if) Part B of the applicable Final Terms specifies "General Consent" as "Applicable". They are the Authorised Offeror Terms which will be referred to in the "Acceptance Statement" to be published on the website of any financial intermediary which (a) is authorised to make such offers under MiFID and (b) accepts such offer by publishing an Acceptance Statement on its website.

ALTERNATIVE PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The Issuer considers the following metrics to constitute Alternative Performance Measures as defined in the ESMA Guidelines introduced on 3 July 2016 (ESMA Guidelines) on Alternative Performance Measures, that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, IFRS-EU.

The Issuer considers that these metrics provide useful information for investors, securities analysts and other interested parties in order to better understand the Group's business, financial position, profitability, results of operations, the quality of its loan portfolio, the amount of equity per share and their progression over time.

Such measures should, however, not be considered as a substitute to profit or loss attributable to the Group or any other performance measures derived in accordance with IFRS-EU or as an alternative to cash flow from operating, investing and financing activities as a measure of the Group's liquidity.

Other companies in the industry may calculate similarly titled measures differently, such that disclosure of similarly titled measures by other companies may not be comparable with that of the Issuer and the Consumer Finance Group. Investors are advised to review these alternative performance measures in conjunction with the Group's audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes which are incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus.

Terms relating to profitability and return on investment measure the ratio of results on capital, assets and risk weighted assets in accordance with the definitions set out in the table below.

Terms relating to the non-performance of loans measure the quality of the loan portfolio and the percentage of the non-performing portfolio that is covered by provisions for defaults, in accordance with the definitions set out in the table below.

Alternative Performance Measures:

RoR

RoR (Rate of Return) is the rate established by the regulator to calculate REN's return on the regulated asset base. The rate of return is one of the major drivers of REN's regulated revenues.

At the beginning of each regulatory period, the rate of return is calculated by the regulator as a Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC), nominal, pre-tax, and its evolution is indexed to the 10 years Portuguese Treasury bond yields, subject to a cap and a floor.

The regulator defines different rates of return for the different types of REN's regulated assets (see Electricity base RoR and Natural Gas RoR).

Electricity base RoR

Electricity base RoR is the rate of return of electricity assets without premium. Its starting point, as well as its upper and lower limits, are defined at the beginning of each electricity regulatory period and its evolution is indexed to the ten-year Portuguese Government bond yields.

Natural Gas RoR

Natural Gas RoR is the rate of return of REN's natural gas assets infrastructures. Similarly to electricity RoR, its starting point, as well as its upper and lower limits, are defined at the beginning of each natural gas regulatory period and its evolution is indexed to the ten-year Portuguese Government bond yields. The RoR of distribution business is greater than for gas transmission by 20 basis.

Transmission Natural Gas RoR	4.56%	4.52%	4.79%
Distribution Natural Gas RoR	4.76%	4.72%	4.99%

CAPEX

CAPEX (Capital Expenditures) refers to the amount spent by REN in order to build/purchase new assets, or upgrade the existing ones, plus capitalised own works. Capex is a measure of the investment in the asset base and is a leading indicator for the growth of regulated asset base, over which the remuneration is calculated. The remuneration of the investment is the main driver of allowed revenues. In this way, Capex is used by REN's management in order to assess the organic growth in its existing businesses. Note that REN doesn't include the amounts spent in M&A operations in the capex indicator.

According to the international accounting standard IFRIC 12, the construction of infrastructure by the operator, arising from the concession arrangements, is a service that it provides to the grantor. Consequently, both the income and costs are recognised in the income statement. Accordingly, the operator's construction expenses (capex at external direct costs) are recorded as operating costs against the record as income of the operator's capex at total cost (after addition of own works capitalised on investment). Capex also includes other capital expenses, namely regarding assets in Chile (reflecting Transemel's acquisition in October of 2019).

+ Other expenses (excludes own works)	12.438	9.231	0.155

OPEX

OPEX (Operating Expenditures) is a measure of the costs associated with the company's operating activities. The opex is other important driver of allowed revenues that have been subject to a Revenue-Cap mechanism. In this sense, as REN's management strives to accomplish the efficiency targets imposed by the regulator in order to not prejudice REN's financial performance the opex indicator is regularly monitored.

Operating expenditures are a management indicator, which are calculated as the sum of the Cost of Goods Sold, External Supplies and Services, Personnel Costs and Other Expenses, including the effect of provisions for staff costs. The reconciliation of operating expenditures for 2020, 2021 and the three months ended 31 March 2022 are as follows.

EBIT

EBIT (Earnings before Interest and Taxes) measures the company's income without considering debt interests and taxes. By excluding the effect of interest and tax expenses, EBIT focuses on the company's ability to generate earnings from its operations. Given that, EBIT is used to measure the company's operational performance as a proxy for operating results.

EBIT is calculated by adding to the operating results the effect of the revenues from the interconnection capacity auctions between Spain and Portugal, known as FTRs (Financial Transaction Rights), which are classified as financial income in the statutory accounts. The reconciliation of EBIT for 2020, 2021 and the three months ended 31 March 2022 are shown in the table below.

+/- FTRs	0.141	0.033	-0.211

EBITDA

EBITDA (Earnings before Interest, Tax, Depreciation and Amortisation) is an indicator that measures the REN's income before deducting debt interests, taxes, depreciations and amortisations. As EBITDA ignores the impact of interest and tax expenses as well as the impact of depreciation and amortisation, which have no effect on cash outflow and are dependent on the size of the asset base, this indicator is widely used by management and analysts to measure the operational performance of the company and compare it with peers.

EBITDA is calculated by adding back the depreciations and amortisations to the operating results adjusted by the effect of the revenues from the interconnection capacity auctions between Spain and Portugal, known as FTRs (Financial Transaction Rights), which are classified as financial income in the statutory accounts. The reconciliation of EBITDA for 2020, 2021 and the three months ended 31 March 2022 are shown in the table below.

+ Operating results	228.869	218.861	56.491
+ Depreciation and amortisations	241.165	241.940	62.086
+/- FTRs	0.141	0.033	-0.211
EBITDA	470.175	460.835	118.365

Recurrent net income

Recurrent net income is defined by the net profit of the company excluding the non-recurring items of the period under analysis. An item is considered as non-recurring if it is one-off or extraordinary amount at current activity of REN. This indicator allows management, analysts and investors to compare the performance of the company over time, only considering the items that are fully comparable with each other.

Recurrent net income is calculated by subtracting the non-recurring items to the net profit. The reconciliation of recurrent net income for 2020, 2021 and the three months ended 31 March 2022 is as follows.

+ Net profit	109.249	97.153	5.957

+ Recovery of income taxes from previous years	-5.638	-2.388	Not applicable
Recurrent net income	131.706	121.805	33.975

Financial results adjusted

Financial results adjusted refer to the financial results excluding the effect of the revenues from the interconnection capacity auctions between Spain and Portugal, known as FTRs (Financial Transaction Rights), which are classified as financial income in the statutory accounts. This indicator measures the ability of the company to manage its debt expenses, adding the effect of the financial income and the dividends received from associated companies.

The reconciliation of financial results adjusted for 2020, 2021 and the three months ended 31 March 2022 are as follows.

+ Financial results	-46.667	-42.587	-9.655
+/- FTRs	-0.141	-0.033	0.211
Financial Results adjusted	-46.809	-42.621	-9.444

Operating cash flow

Operating cash flow aims to measure the amount of cash generated by REN's operations, before deducting capital, debt and tax expenditures and dividends payment. REN's management uses this indicator to compare the strength of REN's operations cash flows over time.

Operating cash flow can be obtained by direct method or indirect method. Under the direct method, the operating cash flow includes the amounts for cash from customers, cash paid to suppliers, cash paid to employees and other receipts/payments relating to operating activities.

In contrast, in indirect method, the operating cash flow is estimated excluding from EBITDA the relevant non-cash items, such as own works capitalised and other relevant cash items that don't come directly from operations, such as the cash inflow from the sale of REN's stakes in associate companies (Recognition of investments subsidies in profit and loss).

Net Debt/EBITDA

Net Debt/EBITDA is defined as the net debt divided by EBITDA (for further details regarding net debt and/or EBITDA, please see Net Debt, and EBITDA, respectively). This ratio is as an indicator of REN's credit risk and it is regularly monitored by REN's management. The lower the Net Debt/EBITDA ratio, the stronger is the position of the company to pay its debt from its EBITDA.
